DEATH'S DOINGS.

DR. WILLIAM J. WROTH.

Dr. William J. Wroth died Wednesday morning at his home, Pennhurst avenue, West Arlington, after an illness of two weeks. Dr. Wroth was 78 years old, and was born at Chestertown, Kent county, Md. He was the son of the late Dr. Peregrine Wroth, of Kent county. He was a graduate of Washington College and the Maryland University, and for a number of years was resident physician of the Marine Hospital. He was also medical director of the Union Fraternal League of Boston and the Royal Benefit Society of Washington, D. C. He was a member of the following Masonic orders: Cassia Lodge No. 45; Phoenix Chapter, No. 7, and the Baltimore Commandery, No. 2. He is survived by his widow, (Mrs. Mary J. Wroth,) and one daughter, (Mrs. D. W. Unverzagt,) of New York, three grandchildren, (Misses Louise, Ruth and Helen Unverzagt) and two nephews, (Rev. Peregrine Wroth and Rev. Edward Wroth, of Baltimore.)

Rice, F. Schillinberg, B. F. Wilson and Dr. S. M. Byers. Burial was in London Park Cemetery. The floral offerings were lovely.

ARE YOU RHEUMATIC?

Sufferers from rheumatism are so very numerous that means for their relief are always welcome. A treatment reported as giving remarkably satisfactory results is as follows: From a druggist are obtained tablets compounded of 2½ grains Sodium Bi-carbonate, 3 grains Salicylic Acid and 1 minim Wine of Colchicum. One of these is taken before each meal, followed immediately by a glass of water. After each meal is taken a tablespoonful of a mixture of ½ ounce Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 dram Fluid Extract of Horse Nettle, 1 ounce Amet Cordial, ½ ounce Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 14 ounces water. This treatment, preserved in for a month, is said to be extremely efficacious, even in most obstinate cases.—X

ROCK HALL ITEMS

The liberal inducements offered by our merchants last week had the effect of bringing out their patrons and hosts of others on a shopping tour on Saturday. As a consequence, the Easter trade was unusually active. Never was the display of Easter goods and novelties so large and varied as was presented the past week. Alexander & Son's department store was profusely decorated with festoons, etc., equaling their Christmas display. Kramer, Miller and Wilson were also in the swim. Casey's bakery was well worth a visit to any one whose digestive power was in good trim. His fancy cake display far exceeding his beautiful Christmas specials in novel decorations. Casey's butchery was the headquarters for the most tempting cuts in meats, and Abe was prepared to accommodate all comers, and did a rush on Saturday. We failed to call at Downey's, Crew's, Ashley's and others of the trading marts of our town, but it goes without saying that their attractions in high grade and full stock together with their affability assured them a satisfactory Easter trade. The fine spring weather prevailing during the week made all hearts aglow with fond anticipation for a bright Easter Sunday, but alas! the day was raw and damp, consequently new hats and other feminine togery were little in evidence during the day.

St. John's R. C. membership emerged from the gloom of Lent to a joyous Easter. Special services were held in the church Saturday evening and Sunday morning participated in by many. At the M. E. Church Rev. Mr. Burr preached an Easter sermon in the morning.

"In the midst of life we are in death." With all our joys of Easter there was sadness in very many hearts because of the sudden demise of one of our highly respected fellow citizens, Mr. James B. Boyer. On Thursday morning while he and Mr. Thomas Elburn were engaged in getting a pound net ready for the water it was necessary to drive a stob on the shore, the latter was using the maul while the former held the stob in place, after a strike or two Elburn said you had better not stand in front of me Mr. Boyer I might hit you. Always a firm believer in fate, (whatever was to be would be and it's useless to dodge) Boyer replied, "go ahead, you won't hit me," and the very next strike made the maul flew off the handle and struck Mr. Boyer on the right side of the abdomen. He didn't seem to be much hurt, and declared he was not hurt and ordered dinner prepared while he rested, soon, however, he was taken with alarming symtoms and he was hurriedly taken across the creek to the shore of Mr. O. F. Leary, who conveyed him to the home of his sister, Mrs. Martha McKivett and Dr. Beale was summoned who found the patient in a serious condition. Medical skill was unavailing and Mr. Boyer died Friday afternoon. He was about 64 years of age, a life-long waterman, a Knight of Pythias for 32 years, an Odd Fellow for 16 years, and his religion was the Golden Rule. Jim was an all-round good fellow, whenever eye or ear indicated a way to benefit a fellowman he straightway did his part. In recent years he was a great sufferer from rheumatism. Besides the sister above mentioned, a brother, John W. Boyer survive. The funeral conducted by Rev. Warren Burr, took place at the home Sunday afternoon in the presence of large assembly of relatives and friends. The remains were escorted to Wesleyan cemetery by the Lodge membership in a body and the last sad rites of the K. of P. Ritual was performed at the grave. Undertaker Casey was in charge and the pallbearers were Messrs. J. B. Willson, A. J. Andrews, Joseph Williams, W. T. Harrison, George Davis and J. R. Ryan.

Little Ada Colyer who has been so extremely ill with pneumonia is now convalescing, efficient and faithful medical and nursing attending on the part of Dr. Selby and Mrs. Gertie Colyer, has been given her much to the gratification of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Colyer.

The weatherman played an April fool trick on "we uns" Monday morning in which there was no joke and the frown hasn't wore off our brows yet. Many had done considerable gardening last week. Events planting out tomatoes much of which the cold of Monday night and Tuesday morning has swiped; fruit growers here are much alarmed for the safety of this years fruit crop. Strawberries were in full bloom and of course they are nipped alright. Some growers took the precaution to cover their berry patches over with straw Monday evening in hopes of saving them.

