VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1907. NO. 38

Lucas' January Sale

A GENERAL REDUCTION ON ALL REMAINING WINTER CLOTHING AND HEAVY UNDERWEAR.

Beginning today at twelve o'clock noon, we will offer our remaining stock of Men's, Boys and Children's Clothing and Heavy Underwear at a 20 per cent discount, or one-fifth off the regular retail price. (Cash only), all necessary alterations made free of cost to the purchaser.

There has been no general marking up of prices preparatory to this contemplated sale, but we mean to sell you ten dollars worth of merchandise that we heretofore got ten dollars for, in this sale for $8. You can readily see the great saving which is offered you, and right here at a time when you are probably in need of the very goods which we offer you in this great sale. By coming early you can get a very good variety of styles and all sizes; we hope you will avail yourself of our offering.

Yours for business,

J. D. Lucas

Death's Doings

Deputy Register Wm. H. Ford Dies Suddenly—Mrs. Caleb, Wm. E. Beck And Others Pass Away.

HARRIET E. CALEB.

Mrs. Harriet Elizabeth Caleb, widow of the late John E. Caleb, died last Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emory S. Wroth, Water street, Chestertown, after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 72. The deceased was a home lover and was seldom, if ever, seen on the streets or in public. She was of a sweet, loving disposition and cast about her a most beneficent influence. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. D. L. Greenfield who spoke most touchingly of the high character of the deceased; interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John H. Simpers, Wm. S. Carroll, Thos. G. Wroth, C. W. Wroth, Charles L. Dodd, Fred. G. Usilton. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson was in charge.

WILLIAM E. BECK.

Mr. William E. Beck, a highly respected citizen of Lynch, died on Friday night of pneumonia, age 79 years, 6 months. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock from his late home in Lynch, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, of St. James M. P. Church officiating. He was the son of Lieutenant John Beck, of Caulk's Field fame, and Nancy Monseur Beck, of Millington, Md., and was born August 9, 1828. Mr. Beck was always actively engaged in church work, being 40 years in Sunday school work. It was his delight to work for the Lord, to sing, teach and pray. He was a member of Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, and had been an elder for a long while but was unable to attend as he would have loved so much to have done, on account of increasing bodily weakness. Interment was in Still Pond cemetery. Pall-bearers, E. C. Bowers, Harry Casey, Samuel Cornelius, T. A. Parsons, Harry Jewell, Robert Rash. A widow, four sons and a daughter survive him. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of funeral arrangements.

CHARLES W. FLINTHAM.

Charles W. Flintham, a farmer, 39 years old, of Middle Neck, in the Second election district of Cecil county, while in the delirium due to typhoid fever with which he had suffered for the last two weeks, eluded his nurse on Saturday and blew out his brains.

Saturday morning about 4 o'clock the nurse had occasion to leave the sickroom to get her patient some water. Flintham from his bed watched her movements, and when the nurse left the room he jumped out of bed and going to the bureau secured a 22-calliber revolver. He then crept noiselessly back to bed, covered his head with the bedclothing and sent a bullet into his right temple, causing instant death. The nurse, returning to the room upon hearing the report, found her patient dead, with the smoking revolver clutched in his right hand.

Flintham resided with his wife on a farm owned by his mother and also had charge of several other farms, containing in the aggregate 743 acres, also owned by his mother, Mrs. Caroline E. Flintham, of Philadelphia.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by his mother and three sisters—Misses Lydia and Anna, of Philadelphia, and Ruby Flintham, of Baltimore. He is known in Kent, his sister owning the fine farm near Fairlee tenanted by Mr. Harry C. Willis. Mr. Willis attended the funeral on Monday in Cecil county which was largely attended.

MRS. JOHN WARD DAVIS.

Mrs. Mary Davis, wife of John Ward Davis, Sr., died at her home near Cecilton last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Davis was a daughter of the late Benedict Jones, and was seventy-eight years of age. She was a lady of fine Christian character and lovable disposition. Her husband survives her with three sons: William B. Davis, ex-County Commissioner and member of the last House of Delegates; John W. Davis, Jr., and Edgar J. Davis, all of the First district, Cecil County.

MARTHA A. GORSUCH.

Mrs. Martha A. Gorsuch, wife of Wm. S. Gorsuch, died at her residence at Grange, Patapsco Neck, Tuesday afternoon, aged 73. She leaves two sons. The deceased was the daughter of the late Jacob Sutton, near Kennedyville, and is a half sister to Mrs. John Medders and a cousin to Mrs. W. T. Hepbron.

WM. H. FORD.

