VOL. 68. CHESTERTOWN, MD., SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1907. NO. 44

Spring Styles!

Everything that's new and nobby in CLOTHING AND FURNISHINGS for the man, youth or boy can be found at our store. As always in the past, no pains have been spared in selecting this grand array of wearables.

They Are Here

All marked as in the past, viz: in plain figures, and they the very lowest consistent with good reliable merchandise.

You are invited to make an early call and inspect these values to your own satisfaction and judgment. It's the best things that sell first—a word to the wise is sufficient.

Yours for business,

J. D. Lucas

(Opposite Stam's Hall.)

OYSTERS, LAST OF THE SEASON.
To all whom it may concern. We wish to say that the undersigned is still serving oysters, stewed, fried or panned, in the old well-known and reliable Wm. Perkins style at 342 Cannon St. Two dining rooms—one for ladies and one for gentlemen. Only 3 minutes walk from the depot. Beef-steak and coffee, especially on Tuesdays. Fried oysters delivered any where in town at short notice. Remember that we are the only parties in Kent county holding the original Perkins receipt for stewing, frying or panning oysters. We have had some of our fried oysters shipped to Boston, Mass., for a wedding breakfast, and some to Cumberland, Md. We are still making Ice Cream, Water Ice and Frozen Custard, which we furnish by the plate or gallon in large or small quantities.
HARRISON JENKINS,
a13-3t 342 Cannon St., Chestertown, Md.

COURT NOTES.

A dispatch from Rolling Fork, Miss., says: "Every member of the Grand Jury in the Circuit Court here yesterday indicted himself for violating the Sunday liquor law, and each appeared before Judge Booth and was fined $10 with a lecture from the bench. The self-indicted grand jurors also returned bills against several petit jurors for the same offense. A religious wave following a Methodist revival recently swept over Sharkley county, and people of high and low degree are purging themselves."

The case of Diamond State Telephone Co. vs. David Blake was heard before the Court of Appeals last week, and this week Messrs. W. W. Beck, L. W. Wickes and J. D. Urie have been arguing the case of L. B. Russell vs. Mrs. Hester V. Stoops, both of these cases having been appealed from the Circuit Court of Kent county.

The docket shows 41 trials, 10 appeals, 24 appearances, 11 criminals and there are fifteen prisoners in jail.

There is a murder case to be tried in which Sarah and William Myles are charged with the death of William Myles, Sr.

The case of Robert F. Price vs. McCall Ferry Power Co. for $25,000 damages for alleged injuries is a removed case from Cecil county.

Among the other cases docketed are the Ontario Drill Co., vs. Canning and Mercantile Co.

C. F. Parks vs. W. C. Townsend for alleged injuries.

A. S. Turner vs. P. W. & B. R. R. for alleged shortage of grain.

Laura V. Seney vs. J. N. Bennett for damages for trespass.

Hiram Wooleyham vs. Pearly Moffett, suit for contract.

The following jurors have been drawn to serve at the coming term of Court:

James Bramble,	Richard C. Leaverton,
Wm. W. Baldwin,	Jos. S. Clark,
David A. Bacchus,	Charles L. Miller,
Jas. W. Stevens,	Richard H. Collins,

FRUIT PROSPECTS.

The Weather Of Past Week Trying On Plums, Apricots and Peaches—Damage in Western Maryland.

The snow and ice of past week has been very trying on all kinds of fruit but up to this time the crop is thought to be safe.

Mr. James S. Harris, an authority on fruit, was seen by the NEWS man Wednesday, and gives as his opinion that the crop is unhurt.

Capt. Edw. W. Emory thinks the cold weather has been especially trying on plums and apricots but that the peaches were not far enough advanced to be hurt.

Messrs. James H. Baker, Alfred C. Loud, Richard Groves, Capt. Daniel Hill, Joseph R. Usilton and others in town this week spoke encouragingly of the outlook for fruit.

D. M. Wertz, an extensive grower in the Mont Alto peach belt, went all through his orchards and reports that he did not find a single peach bud that was not blighted in one orchard of 20 acres. In several other orchards owned by him only part of the buds were damaged. In the Midvale belt the freeze was of the most blighting character. In Aaron Newcomer's orchards the buds are nearly all destroyed.

W. D. Hughes, of the Kennedysville belt, after inspecting the peach trees, stated that he found many buds that escaped damage, especially in orchards on high ground. In the mountain belt above Smithsburg the buds also suffered very little.

John Heitschu, of Dover, and other well-informed fruit-growers in that section have concluded that the persistent cold snap so near the middle of April has seriously injured the plum crop. Plums and apricots already show the injury and are dying.

A Canner Arrested.—W. E. Knight was arrested at Sparrows Point and brought to Chestertown Saturday on a charge of getting money under false pretenses and was held for action of the grand jury. Mr. Knight was manager of the cannery at Lambson's Station and is charged with reporting more cases of canned goods in the warehouse than were there and obtaining a loan on the goods.

Voshell House Changes Tenants.—Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lambert have sold their tendency of the Voshell House, Chestertown, to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Keene, the transfer to take place to-day. This House is owned by Mr. James S. Bradley and is one of the largest and best equipped hotels on the shore. Mr. and Mrs. Lambert have been in charge here for eight years during which time they have established a high reputation for the well-known hostelry. They will remove to Lambert's Riverside Hotel and give all their attention to its success. Mr. Keene has been in Chestertown for six months as manager of the Metropolitan Insurance Co., coming here from Hagerstown.

