ed by Belvidere street, (heretofore known as Keller and Foreman's dam) and the north boundary line of the city of Baltimore, where it crosses the said falls, and if any person or persons shall throw any dead animal or any impure faeted or noxious animal or vegetable substance into any of the aforesaid tributary branches or streams, or shall wash the skin of any dead animal therein, or shall erect any privy or other nuisance on or over any of the said branches or streams, or shall cause or permit the wash, drainage or discharge of or from any tannery, slaughter house, stables, privy or other factory or premises from which corrupt, offensive or noxious animal or vegetable matter may flow, to run into any of the aforesaid tributary branches or streams, the person or persons so offending shall be subject to all the penalties and forfeitures provided by the said thirteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, against polluting the waters of the main stream of Jones' falls, to be recovered by warrant in the manner therein prescribed.

1808—ch. 79, sec. 13.

CHAPTER 100.

Passed Feb. 14, 1844.

AN ACT to authorise the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, to continue Short street from Jefferson street to McElderry street.

City Council to receive surrender.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorised to receive and accept a deed of surrender from the proprietors of the property to form the bed of a street, to be a continuation of Short street, and to be left open from Jefferson to McElderry streets, and to declare such street to be a public street and highway and subject to the laws and ordinances of the city of Baltimore, in relation to public streets,—provided, that all the parties interested in the bed of the said street, unite in the surrender of the same to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

Proviso.

Continuation of Short street.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the street referred to in the first section of this act, shall be continued from Short street, as located on the city plat, by straight lines and of the same width as Short street located on the city plat, and that the street hereby authorised to be opened, shall when opened, be taken and deemed as a continuation of Short street.

CHAPTER 129.

AN ACT to punish certain trespasses in and near the city of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 13, 1844.

Guilty of misdemeanor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That every person who shall unlawfully and wilfully enter any enclosure, cut down any tree, or anywise wilfully injure the same, or cut down, break, dig or pull up, or in any manner wilfully destroy or injure, or take away, any growing grain, shrub, herb, root, vine, vegetable fruit, or who shall wilfully destroy or injure any fence, wall or building, or who shall maliciously enter upon any enclosed ground and discharge any fire arms, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Fine, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That for every offence as aforesaid, the offender shall forfeit and pay to the use of the city or county respectively hereinafter mentioned, a sum in the discretion of the justice, not exceeding twenty dollars, and not less than one dollar, to be recovered together with all the costs, and enforced in the name of the State, at the instance of the party aggrieved, before any justice of the peace, in manner as small debts are now recovered and enforced.

Constable's fees.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That for his fees in the case, of every such offence the constable or officer apprehending the offender, shall be entitled to the sum of one dollar, to be recovered as part of the costs of the case; and that in like manner the justice shall be entitled for his fee in the case, fifty cents, and the justice shall pay to the Register of the city aforesaid, or to the commissioners of the county the penalties received under any prosecution as aforesaid.

In force—limit, &c.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this act shall be in force only as to the limits of the city of Baltimore, and to the portions of Baltimore county, within four miles from said limits.

CHAPTER 184.

AN ACT to confirm an act to change the Constitution and Form of Government of this State as to provide for the election of a Sheriff in and for Baltimore County and a Sheriff in and for the city of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 28, 1844.

Confirmed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-two, entitled "An act to change the constitution of this State as to provide for the election of a sheriff in and for Baltimore county, and a sheriff in and for the city of Baltimore," be, and the same is hereby confirmed.

1842—ch. 246.