Mr. William H. Ford died Wednesday night at his farm, near Millington, of paralysis, aged 65. The deceased was well-known in Chestertown having boarded at the Loud House for the past ten years. He was appointed deputy register of wills under Mr. C. S. Hurlock in 1897 and since that time has been a resident here. A few years ago he received his first stroke of paralysis since which time he has been an invalid but has always had the tender care of Mr. and Mrs. Loud and other friends in town.

In 1880 Mr. Ford was elected on the Democratic ticket to the Legislature and has always taken a deep interest in the success of his party. The deceased was an upright citizen, kindly disposed and very fond of children. He had few enemies and won a large circle of friends during his stay in town. He was unmarried and leaves two sisters, Mrs. Frank Crouch and Miss Anna Blackiston.

The funeral will take place this morning at Trinity M. E. Church, Millington, interment at Millington cemetery.

Live Local Notes.

Navigation Opened. — The steamer Gratitude arrived at Chestertown Tuesday after an absence of two weeks and started on her regular route Wednesday. Capt. Taylor reported but little ice.

Sale of Cannery.—The American Strawboard Company have sold to H. N. Baldwin of Aberdeen, the cannery at Chestertown, near Chester Cemetery, for $2850. Mr. Baldwin has been the successful manager of the Kennedyville cannery and will run the new factory in connection with Kennedyville.

Improved. — The condition of Rev. Henry K. Miller who is suffering from blood poisoning at the home of Mrs. Cooper, Worton Station, is very much better. He is able to be about the house, having been down stairs several days this week. Dr. H. B. Simmons, his physician, is certainly to be congratulated upon the ready response which his treatment has met with in this case.

Largely Attended Sale.—The personalty sale of Mr. B. Kramer, near Rock Hall, last Wednesday, exclusively advertised in the NEWS, was attended by a large number of persons. Mr. Kramer says it was more largely attended than any small sale he has seen for a long time. Things sold well. Mr. Kramer will move with his family to Baltimore next week where he has purchased a general grocery and meat store at 2140 Druid Hill avenue. Capt. Teller has rented Mr. Kramer's place near Rock Hall.

Dam Broke.—The dam at Urieville mill broke away Thursday afternoon and caused a damage of nearly a thousand dollars. Mr. George D. Lofland was on his way to Kennedyville and was descending the hill when he heard a roar and within a few moments saw a great flood of water sweep across the road just a few feet ahead of his team! It is thought the break was caused by muskrats. This mill is owned by parties in Philadelphia and managed by Mr. Eli Hastings.

Carriage Paint Shop.—Mr. Milton Elwood Baker has purchased of Mrs. S. M. Usilton a lot fronting on Mill street extended on which he will erect a carriage painting shop. Mr. Baker has for some years been doing this work in the second story of his father's shop, but his business has grown so as to require more room. He will be prepared now to do all kinds of carriage, dearborn and runabout painting besides continuing to serve the public as house painter and decorator.

To Contract for Tomatoes.—Mr. H. N. Baldwin, of Aberdeen, Hartford county, was in Chestertown Wednesday making arrangements for running the Chestertown cannery. As noted in the NEWS in this issue, Mr. Baldwin has purchased the cannery at the old Chestertown railroad station. Mr. Baldwin will be in town next week to make contracts with our farmers for growing about 250 acres of tomatoes. He says that his firm will pay market price for the tomatoes and will put the cannery in the best of condition.

Steam Laundry. — The Chestertown Steam Laundry is located in the former public school house near the depot and is fitted up with the latest improved machinery. The Company has a capital of $5,000 and is well officered as follows: President, Col. Wm. J. Vannort; vice-president, John C. Davis; secretary, S. P. Townshend, Esq.,; treasurer, J. T. Anthony; manager, Wm. H. McKee. The company for the present will require all clothes to be brought to the laundry but later they hope to have a wagon to collect same. The new company have the best wishes of everyone in town, especially the housewives.

Worton Hospitality.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Willis, of near Fairlee, gave a splendid dinner on Thursday last in honor of three recently married couples. They were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skirven. The meal was a typical Worton one which included everything to tempt the most fastidious palate. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs.—
Joseph R. Usilton, Geo. W. Hatcherson,
Jesse H. Usilton, Frank Skirven,
Rome Skirven, Wm. T. Nicholson,
John P. Nicholson, Samuel Vannort,
Chas. L. Dodd, Lewin U. Skirven.
Thos. D. Bowers.
Misses—
Daisy Nicholson, Clara Biddle,
Bessie Nicholson, Blanche Smythe.
Florence Nicholson.
Messrs.—
L. J. Usilton, Thos. J. Willis,
Walter Willis, Robt. J. Nicholson.

