DEMOCRATS SWEEP BALTIMORE CITY!

MAHOOL GETS 4,454 MAJORITY, NUMSEN 8,615 MAJORITY AND HOOPER 4,800 MAJORITY

Democrats Get 17 Members of the First Branch City Council and Republicans 7—Second Branch, 3 Democrats and 1 Republican.

The decisive victory of the Democratic forces in Baltimore on Tuesday is good news indeed. It was a clean cut, fair and square fight and the best men won.

The result of the election was to put the control of the municipal government for the next four years completely in the hands of the Democratic party through the election of its candidates for Mayor, President of the Second Branch City Council and Comptroller, together with a majority in both branches of the Council.

Although this is in the nature of a sweeping victory, carrying with it all the substantial fruits of a big party triumph, the overwhelming confidence of the Democratic leaders and party men generally, based upon the harmonious condition of their forces and the excellence of their ticket, was such that the majority for the Mayoralty candidate surprised them by its comparative smallness.

When the polls closed at 5 o'clock the most conservative estimate of Mr. Mahool's plurality made at Democratic headquarters was 7,000, and the figures ranged from this up to the 20,000 named by ex-Gov. Frank Brown. Accordingly, when the first returns began to filter in there was considerable disappointment, and as precinct after precinct failed to show the big increase in the Democratic vote anticipated there was anxiety for a time as to the actual result.

Toward 10 o'clock more complete figures showed that, while the expectations of a landslide would not be realized, the whole ticket had received unmistakably the approval of the people and that Mayor-elect Mahool would go into office with no cloud upon his title and with the assurance that his majority was sufficiently large to show clearly that he was the choice of the voters for Mayor.

One thing that upset the calculations of those who expected a recordbreaking majority was the failure of the total vote to measure up to their expectations. It has been thought that because of the vigor and strenuosity of the primaries and the lively nature of the general campaign public interest was sufficiently aroused to produce a great outpouring of the voters on election day. The attendance at the meetings and the activity of heretofore lukewarm voters also tended to indicate a heavy vote, but notwithstanding these signs the total number of ballots cast was only slightly in excess of that cast in the McLane-Wachter election of four years ago. It is likely that a good many Democrats did not go to the polls because they thought it was not necessary and that many votes were lost through over-confidence and indifference.

Still, when the vote is analyzed and compared to that of four years ago, when the Democratic Mayoralty candidate barely pulled through by a few hundred majority and the candidates for Comptroller and President of the Second Branch went down in defeat, it will be realized that a signal victory has been won and the real service which Governor Brown rendered the party in bringing it together behind the Mahool-Numsen-Hooper ticket can be gauged.

Great Run By Mr. Numsen.

The surprise of the day was the wonderful run made by Mr. George N. Numsen, who is known very well in Kent having run the cannery at Chestertown for several years. That Mr. Numsen would be ahead of the remainder of the ticket had been predicted by some of his warm friends and admirers who were anxious to have him nominated as the candidate for Mayor, but that he would run as far ahead as he did was not expected by even his most enthusiastic advocates.

Two things, it is believed, contributed to the showing he made. One of these was the popularity and personal strength of Mr. Numsen himself, created by his good public record and high character. The other was the weakness of Mr. Tattersall, his Rupublican opponent. Mr. Tattersall, it will be remembered, was the Wachter candidate for President of the Second Branch in the primaries. He was defeated, but later listened to the siren voices of the organization leaders and agreed to go upon their ticket with Timanus.

The result of the Councilmanic elections seems to show that except in two wards the recommendations of the Municipal League were without special effect. In the Eleventh ward the league opposed Mr. T. Rowland Slingluff because he is employed by the United Railways Company. This is normally a Democratic ward and has been carried by both Mr. George Stewart Brown and Mr. Duke Bond by large majorities. Mr. Slingluff made a vigorous fight, but the attacks upon him lost him enough votes to bring about his defeat.

THE strawberry crop will be at least ten days late according to the farmers who know. Several also say that there will be very few plums and cherries this year.

THE Marvil Package Company has yet on hand some Electric Weld Wire as follops: 20 inch, 26 inch, 32 inch and 47 inches in height. Will sell at a price to close out. Now is your chance to get a bargain in a good fence.

AN onslaught upon the unlicensed dogs of Chestertown have been made the past week by the town officer and many killed. If you have not obtained a license for your dog you better beware.

TOWN AFFAIRS.