Master Walter Kelley was transferred to the Maryland University Hospital on Friday to be operated on for appendicitis. The operation was performed on Saturday and at last report he was doing as well as could be expected.

As the oyster business is at a dead low ebb, quite a number of the oystermen have quit and have gone over to Anne Arundel County to work on truck farms.

Under the management of Columbia Motion Picture Company there will be an interesting entertainment held in K. of P. Hall on Tuesday evening next which promises to be the event of the season.

Shall Bourne Park was brilliantly illuminated on Wednesday evening in honor of the reopening for the season. Quite a large and enthusiastic number of the ladies and gentlemen of Rock Hall and other sections was present.

PINEY NECK WAVES.

Misses Eden and Amy Ashley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ashley, visited their grandmother in Baltimore during the Easter holidays. They returned home on Tuesday.

Mrs. John Frazier is visiting her mother Mrs. C. Gardiner, of York, Pennsylvania, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Earl R. Strong paid a flying trip to Baltimore on Friday.

Rev. W. V. Harris returned Monday from conference. We are rejoiced in having our pastor to remain another year with us.

Master Lawerence Arders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Arders, of Wilmington, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, for a few weeks.

Misses Rilla Wood and Helen Strong spent Easter with their friend Miss Anna Fitzpatrick, of Baltimore. Saturday they spent the day in Washington with their friend Miss Lulu E. Thomas.

Ex-Judge and Mrs. Thomas A. Hudson entertained a few of their friends at the christening of two grand children, Mary and Edith Hudson. A large dinner was served followed by refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. Jack Collson, Mrs. Chas. Crouch, Mrs. L. Crouch, Mrs. Allie Hudson, Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mrs. W. V. Harris, Rev. and Mrs. Paris, Misses Mabel Collson, Alberta Harris, Olive Hudson, Louise Hudson, Edith Collson, Chas. Crouch, Jr., Edward Hudson, Chas. Collson, Paul Paris and Freida Crouch.

Miss Naomi Harp who has been undergoing medical treatment for several weeks in Baltimore, returned to her home on Saturday very much improved.

Mrs. Mark Taylor who has been visiting her father Mr. Romie Crouch for a few days returned to her home in Baltimore on Friday.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith entertained his sister Mrs. E. W. Staats and daughter, Mrs. Frank Babbett and daughter, Elizabeth, and neice little Miss Irene Cliff and nephew Hudson Cliff for the day on Thursday last.

Mrs. Henry Rosin and Mrs. John F. Ernest visited her sister Mrs. John H. Price, of near Warwick, on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston entertained for dinner on Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston, Mrs. George Murray, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children, of Blacks.

A lady of this town received a most beautiful Easter offering of a beautiful growing plant by a dear friend not many miles from here, this lady has some most beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Hodson entertained friends of Townsend on Sunday.

Miss Grace Sylvester visited Baltimore from Saturday until Monday evening with her school mates and aunt of Baltimore.

There will be a poultry supper and country store and bazaar under the auspices of the Jr. O. U. A. M. in the old hotel at Sassafras on Wednesday evening, April 10th. All are most cordially invited to come and assist in this good cause as the Council is most anxious to repair their Lodge and take this mode for assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. George Murray, of Philadelphia.

Miss Helen Stradley is visiting her grandparents during the Easter Holidays. Miss Helen attends school in Philadelphia.

Miss Fannie Johnson, of Philadelphia, who attends school there is visiting her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson during the Easter holidays.

Mr. Wm. Comly, of Ridgley, Caroline county, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosin for the past week.

In spite of the gloomy morning Easter Sunday was most beautifully observed here in our Catholic Churches and as usual St. Francis Xavier was most beautifully decorated for the solemn occasion. The church was full from chancel to doors and the flowers consisting of Easter lilies, palms and potted plants made the grand old edifice look radient. The singing of a well trained choir and the music was most elaborate and Father Crinley looked radient on the glorious Easter morning which is always a great enjoyment to all Catholics, a great many Protestants from this vicinity were in attendance.

Mrs. Henry Rosin and Miss Royden Caulk visited Middletown on Saturday last.

Mr. Smith Burris who has been visiting his daughter Mrs. M. Toulson for the past six months who has moved from Georgia to near Wilmington last week returned on Monday to visit his daughter Mrs. Frank Sylvester, of Sassafras.

Mrs. Charles Gillighan who has been seriously ill for some weeks we are pleased to say somewhat improved.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Wouldn't you rather deal with a wise buyer than a shrewd seller? We have bought wisely. Our 1907 line of vehicles proves it. We can sell you a better buggy for less money than any one else. We say this without restriction or qualification. We are right here to demonstrate it. Compare our vehicles with anything offered by anyone, anywhere, any time.

Cortland Wagon Co. Vehicles

are the "Old, Original and Only" vehicles. They have been famous the world over for thirty-five years. They come nearer our idea of what high-grade vehicles should be than any line we know of. That is why we have selected them as our leaders in the high-grade line. You will be interested in looking them over. Come to us first or come to us last. We are sure that on a fair and square comparison you will come to us in the end. We make no extravagant claims—that's a catalogue house trick. We have no $75.00 buggies at $32.48. All we have to say is that we have an immense line, all new, all grades, all prices; that we can suit you in style, quality and price. That's what you are interested in. That's business. It's up to you.
