Miss Emma Hessner has been enjoying a two weeks vacation with friends in Kennedyville and elsewhere.

Mrs. Warren, of Still Pond, is visiting Mrs. H. B. Rote.

JEFFERSON—BARWICK.

Kennedyville Methodist Protestant church was crowded at noon Thursday the occasion being the nuptials of Miss Nellie Rose, daughter of Mrs. John Barwick, and a popular public school teacher of this county, and Mr. Harry F. Jefferson, active and successful merchant of Chestertown. The church was tastily decorated for the event. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party approached the altar—the ushers, Messrs. James Jefferson and Thomas Massey, groom accompanied by his best man, Mr. John M. Toulson, and bride leaning on the arm of her brother Dr. G. I. Barwick. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. H. Hooker assisted by Rev. W. L. White. The bride wore a beautiful white Princess gown of crepe de chine.

After the ceremony a splendid luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother to which only the intimate friends of the couple were invited. They left on the afternoon train amid a shower of rice, shoes, &c., for a trip to Northern cities. Upon their return to Chestertown Monday they will reside at the Vosheli House.

"VALENTINE PARTY."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bishop, btween Lambson's and Galena, was the scene of one of the most enjoyable Valentine parties on last Tuesday, Feb. 12, 1907, in honor of the many friends of their attractive daughters. The house was beautifully trimmed with red crepe and bells and brilliantly lighted from top to bottom. Parlor games and cards were played, music, singing and conversation also indulged in by many. About 10.30 P. M. two heart shaped boxes were passed to everyone containing hearts for the ladies to draw and the other for gentlemen, hearts all being numbered and represented the wooing and their answers. It was one of the most interesting features of the evening when all began to look for their matches in such a crowd, but at last after much patience and fun, the gents all succeeded and led their fair valentines out to the large dining room table which looked handsome and was laden with many delicacies of the season, consisting of cakes, candies, apples, oranges, ade and ices which were participated. The souvenir paper napkins were indeed very handsome, bearing hearts and cupids. About two o'clock A. M. all the guests had bidden adieu, each expressing delight and wish the hostess many happy returns.

Among those present were: Middletown—Messrs. Richard Cochran and Edgar Bishop; Cecilton—Misses Christine Luthringer, Grace Burris, Mabel Brockson, Messrs. Thomas Brockson and Arthur Bailey; Sassafras—Miss Treasa Dreka, Messrs. John Rosin and Richard Tarbutton; Massey—Miss Carrie Roe, Messrs.