The first meeting of the new board of Town Commissioners—it being composed of the same members as the old, Messrs. Wm. S. Carroll and George D. Lofland holding over and Mr. Thomas S. Bordley being re-elected for a full term of three years—was held on Monday evening last. Mr. Carroll was re-elected president of the board and Mr. Thomas S. Bordley secretary. The positions which caused most discussion was that of counsel and secretary. The point made against Mr. Bordley was that he should not be an appointee under a board of which he himself was a member. This question was raised during the campaign and Mr. Bordley's position was endorsed by a majority of three to one of the voters of the town. This thoroughly settled that question and Mr. Bordley was re-elected. Mr. S. P. Townshend, who was elected as counsel one year ago, was a candidate for re-election, but the board determined to eliminate this position and see if they can't save that salary of $100. Messrs. William J. Hudson and J. Frank Getschall, our present very efficient town officers, were re-elected, which action will have the full endorsement of our citizens generally. Thus our municipal board begin their official year under most favorable auspices. The members are all intelligent and practical business men and if the town is not wisely and successfully governed the present year it will not likely be their fault.

THE HAND OF DEATH.

Miss Carrie Francis died on Thursday afternoon in Baltimore after an illness of several weeks. She has been making her home lately in North Carolina. She was a daughter of the late William P. Francis, one of Kent's best known citizens. She was 35 years of age and leaves 3 brothers, Robert, of Baltimore; Luther of Annapolis, and Walter, of Kent County. The remains will be brought to Kent by Tolchester this morning (Saturday) and services at St. Paul's Church, interment in cemetery adjoining. Rev. Mr. Gray will officiate.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Hatcherson died on Thursday at the home of its parents near Tolchester.

Brisk Horse Market.—Kent county horses are in demand. Col. H. B. Nelson, a well-known Philadelphia dealer in fancy horse flesh, was in Kent this week and purchased six fine horses. Among the number who sold horses to him were Messrs. Israel Walbert, Parks Rasin, Charles L. Gill, J. Cordray Loud and Robert J. McWhorter. Good prices were paid for these animals which shows it pays to raise good stock. It is said that Col. Nelson carried these horses to Richmond, Va.

Mr. Parks Rasin has purchased a fine driving horse from Mr. Percy Price, of Melitota.

Some fine colts are being raised this spring in Kent. Mr. E. J. Watson, near Chestertown, has two by the big combination percheron that are beauties. Mr. H. P. Skipper also has youngsters by Adversity that are hard to beat. Mr. J. F. Thompson also has a fine week-old colt. Mr. Fred. Russell of the rural route corps is the proud owner of a fine Belton colt.

Report from Newark says "Josie Lee," the fine colt formerly owned by Mr. Sam'l Hicks, is improving wonderfully and will surely be a winner.

Queen Anne's Court.—The case of R. Groome Parks against Leverage was heard at Centreville. Mr. Parks claimed to have an execution upon corn crop which Leverage bought under a constable's sale. Court case, decision reserved. Among the visiting attorneys at Centreville were L. W. Wickes, Esq., H. H. Barroll, Esq., J. D. Urie, Esq., R. Groome Parks, Esq.

A MARRIAGE license was granted on Thursday in Baltimore to Miss Ethel Jacquette, of Kent county, and Mr. Paul B. Allendier, of Hartford county.

THE supervisors of election on Tuesday burned all the ballots used at the last election.

THE Adelphia Literary Society of Washington College gave a pleasant reception last evening from 8 to 11.

A FINE up-to-date refrigerator has been erected in the meat store of Mr. Robert Moffett, on High Street, Chestertown.

THE steamer Love Point had a slight mishap in Baltimore on Tuesday making her several hours late in reaching Chestertown.

A HANDSOME monument has been erected in Chester Cemetery, Chestertown, to the memory of the late Thomas Lusby.

CAPT. CURTIS E. CRANE has installed a 16 horse-power gasoline engine in his yacht "Josephine" so that he will be prepared to travel by wind or steam.

ONE thousand barrels or 500,000 herrings were taken in a single haul by Coulehan & Hogan, Susquehanna River fishermen. The seine had to be staked out and small seines used to land the fish. The haul took over 14 hours to complete.

Live Local Notes.

Souvenir Book.—Souvenir Book of Chestertown and Kent county 78 views, price 50 cents or by mail 53 cents, for sale by J. H. Sides, jeweler, Chestertown. Better secure one promptly as the edition is limited and will not be reissued.

Galena Election.—At the election for commissioners of Galena on Monday Messrs. S. G. Caldwell, Theo. Dempsey and Wm. T. Hicks were elected as the board of town commissioners for one year. A most excellent selection.

