There were quite a number from here who attended the Kent and Queen Anne's fair at Tolchester beach this week.

Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown is purchasing many hundred bushels of wheat this week. It is being shipped from "Fox Hole," the great grain receiving port, and thence to Baltimore by his three large steamers.

The great social event of Kent county will be the tournament, which will take place at Dewey Park on Saturday, Sept. 19 and many fine riders are booked. It will be a great affair.

The friends here of Mrs. Supon Bratton were sorely grieved to learn of her death last week at her home in Elkton. Mrs. Bratton, was a most lovely, bright and beautiful Christian lady, of a very bright and happy disposition. She was greatly loved by all who knew her, and her kind, sweet, beautiful face I can see yet, and their family have our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris entertained last week her aunt and her father, Mr. Capell, all of Baltimore county.

Mrs. Caroline Johns is entertaining a house party of Philadelphia relatives and her daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. R. Millick, Mr. J. Harry Lane,, all of Philadelphia. They gave a most delightful sailing and crabbing party at Fox Hole on Saturday last to their visitors.

There was no services in the Rehoboth M. P. Church on Sunday owing to the pastor's absence on his vacation.

The very air spoke of the absence of our faithful organist, who is now taking a vacation to Atlantic City—Mrs. John F. Ernest—and I thought on Sunday what would we do without her—she is so kind and useful in the church and everywhere.

Ayer's

Why is it that Ayer's Hair Vigor does so many remarkable things? Because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair, puts new life into it. The hair cannot keep from growing. And gradually all the dark, rich color of early life comes back to gray hair.

Hair Vigor

"When I first used Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair was about all gray. But now it is a nice rich black, and as thick as I could wish." —MRS. SUSAN KLOPFENSTIEN, Tuscumbia, Ala.

BALTIMORE'S BEST STORE

Hochschild, Kohn & Co.

Howard and Lexington Streets.

We prepay freight charges to all points within 125 miles of Baltimore on all purchases amounting to $5.00 or more.

WE ARE HOLDING A SALE OF THE ENTIRE STOCK OF THE CHAS. SIMON'S SONS CO.

208 N. HOWARD STREET

We have acquired the building and the entire stock of the Chas. Simon's Sons Co., 208 North Howard Street—next door to us.

This is not news to most of you—the papers told of the acquisition at the time it was made—some weeks ago.

The Simon business is the oldest retail dry goods business in Baltimore. It has an honorable past of 90 years—three generations.

It has always been a high-grade business—never an element of the sensational or the shoddy has entered into it.

By reason of the decision of the members of the firm of The Chas. Simon's Sons Co. to retire from business, there are opportunities to buy the fine goods for which the store is famous at much less than former prices.

Every course of action that has earned for the Chas. Simon's Sons Co. the good-will and respect of the public will be continued for time to come; every tradition that has endeared the store to its patrons will be preserved.

The sale will continue until the entire stock is sold—possibly a month.

The child of seven makes obeisance to the patriarch of ninety—hand-in-hand they will go into the broad future together.

HOCHSCHILD, KOHN & CO.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service. The McCall Bazar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request. Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

The scarcity of water and high wind were obstacles that could not be overcome in the Wilkins fire on Sunday last. The dwellings of Winfield Scott and Jas. Rodney nearby were protected by trees. Mr. Jack Joiner's house caught fire also, but was easily extinguished.

At St. Johns church last Sunday Prof. A. L. Judefind, a former Kent county boy, preached on church faithfulness to a large congregation.

Mr. John B. Sanford, a former resident here from 1865 to 1875, now of Baltimore, is with us. He is the same Berkley and doesn't look a year older than he did 30 years ago.

Miss Maggie Ryan, accompanied by Mr. Benjamin Dickerson, of Quaker Neck, returned home Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Maslin has been quite sick, but is now better.

Sewell's wharf was damaged Tuesday by high tide and wind.

Odd Fellows of this place were sorry to learn of the death of Grand Secretary John M. Jones last week.

Our watermen wound up the closed season with an interesting regatta on Thursday.

Work on the exterior of the M. E. church is in progress. The inside work will begin next week when the church will be closed for about four weeks, and during this time services will be held in K. of P. and Durding's Hall and in the parsonage.

About 200 oystermen tackled the oyster bars yesterday Oysters were found in fair condition, but the quantity of marketable oysters are not abundant. Very few buyers were on hand and the price was 40 cents. Next week, if the weather conditions are favorable, there will be an increase of buyers and catch.

Mr. James Higgins and Miss Mary Rosa Staats, of Piney Neck, were married in Piney Neck Parsonage Tuesday evening the 29th inst, by Rev. G. S. Conaway.

Fine Fishing.—Not for many years has fishing with hook and line been such fine sport in the Chester river and its tributaries. Almost every day numerous fishing parties go out and they usually return with a good string. Rock are particularly plentiful and are being caught in such quantities as really to make it a profitable work as well as a delightful pastime. It is a great deal in knowing where and when to go fishing, but almost any place seems to be all right this year.

Messrs. W. H Blakeney, Wm. Lowe, Ollie Estes and Max Blakeney went to Cliff's wharf Tuesday and caught six dozen fine rock.

Mr. J. Raymond Bowers goes out off his place and catches dozens of big rock and perch any day.

Bridge fishing promises to be fine as scores of little rock are caught. The NEWS man and Master Norman Crouch caught a basket full of rock and perch under the bridge Monday.

The Betterton baseball team have had a most successful season. The team is making arrangements to take a trip to Atlantic City and other points to play some of the crack northern teams.

Mr. J. P. Ahern and family are at Rehobeth, Del., this week.

Manager Wallen has arranged with the strong Kennedyville team to play here this afternoon, there will be no disappointment this time, they will be here for sure.

In remembrance of our darling baby, JAMES THOMAS FREDERICK CROUCH, the beloved son of Amos H. and Mary E. Crouch who departed this life one month ago today.

The one I loved has passed and gone,
And laid beneath the cedar shade.
Oh! now my heart is sad and lone,
Since our darling sleeps in his cold grave.

BY MAMA AND PAPA.

One humble flower I plant with care
Upon the grave where darling baby rests,
And oft at night I'll breath a prayer
Of him that dwells among the blest.

BY GRANDPA AND GRANDMA.

Farewell, dear baby, cold is thy bed.
Where thou dost sleep beneath the sod,
May angels guard thy guiltless head,
While your bright spirit dwells with God.

BY AUNT ANNIE AND UNCLE SOLOMON.

The Eastern District Sunday-School Convention, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, adjourned Sunday after having held its seventh annual session in Chestertown. One hundred delegates were present. Camp-meetings were condemned as harmful to the morals of the colored people. Rosie Richardson was elected district superintendent and Georgia Dobson, secretary.
