F. H. HARPER & SON

STILL POND, - - MARYLAND

STILL POND NOTES.

Wm. M. Slay, Esq., of Chestertown, was a visitor to this section this week. Mr. Slay has a host of friends in this section who are delighted that he has consented to serve as a candidate for the State Senate. Kent needs such men as he and the Democratic party will honor itself by nominating him unanimously.

A surprise party was given Miss Helen Hackett by her many friends at her home Tuesday evening in honor of her fourteenth birthday. The evening was spent in music and games when the guests were invited out to refreshments consisting of lemonade, cake and fruit. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jewell, Misses Alice and Marion Hackett, Louise Toulson, Anna Bowers, Emma Kinsey, Laura Norris, Lydia and Helen Hackett; Messrs. Penn Toulson, Carl Norris, Willard Rick, Thomas Mann, Ernest Robinson, Wallace and Clarence Ford, Laurie Hackett, Holton Parr and Jewell Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Atwell and son, of Philadelphia, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

Miss Lillian Busic, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in our town.

Master Lusby Severson, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is improving under Dr. Atwell's treatment.

Mr. F. H. Harper has been quite sick the past week but we are glad to state he is able to be out again.

Miss Mable Norris is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mamie Norris, at Lynch's.

Miss Elizabeth Hague's little friends gave her a surprise party Wednesday evening. Many of her little friends were out.

The Sunday School Board were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Harper's on Thursday evening May 9. At this meeting it was decided to hold our "Childrens Day" service the second Sunday in June, June 9, both morning and evening. After all the business had been transacted the hostess invited all to the dinning room where refreshments were served in abundance. Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Collins and sons William and Edward, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter, Mr. and Mrs Charles Severson and son Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burnett and children William Sheppard and Rebecca, Misses Mary Capps and Alice Hackett, W. H. Krusen, Walter Harris and Wm. Ford, Penn Toulson, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price, Mrs. F. H. Harper, Mrs. E. M. Taylor, Makin Taylor.

Pastor Collins preached to a very large audience last Sunday morning. Next Sunday morning our pastor will preach the fifth of a series of sermons on the subject, "Watchword for today." Evangelistic services in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

A special meeting of the Epworth League held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders on Monday evening, of this week, decided to hold a strawberry and ice cream festival on the church green, afternoon and evening of Decoration Day, May 30. Be sure to be there.

The 18th anniversary of the Epworth League held last Sunday evening was a delightful service and much enjoyed by the large audience. The regular League programme entitled "The Quest of the Highest" were given by ten speakers as follows: Interpreter, E. H. Collins; Mentor, Mrs. Wm. Medders; 4 Pilgrims, Penn Toulson, Harry Rickards, Carl Norris and Walter Marris; 4 Guides, Miss Daisy Severson, Miss Edna Wroth, Miss Mary Capps and Miss Marion Hackett. The singing was excellent and music was furnished by Miss Alice Hackett. The service of dedication at the close when the large alter was filled with the officers and earnest Epworthians was a most precious service.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Miss Evelyn Cochran had for her guests Saturday and Sunday last, Misses Mabel Price, of Sassafras, and Agnes Clark, of Middletown, Del.

Mrs. White, of Franklin City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Taylor.

Miss Mildred Gillespie spent the day Sunday with her cousin, Miss Mary Phillips, of Sudlersville.

Dr. F. A. Walls and wife took a trip to Baltimore last week to consult a physician for the Dr.'s health.

Miss Mamie Crane is spending a few days in Baltimore this week visiting friends.

Several cases of mumps have appeared in our town during the past two weeks, but with no serious results.

The housekeepers have been taking advantage of the beautiful spring weather this week to clean house, and the paper hanger and tack hammer have been very much in demand.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of Asbury M. E. Church, was entertained at the Parsonage Thursday evening. The meeting was very interesting.

Mr. Richard Moffett, a one-time resident of our town who now resides near Worton, celebrated his 81st birthday last Tuesday. Quite a number of friends and relatives met at his home to congratulate him upon his good health and wish him many more birthdays. A sumptuous dinner was served.

PINEY NECK WAVES.

Miss Lillian Frazier, who has been under employment in Baltimore for several weeks, is now visiting friends on East Neck Island. Miss Frazier visited our village on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Price, nee Crouch, of Batimore, spent a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Washington Crouch. Mrs. Price returned to her home on Friday.

Mr. David Clements, of Crumpton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James M. Wood.

Mr. James Glenn paid a flying trip to Baltimore on Friday.

Mr. Leon Arders, of Wilmington, paid a short visit to Rev. W. V. Harris in the past week.

Mrs. Earl R. Strong, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. Gilmor Bryden, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Singleton Bryden, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Arders and sons, Lawrence and Alvin, returned to their home in Wilmington on Wednesday after a very pleasant visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. V. Harris.

