SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1907.

To the Democratic Executive Committee of Kent County.

GENTLEMEN:—You are hereby requested to meet at the Court House, in Chestertown, Maryland, on

TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1907,

at 2 o'clock P. M., for general consultation concerning the coming campaign, and for the purpose of deciding upon the times and places for holding our primaries, the selection of judges, clerks, etc.

The said committee is composed of the following named Democrats:

COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

First District—J. E. Ireland, Thos. J. Dunn, Saml G. Price, James B. Stevens, R. Wesley Moffett.

Second—J. C. Redmile, Capt. Horace Brice, Geo. W. Sutton, G. R. Rasin, James Archibald.

Third—Samuel Loller, John A. Duver, George Rash, James Matthews, Wm. T. Clark.

Fourth—John Bell, C. J. Reiche, G. W. Hatcherson, Wm. F. Russell, C. W. Kibler.

Sixth—Edgar J. Watson, Walter Francis, S. Amos Reed, Harry T. Rasin, George Bell.

Seventh—George Beck, Wm. Scoone, J. Raymond Bowers, Wm. E. Brown, Thomas Hadaway, Jr.

CHARLES L. MILLER, Chairman.
County Executive Committee.

THAT was a great victory in Baltimore.

MAYOR MAHOOL takes his office May 21. Salary, $6,000 per annum.

THE Cecil County Democratic primaries will be held on Saturday, May 18.

THE Democratic victory in Baltimore only shows what can be done with a united party and good leadership.

JAMES P. GORTER, ESQ., announces that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Judge of the Supreme Bench in Baltimore next fall. Such a nomination is eminently fit to be made.

REV. DR. THOS. H. LEWIS, the distinguished President of the Western Maryland College, will preach the baccalureate sermon before the students of Washington College at the coming commencement.

GOV. WARFIELD was 59 years old on Tuesday. In addition to many letters and telegrams of congratulations he received two large solid silver pitchers, the gift of the directors of the Fidelity and Deposit Company, of Baltimore, of which he is president. The NEWS wishes the Governor of our grand old state of Maryland many more years of health and happiness.

EARLY STATE CONVENTION.

Chairman Murray Vandiver of the Democratic State Central Committee has called the State Central Committee to meet in Baltimore on May 23, to make arrangements for the meeting of the State Convention. It is thought that an early convention will be called to nominate candidates for Governor, Comptroller, Attorney General and Clerk of Court of Appeals. July has been mentioned as the month for the convention.

WHO FOR GOVERNOR?

The city election now being over the public mind will turn to the next contest which will be throughout the State for Governor and other State officials. The Baltimore contest brings most prominently before the people for the Democratic nomination Ex-Governor Frank Brown. His action from beginning to end of that great fight was unique and almost matchless. He seems to have every good quality requisite for a leader while his former incumbency of the Gubernatorial office was in the highest degree creditable to himself and the State.

There are others well qualifisd to fill the Democratic want at this time. Col. Spencer C. Jones, Joseph D. Baker, Buchanan Schley and others from the Western Hills are grand in character and popular favor, while the Eastern Shore is likely to present the name of Ex-Governor Elihu E. Jackson. Whether any of these will seek gubernatorial honors we are not prepared to say, but we do say that either of them can win the State in the election if the party will be as active and honest as in the city fight just closed.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

The Dairy is of some interest to all farmers and of special and very great interest to many. On another page of the NEWS today we publish a well-written article by a practical dairyman of large experience, and one of our ablest agriculturists near Chestertown. This gentleman treats the subject embraced in the dairying business and gives some good advice in regard to the character of cows that should be kept and how to raise good cows from calves. This article may be read with profit by all dairymen and agriculturists and we suggest to the reader to file the paper so as to have it for future reference. It will be worth many dollars to those who act upon its hints. This paper was read at the meeting of the Rien Neck Farmers Club.

WHAT IT MEANS.

The result of the election in Baltimore last Tuesday clearly shows that our great metropolis is a Democratic City. The Republicans had no advantages in the fight in the character of the candidates. Both sides presented men of highest class. But otherwise the advantage was with the Republicans. Mayor Timanus was in office and had some thousands of votes directly concerned for his success by virtue of official and mechanical employment, and besides the idea had become impressed upon the community that the present city management would be continued and the future looked very rosy to all Republicans in view of the large expenditures to be made in city improvement.

In addition the city rested under the shadow of the National Capital where Republicanism is intrenched in every department and the officials, great and small, in both cities smypathize with the effort to keep Baltimore under Republican domination. The thousands of officials no doubt contributed largely in money and in every other way possible, while it was publicly proclaimed before the election that Mr. Wm. H. Jackson, our money Congressman, had visited the city and left a big check to aid in the success of the Republicans. Yet with all this great advantage of money plenty the Republicans lost by a good majority.

