THE Peninsula Horticultural Society will hold their 20th annual meeting in Dover, Del., Jan. 8, 9 and 10th. An interesting program has been arranged.

THE frequency of railroad wrecks are becoming alarming and calls for immediate and searching investigation. The desire to make time seems to be above that of the safety of the traveling public. The terrible loss of life near Washington was caused by carelessness in not displaying signals.

MR. WILLIAM R. HEARST is to push his contest of the mayoralty election in New York. He has now the use of an attorney-general of the state who is ready to take up the contest and have it considered. The outcome of this renewed effort to overturn the result announced is to be watched with interest, especially by McClellan.

THE Delaware Legislature organized by electing Senator George W. Sparks, of Wilmington, Del., as the president of the Senate and Representative Richard Hodgson, of Townsend, as speaker of the House. The indications point to the election of Harry Richardson, of Dover, of United States Senator.

IN PULPIT AND PEW.

Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the Chestertown M. E Church, will begin extra services Sunday. Preaching services will be held every night except Saturday.

Christ Church Sunday School held their Carol service Sunday evening which was enjoyed by a large audience. Recitations were given by Anna Smith, Merle White, Ida Smith, Marie Greenwood and Maurice Ivens. The solo by little Miss Ida Smith, duet by Misses Addie Hurlock and Edith Fallowfield, and quartette by little Misses Helen Kendall, Mary Maslin, Sallie White and Evelyn Russell, were beautiful. Dr. Greenfield interested the audience with a Christ child story. The treat of the school was held Tuesday evening.

The entertainment of St. James M. P. Church was held Monday evening and it was an enjoyable affair. Master Noel Usilton and little Miss Bertha Meyers were called on platform a second time and the tree was certainly fine.

The large auditorium of Millington M. E. Church which has been closed several months for repairs and improvements, will be reopened next Sunday Jan. 6. Rev. Robert Watts, D. D., pastor of Asbury M. E. Church, Smyrna, and ex-presiding elder of Wilmington district, Wilmington Conference will preach in the morning at 10.30, and also have charge of the finances. It is worthy of note that the several societies and organizations of the Church assumed a large part of the expenses. The Home Missionary and Ladies' Aid Societies jointly furnished the carpet, cost $193. The Junior League donated the choir platform, brass railing, curtains and chairs, cost about $55. While the Usher's Union, composed of eleven young men, assumed the cost of the papering and decorating, amounting to $100. The room is a model of beauty and neatness, and will be a joy throughout this generation.

New Year Sunday at Christ M. P. Church. Experience Meeting at 9.30 a. m. Public Worship at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. Christian Workers' service at 6.45 p. m. Evening Theme: "Some Facts and Figures for New Year Reflection." Special music. The man who wants to keep right this year loses his advantage if he does not begin right; go to church and take your family.

Mr. J. V. Kilbourn, of Edesville, writes yesterday as follows to the NEWS: "I wish to inform the public which may be alarmed about small-pox in the vicinity of Edesville, Pine Neck and Rock Hall. when you are getting glasses

Get them right. Have them fitted as they should be. Have the lenses made for YOU—to your measure, so to speak.

Then you may read when you like, where you like, and as long as you like, and you'll not need to turn and twist the book in order to ease your eyes.

Not an eye pain or an ache, after you begin to wear the proper glasses, no headaches, no inconveniences at all.

To day would be a good time to begin to have your eyes looked after. Consultation and advice are free any time you call.

Don't be misled or taken in by strangers going over the country passing themselves off as "Dr." Eye Specialists, Etc., who charge you two prices and often do your eyes more injury than benefit.

Our optical department is in charge of a competent graduate optician and we can refer you to hundreds of our satisfied customers.
