"An Ordinance for the appointment of Agents to represent the City of Baltimore in the execution of the Will of John McDonogh, "late of the City of New Orleans deceased"."

Section 1.– Be it enacted and ordained, by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, that immediately after the passage of this Ordinance there shall be appointed, as City Offices are generally appointed, three persons of integrity and ability, one of whom shall be a citizen and resident of New Orleans, who shall originally have been a citizen of Baltimore, and two citizens of Baltimore, who shall be styled "Agents of the City of Baltimore for the McDonogh Bequest", who, (after having given Bond, as provided for in Section 2. of this Ordinance,) shall with as little delay as possible, proceed to the City of New Orleans, and there represent the interests of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, in all things that appertain to the general estate of the late John McDonogh, wherein the Cities of Baltimore and New Orleans are devisees. They shall act for and manage, conduct and administer the affairs of said estate jointly, with the three commissioners or agents appointed for the same purpose by the City of New Orleans. The said agents shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and until the appointment and quallification of their successors, and they must reside in the City of New Orleans; and that, at no time, shall more than two of the Agents be absent from said City at the same time, under a penalty of forfeiture of their office.
