There's none so blind as those who will not see!

We want to make the acquaintance of men and women who are willing to have their eyes opened. We are demonstrating the fact to new customers every day, that we can save them from $1.50 to $3.00 on every suit bought of us. Then again—you will find an assortment of merchandise exhibited here that no house in this locality is showing.

Our lines will compare favorably with the large city houses and the quotations are so much less that those who really want to see can readily do so. If you want to take a trip for pleasure come here first and get your clothing, you'll find the saving will go some distance to pay your fare. We've got the goods and they are handled just as we claim; for men don't travel on railroads just merely to be seen on the cars, they have an objective point. Neither do we advertise for the purpose of seeing our name at the top and bottom of an advertisement. We've got the goods and whats more the trade is learning every day that we sell them correctly. You will not be disappointed here either in assortment or quotations. Come in and have your eyes opened.

HATS AND CAPS

Most anything you can desire in Hats from the ink spot up to the Hat that will suit the elderly gentleman. We sell Hats, we don't keep them.

CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICES

Rainy Sundays Interfere With Worship in Country Churches—Pew and Pulpit News.

Christ Church Sunday school celebrated Children's day last Sunday evening in their usual pleasant manner. The singing of carols was the special feature and never did the school sing better. The selections were from "The God of Nature." The following program was presented: organ voluntary by Miss Clara B. Usilton; responsive reading, led by Mr. J. Frank Wheatley; prayer by Mr. Thos. D. Bowers; chorus by school; address of Welcome by Master Russell Wheatley; chorus by school; exercises by five girls of the Infant class; recitation by little Miss Helen Kendall; chorus by school; song by six girls of the Infant class; solo, "God is Love," by Miss Edith Fallowfield, with chorus by school; reports of classes; address by Dr. F. T. Little; chorus by school; presentation of banner by Dr. Gault, of Washington College, to class of young men taught by Mr. Fred. G. Usilton, their collection being $7.20, total collection $45; chorus by school.

Children's Day was also observed by the Sabbath School of the M. E. Church Sunday evening. The following program was rendered: organ voluntary by Miss Mabel Toulson; song by school, "Oh, Praise The Lord;" prayer by Rev. W. L. White; responsive reading, led by Mr. J. T. Anthony; song by school, "The God of Nature;" recitation by Emily Ford; song by Infant class; recitation, "Blessing the Children," by Mary Lambert; song by school, "Hail Him;" recitation by Rebecca Davis; duet and chorus, "Roses are Blooming Again," Misses Mary Miller and Edith Dunbracco; recitation, "The Roses," Grace Nickerson and Annie Joiner; song by school, "An Anthem of Joy;" song by five small girls; recitation, "For the Living," Miss Daisy O. Barnes; solo, "Pansies," by Lillian Anthony; recitation, "Cheerfulness," Ada Duyer; song by school, "Golden Sunshine;" recitation, "The Object of Children's Day," by Townsend Anthony; collection, amounting to $17; song by school, "Praise The Lord."

The Children's Day exercises at Worton M. E. Church will take place on Sunday evening June 16, postponed from June 2 on account of weather.

Children's Day was observed at Bond Chapel last Sunday with exercises in keeping with Children's Day. The church was beautifully decorated with lillies, marsh palms and other flowers. Notwithstanding the very bad weather the house was well filled and the program was delightfully rendered. The collection amounted to $24.13.

Next Sunday evening Children's Day will be observed at Mowbray Chapel.

Preaching at Bond Chapel next Sunday morning at 10.45, by the Rev. F. J. McCoy. Subject: "The Coming Judgement." All cordially invited.

The first quarterly conference will be held at Bond Chapel on June 15th at 10.30 a. m. Presiding Elder W. G. Koons will preach the 16th at 10.30 a. m.

Children's Day service will be held in the Fairlee, Salem M. E. Church, tomorrow, Sunday, evening at 8 o'clock. A good program will be rendered. In the morning at 10.30 Rev. E. B. Taylor, the pastor, will deliver a sermon on education.

The Children's Day services will be held at St. James to-morrow (Sunday) morning.

Divine Services at the Chapel of the Holy Cross in Millington on Sunday morning at 10.30 a. m.

DEATH'S DOINGS

JAMES H. TOULSON.

Mr. Milbourn A. Toulson received a telegram Tuesday announcing the death of his brother, Mr. James H. Toulson, at his home in Salem, N. J. The deceased was 59 years of age, and was a veteran of the civil war. Mr. Toulson left on the afternoon train for Salem to attend the funeral.

MRS. CAROLINE SNYDER.

Mrs. Caroline Snyder, widow of the late Christian Snyder, died at the residence of her son, Mr. Jacob Snyder, of Quaker Neck wharf, on Thursday, May 30th, aged 86 years, 8 months. She was born in Wurtenberg, Germany, in the year of 1820. She came to this country in May 1861. Funeral services were held Saturday morning conducted by Rev. J. C. McCoy; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: W. F. Woodmender, S. W. Brown, A. Judson, T. W. Toulson, R. G. Jones and D. W. Hadaway. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

WILLIAM R. CONSTABLE.

Mr. William Ringgold Constable, 77 years old, died Thursday afternoon at the Maryland Homeopathic Hospital. For 35 years he was actively connected with the firm of Hodges Bros., and after the death of the late Mayor Hodges was engaged in the commission business. Mr. Constable had been in failing health for several years and retired from business in 1902. Death was caused by pneumonia.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Francis H. Constable, sister of the late James, William and Robert Hodges, and four children. The pallbearers will be the elders of the Maryland Avenue Church. Burial was in the Constable family lot in St. Paul's cemetery, Kent county.

A Hair Dressing

Nearly every one likes a fine hair dressing. Something to make the hair more manageable; to keep it from being too rough, or from splitting at the ends. Something, too, that will feed the hair at the same time, a regular hair-food. Well-fed hair will be strong, and will remain where it belongs—on the head, not on the comb!