THE most favored man in Chestertown on Valentine Day was Mr. J. Romie Byron who received 23 valentines and a half bag of literature! Mr. Byron says he was looking for a few cards but did not expect such an avalanche. He took the joke in good humor and has the "beauties" all spread out on a door.

THE fine schooner "Cecelia" has been sold by Capt. Pheffer, of Chestertown, to Capt. Clark, of Virginia, both of whom went to Baltimore yesterday to have the papers signed.

Dissolved.—The partnership heretofore existing between G. H. Ivins and M. M. Carr trading as Ivins & Carr with factories at Worton and Lynch, has been dissolved by mutual consent. M. M. Carr will continue the cannery at Worton.

Sale of Farms.—Richard D. Hynson, Esq., assignee of mortgage, sold on the premises Monday the Shallcross farm advertised exclusively in the KENT NEWS to Mr. John F. Ernest for $14,178. This farm lies on the public road leading from Galena to Sassafras adjoining the R. S. Griffith farm and others, containing 247 acres. There were six spirited bidders who rapidly shot this farm up to $57.30 per acre.

Mr. Isaac Gibbs has purchased of Mr. John F. Ernest his half interest in the White House farm near Masseys.

Accidents.—Mr. Isaac Cleaver drove out to his son's, near Kennedyville, on Tuesday to get a dearborn load of corn and met with quite a serious accident. He backed the team up to the corn crib and was loading the corn when a chicken flew upon the horse's back and caused him to run off. Mr. Cleaver was thrown to the ground and injured about his shoulder. Dr. Barwick is attending him.

Adopted Honor System. — At a mass-meeting of the students of Washington College this week it was decided to adopt an honor system. The students signed a pledge to refrain from the use of any unfair means during their connection with the college and to use their influence to prevent the use of unfair means on the part of others. This pledge was presented to the faculty, who accepted it. The pledge will be suitably engrossed and signed, so as to be preserved among the records of the college. As a proper accompaniment of this action on the students the faculty has decided that hereafter no one will be received as a student of this college unless he pledges himself to uphold the honor system of the college and refrain from the use of any unfair means in recitations, tests and examinations.

Struck by Train.—The Philadelphia Record on Friday published the following account of an accident which befell Mr. James F. Vansant, formerly of Millington, this county, and who removed to Philadelphia after his marriage to Miss Sue Lambert, of Chestertown, about three years ago. The Record says:

"A milk wagon of the York Stock Farm was struck by a train at the Mt. Pleasant avenue crossing of the Reading Railway yesterday morning, and the driver, James Vansant, of No. 24 Pleasant street, was seriously injured, sustaining concussion of the brain, besides injuries to his back and a lacerated ear. All but the rear wheels of the wagon had cleared the track when the engine struck it. The wagon was completely demolished and the milk scattered over the street."

News from Mr. Vansant received this week states that he broke three ribs but was doing as well as could be expected.

Seeks Divorce.—A special dispatch from Elkton to the American on Friday says: Charles E. Warburton, secretary of the Citizens' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of this city, has filed a suit in the Circuit Court for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Clara V. Warburton. The bill states that they were married February 15, 1904, and that in August, 1906, the defendant abandoned and deserted the plaintiff and declares that she will never again live with him. Mrs. Warburton is now residing in Philadelphia. About two years ago Mr. Warburton had one of the handsomest residences in Elkton built on East Main street for his own use.

A SPLENDID HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell have contracted with Mr. Walter T. Pippin for the erection of a magnificent colonial home on Washington avenue opposite the residence of Mr. D. B. McMenamin. The house will be three stories with granite foundation—front building 55x-46 1-2 feet, the back 45 1-2 feet. Big two-deck porches with 21 foot columns will be erected around the house; the lower floor is to be finished in quartered oak and hall of beamed ceiling, circular grill and fret work, mirrored closet doors and the whole house heated by hot water. This splendid home will cost about $10,000.

Washington Birthday Celebration.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society of Washington College celebrated the birthday of Washington yesterday in a most appropriate manner. Senator Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, was the orator of the day and gave a most admirable address upon "Patriotism." Mr. Perkins' address was full of sound wisdom and was delivered in a masterly manner. Mr. Wm. R. Huey, the president of the society presided. Mr. Wethered Barroll gave an excellent recitation appropriate to the occasion. The hall was decorated with flags and bunting.

WATCH for Walter Bramble's new harness adv. next week.
