VOL. 67. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1905. NO. 13.

DOWN WE COME

Our half yearly reduction sale of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing begins today.

In it we offer you a fairly good selection of thoroughly dependable merchandise—Suits that are made to fit, and put together, not for this special sale, but are goods left from our season's selling, made up in the most approved manner—best trimmings and best workmanship.

You will find them all marked in plain figures, and every penny reduction you receive from the original price, is that much taken from an honest and legitimate profit. No marking up and then marking down prices, but what's the use using all this ink to tell you that the word CLEARANCE SALE with our name beneath it ought to be sufficient, for they have been too well established in the past years for there to be any doubt as to the genuineness of our offers.

In this sale we have Men's Suits low as $2.50 the whole suit. Boys' Suits at prices calculated to interest any mother who has a boy to don them. Straw hats are also included in this sale. We're going to let 'em go.

Yours for business,

J. D. LUCAS.

THE GREAT FAIR!

15,000 Persons Attend Thursday—Bedworth, Jr., Wins Free-For-All—Kent Horses Win — Excursions Well Patronized.

FULL LIST OF PREMIUMS.

The Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Fair at Tolchester closed yesterday. It was the best attended in the history of the Fair and Supt. Geo. E. Noland is to be congratulated upon the excellent management and conduct.

It was a regular old-fashioned county fair, the races, of course, were the feature. The seductive "sure-thing" game was present. Be it said to the credit of management that the gambling booths were ordered closed Thursday and some arrests were made. Constable Gill captured one man but his consorts took him away, but the local officers caused most of the hawkers to close business.

There was a good exhibit of farming machinery. Messrs. Smith & Graham, of Chestertown, demonstrated the Bickford & Huffman drills and the Deering corn harvester, etc.

Medders & Co., of Still Pond, had a grand display of furniture, carriages, etc. in the Ladies' Hall.

John C. Davis, of Chestertown, had a most unique display. He sell the Fairbanks & Morse stationary gasoline engine, and the McCormick corn harvester, and in order to show both, with the advantages of each, he coupled the gear of engine to harvester and showed the working of both at same time. He also had Superior drill, Ontario drill and a patent combination plow and harrow, patented by R. H. Richards, a young Baltimorean.

Henry S. Deford, of Chestertown had a display of Courtland carriages etc.

Mr. Chas. H. Hurlock, mounted on a sorrel horse and wearing a red, gold-fringed sash, was marshal.

During the time between races the spectators were hugely entertained by a small performance on a platform opposite the grandstand. Carson brothers, great knottymuscled fellows, displayed their strength in various gymnastics, and a troup of dogs did intelligent tricks.

But what caused the laughter and drew the applause was the Black Diamond Jubilee Singers, as close an approach to the real, old-time minstrels as one could find. There was a one-legged darky in the quartet, and the way he danced with his one flat foot and the end of his crutch was funny.

A Record Breaking Crowd.

Thursday was the banner day, the attendance being over 15,000. The Emma A. Ford carried 791 from Chestertown and wharves on river; the Cecil and Kent excursion over 1,000 and left 75 on Betterton wharf. A thousand teams were on the grounds and much difficulty was experienced in finding a hitching place. A dead horse on one side the road was an evidence of hard driving.

Five steamers lay about the wharf at one time and made a pretty sight.

The Races—Tuesday.

The racing events were all well contested and interesting. In the first heat of the free-for-all Bedworth, Jr., lost a tire just beyond the quarter pole and he was unable to finish, but was allowed third place, and took the next three heats handily, equalling, but not beating the track record in last heat.

There were four races and those who came to see that kind of sport had a full afternoon of enjoyment. Supt. Noland received high praise for the manner in which he handled the vast crowd.