Mr. Thomas Crouch is very sick at his home near Long Cove. Mr. Crouch has had another painful visit from his uninvited friend.

Mrs. Robert Hynson visited friends in Baltimore last week and returned Saturday.

The drama, entitled "The Sleeping Beauty," which was presented at Kennedyville in April by the children of Shrewsbury Church, and which was so entertaining, will be given in Stam's Hall, Chestertown, Saturday June 1st. In addition to the program rendered at Kennedyville, tableaux and a musical by local talent, will be presented.

Fishermen are still catching a few shad in the bay and the prices have been very good. Though not catching as many fish as in some former years, it is said that the fishermen as a rule, have made more money this season than for a long time.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

Unusually large congregations attended divine services on Sunday at both the M. E. and R. C. Churches. A number attended the M. E. Church expecting to hear Dr. W. F. Corkran. There were also present a number from up the county. Dr. Corkran was not present, but he will be here all day to-morrow, and preach at 10 A. M. and possible at night also. The large audience on Sunday morning were well repaid for their assembling, as Rev. Mr. Burr preached a fine sermon on the subject, "Divine equipments for the emergencies, and crises of life," using as a text, The Shoes shall be iron and brass, and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

The Sunday School session was also very largely attended. The clear and crisp weather no doubt contributed for the large number of church goers of the day. Mrs. Warren Burr with able assistants are making elaborate preparations for Children's Day Services, June 2nd.

Odd Fellowship in this section, is just 16 years old, and in honor of such distinction, Maxwell Lodge No. 27, will hold a grand rally on Tuesday evening, next. A special program has been prepared and will be rendered by the young ladies and gentlemen of the village and vicinity. The officers of the Grand Lodge of Maryland will be present. The families of the membership, and other invited guests will also be there.

Angelan Notley Bennett, an interesting little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartus Hatcherson, died on Thursday the 9th inst aged about three years. She was an intelligent child, and gave promise of being a personage of great usefulness in life. Just before her death, she called for a letter that had been sent her from her mother, and when given her, she exclaimed, "This is from my mama, and I want it all to myself," and clutching it to her breast she held it there till the end.

We are sorry to say that Mrs. Hatcherson is still in a precarious condition at the Md. University Hospital with only one chance in a hundred, the physician reports, for her recovery. If indomitable courage and will power count for much, she ought to pull through. On admission to the Hospital last week the Doctor said to her: "Do you realize that you must submit to the use of the knife?" She replied, "alright, whatever is necessary, do." "Why," said the doctor, "there is nothing scarcely of you now." Mrs. H. said, "I came here for treatment. I am in your hands. I am ready to submit to any ordeal that you deem necessary in my case." She has the special attention of one of the most skilled nurses, her sister-in-law, Miss Mamie Hatcherson, who relinquished a $40 per week position much to the regret of her employer, in order that she might nurse her brother's wife. The family on both sides are hoping for the best without murmur or complaint.

Spring has at last put in her appearance, farm, mechanical, garden and house work is being rapidly pushed forward and everybody is happy.

May seems destined to again be the banner spring and summer month with our merchants, all of them report brisk trade. M. Kramer's store is headquarters for the ladies in millinery goods and the men find it full of all articles of clothing. The rush at Alexander & Son's is so great that Max. is wishing for a breathing spell, but the head of the firm is permitting no let up, the smiles and pleasantries of the hosts of fair customers daily thronging the store, is his only solace.

Fishermen are about through the spring operations and many are cutting out, all are well pleased with their season's work.

The clear atmosphere on Sunday made the hills and shore line of Anne Arundel look but a few hundred yards from the shore, they offered considerable attractions for many of our residents.

Mr. Nathan R. Satterfield was in a reminiscent mood Sunday morning and to gratify his wandering thoughts about the things of 40 years ago he put his foot in the path and took a stroll down about Grey's Inn and other places south of the village. In his meandering he found many of the most interesting land marks of other days gone, he also found many substantial improvements, he was well pleased with his trip and reached home at 2.30 p. m. with an appetite that was hard to appease.

Mr. Wm. J. Porter and wife, of Baltimore, have been on a visit the past week among their relatives and friends at this place.

Mrs. Henry Jones, of near Fairlee, spent the past week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elburn.

Capt. Asbury Smith made an unintentional raid upon cat fish a few nights ago. He had just tarred his eel traps and being advised to lay them in the water to harden the tar he did so, next day upon overhauling the traps he found them as full of cat fish as they could possibly hold, Smith was very much surprised but gratified as they furnished him a shipment.

Pierce & Bolton, of Galena, have Spring Bargains for their patrons and their line of goods are full. They are making a specialty of screens of all kind. Look out for their new ad. next week.

A four legged live duck was brought to the News office on Saturday by Mr. George Dilhofer. It walked all right and someone remarked that it would doubtless make a record as a swimmer.