A. COHEN, the Sandy Bottom "Wanamaker," brought to the NEWS office this week a sample of the Jewish Passover bread. It was rather dry eating, having no lard nor yeast in it.

THE lecture in the M. E. Church Thursday night by Dr. Watt was fairly well attended and highly enjoyed. Miss Isabel Beck sang a pretty solo and Messrs. T. W. Perkins and George White a beautiful duet.

Mr. Wm. Green died at his home on Maple Avenue yesterday afternoon after a long illness.

Death of Mrs. Milcha Adkinson.

Mrs. Milcha Adkinson, widow of the late George C. Adkinson, died at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Thursday afternoon, after an illness of several weeks, aged 89 years and 6 months. The deceased was born on Sandy Hill farm, near Still Pond. She leaves the following children, James H. Toulson, Salem, N. J., J. Thomas Toulson, Federalsburg, Milbourn A., and Mrs. Fannie Davis, Chestertown, and Mrs. J. A. Greenwood, Rock Hall. The deceased has been a most active woman all her life, kind and devoted to her faithful children and her every whim has been carefully humored. She was beloved by everyone and lived close to her Redeemer so that her life was a benediction to all about her. She has had the devoted attention of her son and his family since her old home was broken up by death and has always been the idol of all her children. "Mother" is the sweetest name on earth but God has taken her to be with "Him" which is far better.

The funeral will take place at 2 p. m., today interment in Chester cemetary, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. N. Dodd, unkertaker. The bearers will be Messrs. Frank and Milbourn Davis, Arthur Greenwood, Prof. L. J. Smyth, John and Houston Toulson.

PULPIT AND PEW.

Miss Louisa Urie had charge of the interesting service at Christ Church Sunday evening.

Every charge in Kent County excepting Kennedyville changed pastors at the recent session of the M. P. Conference and good men were replaced by other good ones.

Mr. B. J. McCauley celebrated his fiftieth anniversary as organist and choir leader in the Catholic Church at Galena. Singular to note also, the music on that day was said to be better than ever before. This church is growing rapidly under its present self-sacrificing rector. It deserves success.

Dr. C. A. Grice will reside in Berlin. He has been transferred from Baltimore to take charge of the Peninsula Anti-Saloon League work, and will remove with his family into a new house which he is building there.

Rev. W. N. Sherwood is visiting his mother in Chestertown. He has been sent to Powellsville, near Snow Hill, a most excellent appointment.

Rev. W. E. Shinn, the secretary of the International Reform Bureau, accompanied by his secretary, Rev. Harry Hoskins, spent Sunday in Chestertown and created quite a "stir." Mr. Shinn is a gentleman of splendid physique and has talent in marked degree. He is thoroughly in earnest in his fight against liquor, opium and cigarettes.

Rev. W. A. Melvin and family have been visiting at Mrs. M.'s home on Mill street—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Peregoy. Dr. Melvin is meeting with success in Cumberland and returns for another year.

On Saturday afternoon the Rt. Rev. John J. Monaghan, bishop of the Wilmington diocese, and well-known in Kent under whom are the Catholic churches in this diocese, accompanied by the Rev. Michael Foley, of Baltimore, and the Rev. J. T. Cassidy, of Westminster, Md., sailed from New York city for Rome, where the former will pay a visit to Pope Pius X. The bishop will spend about a month in the Eternal City and will then tour the continent. He will be gone several weeks. It has been several years since the bishop visited Rome and this will be the first time he has met the present pontiff.

Chestertown W. C. T. U. union held a meeting on Wednesday last at the M. E. Parsonage. It being found inconvenient to have a public Willard meeting. A subscription was begun among the members to raise the annual contribution to the National Organization Fund. A contemplated change in amount of dues was discussed. Prizes are being arranged for Chestertown High School for best temperance essays. Union voted five dollars toward College prizes.

St. Paul's Parish Church—Divine services tomorrow, 2nd Sunday after Easter at 10.30 a. m. The afternoon services will be at Christ Church, I. U. Parish at 3.30 o'clock. The Wardens and Vestrymen of the Parishes are requested to attend Divine Service tomorrow.

Rev. C. M. Compher comes to Kent from Baltimore where he has served Violetville two years, built Clinton Hill Church in Newark, N. J., and a splendid preacher. He will graduate at Westminster Theological Seminary in May.

Rev. George A. Morris who comes to St. James has served Pittsville Church six years and previous to that charge was at Powellsville four years. He also built second church, Wilmington, where he was stationed four years. He is a good preacher and pastor, fine singer and an all-around excellent man.

There will be preaching at St. James M. P. Church Sunday 10.30 a. m. and at Lynch's 3 p. m. by the retiring pastor Rev. J. M. Sheridan. It will also be the official visit of Mr. Sheridan to these churches for the year. Public cordially invited.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. Dr. Frank T. Little, Pastor. Experience Meeting at 9.30 a. m. Dr. D. L. Greenfield will occupy the pulpit in Christ Church Sunday morning. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. Christian Workers Meeting at 6.45 p. m. No evening service.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan, president of Maryland Annual Conference, will preach at Kennedyville on Sunday night, April 14, at 7.30 p. m.

A. Wilson Cochran, living near Sassafras, had a most serious accident happen to one of his horses Saturday. The accident was caused by a team coming in contact with Mr. Cochran's, the shaft penetrating the side of Mr. Cochran's horse to some distance. Dr. H. B. McDowell, of Middletown, was summoned and sewed up the wound, but gave but little encouragement for the animals recovery. The accident is said to be the cause of careless driving on the part of the other team.