Brought the Answer.—Mr. James M. Simonds, of Worton, writes us to please take out his advertisement of a cow wanted as one insertion was enough in the NEWS and he got what he wanted the following Monday after advertising on Saturday. If you have anything to sell or want to buy anything try the NEWS. We think we can help you.

Auditing Committee Named.—Chief Judge James A. Pearce has appointed Messrs. James S. Harris, Harry C. Willis and James H. Baker as the auditing committee for Kent county for the year 1907. This is an excellent committee all of whom are well-known citizens of integrity and successful business men. Ex-Senator James H. Baker is the new member of the committee. Mr. Wilbur Eliason, the retiring member, has served three years. He has given to its duties all the extreme care of which he is so well adapted and doubtless has "set the pace" for his successors in painstaking and diligence. He deserves the thanks of all the tax payers of the county.

A Painful Accident.—Mr. William C. Townsend, of Quaker Neck, met with a very painful accident Wednesday afternoon. He was leading a young horse behind his buggy and had the halter rope wrapped about his middle finger, when near Fannell's branch the young animal became frightened and set back on its haunches jerking Mr. Townsend's finger off at the first joint! He returned to Chestertown and had the wound treated by doctor but his suffering was intense.

Fine Entertainment.—A very pleasing Drama in three acts entitled "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," was rendered in Bradley's Hall, Crumpton, on May 3rd, to a full house, and was a decided sucesss. The characters are: Mrs. Hiram Tarbutton, Prof. J. Addison Beane, Frank Wilde, John Harrison, McCready Biddle; Misses Ethel Clements, Annie Butler, Lulu, Boggs, Martha Ruth, Annie Harrison and Estella Beane. They will doubtless visit one or more of their sister towns in the near future.

Improving.—The Riverside Hotel will be improved this spring with new and wider porch along the river front, five more rooms added and a summer kitchen built. Next year Mr. Skipper expects to build one or more cottages along the river. The ground has been graded and shade trees planted preparatory to further improvements next year.

Mr. John C. Davis is greatly improving his High street property by removing the old fence, tearing down the Brydner house on Calvert street, etc., etc.

Sale of Property.—J. Waters Russell, real estate broker, has sold to James D. Lucas the double house on Queen street adjoining Mr. John D. Welch's home.

The National Bank of Elkton has sold the Collins farm, in Elk Neck, to Oscar A. Turner, of Cambridge, for $9,000. The new owner will build a place on the river front and spend his summer months there.

Base Ball Notes.—Chestertown High School defeated Kennedyville School on Saturday at Chestertown in a hotly contested base ball match, the score being 10 to 4. The batteries were: For Chestertown, Brown and Westcott; Kennedyville, Lee brothers. The features of the game were a three base hit of Phillip Wilmer and the pitching of Merritt Brown for High school.

Chestertown High School and Rock Hall High School will contest for honors in base ball at Rock Hall this afternoon.

Washington College did itself much honor in its trip to Baltimore last week. She won both of the base ball games by close scores. In the track contests on Saturday in Baltimore the College was unfortunate.

Will Protest.—Mr. Isaac Hecht, a former citizen of Chestertown, was defeated on Monday for Mayor of Havre de Grace by Mr. Charles T. Wilson. Mr. Hecht has filed a protest with the Board of Election Supervisors against the election of Mr. Wilson. He claims that Mr. Wilson is still a member of the Board of Supervisors, as his successor has not yet been appointed, and as such is ineligible for the office under the charter. He cites a section of the city charter which says that members of the board shall continue in office until the appointment and qualification of their successors. Mr. Wilson resigned from the Board of Supervisors and his resignation was promptly and unanimously accepted by the City Council on April 15. The president of the board, M. F. Tydings, refused to recognize the protest and declared Mr. Wilson duly elected Mayor.

Property Appraised.—Messrs. Walter H. Haddaway and Chas. D. Wood have appraised the personal estate of the late Thos. A. Hudson at $921. H. H. Barroll, Esq., the administrator, obtained order from the Orphans' Court to sell the personal and real estate at public sale.

The personal property of the late I. Freeman Rasin, the Democratic political leader of Baltimore, is appraised at $329,621.55 by Court Appraisers Joseph Barron and Emil H. Goetzke in the inventory filed in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore by Mrs. Gertrude Browne Gatchell and Carroll Wilson Rasin, executors. No cash is included in the inventory. Besides the personal property, Mr. Rasin owned the dwelling, 1039 North Calvert street, corner of Chase, in which he lived, and probably other real estate. With the cash and real estate and including the amount of the inventory, the total would be about $500,000, it is said.
