countenance and ever manifested in his cheerful and humorous disposition and manner, although a devoted husband and father, the interests of the poor unfortunates found a place in his hearts affections Endearing him to all who were brought in contact with him, the beautiful floral tributes from the Trustees, Officers and Inmates attested in their silent yet none the less forable manner the presence of the tenderest emotions in the hearts of all for their departed brother and friend.

Resolved. That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family in their sad affliction and pray that their grief may be assuaged by the comforting assurance that their loss is his eternal gain, and that God in His Mercy and who does not willingly afflict, may bind up their broken hearts, and pour in the oil of consolation where now rests the spirit of heaviness.

Resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and that they be entered upon the minutes of this Board.