The Democrats had no advantage other than a clean ticket nominated by the clear expression of the popular voice. This was sufficient to secure party confidence and the gratifying results proving the strong Democratic sentiment of the city.

We congratulate Baltimore upon this great victory and upon the selection of such a high class of officials as were chosen on Tuesday. The result assures the people of the proper use of the millions of dollars proposed to be used in city improvements in the near future.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

A. S. Goldsborough, Esq., will be appointed Secretary to Mayor-elect Mahool, of Baltimore. Mr. Goldsborough is an an Eastern Shore boy and we are proud of him. Nothing is too good for him and no one is more deserving from the hands of the Democracy than he. In every recent campaign in Baltimore and the State Mr. Goldsborough has buckled on the armor and been right in the thickest of the fight for the principles of Democracy. And, without disparagement to others, we say that no one has done more valliant service. He is an eloquent speaker, brilliant writer, and above all is honest and straight-forward in dealings with his fellowman.

POLITICAL NOTES.

In another column will be found the call for a meeting of the Democratic County Executive Committee, issued by Mr. Charles L. Miller, the last Chairman. The meeting will be held at the Court House in Chestertown on Tuesday, May 21, at 2 o'clock p. m. It is hoped there will be a full attendance, as matters of vital importance will be considered looking to the fixing of the date for the primaries and the plan for nominating county candidates.

A meeting of the State Central committee for Kent county will be held in Chestertown next Tuesday, May 14th, to consider the time and plan for selecting delegates to the State and Judicial conventions. Members, Lewin W. Wickes, James W. Ivens, J. C. Redmile.

There is some difference of opinion as to the plan for making county nominations, but a strong sentiment in favor of early primaries. In 1879 the nominations were on June 7, and under what is known as the Crawford system—that is to vote direct for all candidates and run through the county. Since then primaries have been usually held in June, and before the wheat harvest. Many advocate the 8th of June for this year's nominations.

THE body of little four-year-old Horace N. Marvin, Jr., who disappeared from the farm of his father near Dover, Del., on March 4, was found in a marsh half a mile from the farm by Ollie Pleasanton, a neighbor, who was out hunting. He saw it was Horace and hurriedly called the father, who identified the body. Dr. Marvin wrapped it in a sheet and carried it home himself.

The body was much decomposed, and while it was, as stated by the physicians, in a remarkable state or preservation, considering that the boy had probably been dead for two months or more, it was not a pleasant object to look upon. The body was swollen by the gases generated by decompositions, the finger nails were gone and the eyes showed indications of the ravages of decay. The clothing, though not marked with mud stains, was wet, and according to the opinion of many who saw it, showed the result of being out in the weather.

IN MEMORIAM.

JESTER.—In loving but sad remembrance of my dear aunt, Ella N. Jester, who departed this life, last Monday, April 29, 1907.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly
In her lonely, silent grave.
Farewell dear aunt, may your slumber
Be as gentle as you love,
And when God shall call us homeward,
May we meet in heaven above.

BY HER NIECE AND NEPHEW, D. AND J. WALLACE.

SMITH.—In memory of our daughter, Emily A. Smith who departed this life one year ago May 6th, 1906.

Once our home was bright and happy,
Oh how sad and drear today!
For our dear and loving daughter
Has forever passed away.

MOTHER AND FATHER.

Life was desired but God did see
Eternal life was best for thee
And while she lies in peaceful sleep
Her sacred memory I shall always keep.

SISTER RATIE.

One long year has passed
Since we were forced to part
But time nor space can never erase
Her memory from my heart.
Gone but not forgotten.

SISTER-IN-LAW LILLIE.

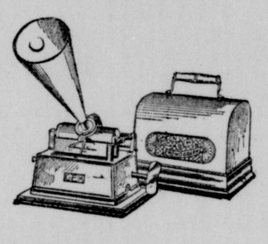
THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH IN THE HOME



WHAT one thing is it that sums up one's idea of festivity? It is music.

Music draws one to the opera, to the concert hall, to the dance, to the country fair. Where there is music, there people gather. Its appeal is universal.

The Edison Phonograph brings all this music into the home. It has within itself and produces on demand, most of the amusements which draw people away from home.

It gives children the tuneful airs they like, teaches them to enjoy music of the better class and familiarizes them with the national airs.

It carries the operas, concerts and light musical comedies of the cities into the country, the camp and those homes where such enjoyment is not possible in any other way.

It calls for no musical training on the part of any one, yet gives all that the combined training of the county's greatest artists gives.

Come in and hear these wonderful instruments. Sold on small weekly or monthly payments.
