Live Local Notes.

HARVEST in Kent will begin on or about July 4th and the outlook is for a good crop.

THE first series of the Kent Building and Loan Co., of Chestertown, expired today and every stock-holder will be promptly paid his money together with accrued interest. A full statement will appear next week.

There are said to be 23 places in Chestertown where cider and other stronger drinks may be obtained! Can this be true?

A FLAGMAN has been placed at the railroad crossing at Chestertown in pursuance to a request from the Kent Grand Jury.

THE Chester River Steamboat Company will begin their round trips on and after July 1st. and Chestertown, Rock Hall and Love Point will each have a boat.

TOLCHESTER is enjoying its usual popularity under the efficient management of Mr. G. E. Noland. The travel that way by Chestertown and citizens from other parts of Kent proves the unpopularity of the Chester river boats. Yet no more popular officers can be found than those now on the Chester River Line. Capt. Eliason of the Tolchester line certainly knows how to handle a crowd.

THE town sprinkler has been doing good work this week driven by Mr. Wm. Needles.

THE Creamery at Kennedyville managed by Mr. T. Shafer paid $1 for milk last month.

E. J. WATSON has sold his fine 3-year old pacer to James Williams for $150.

IN another column will be found an account of Trumpington, where white men first trod the soil of the Eastern Shore. It is the Bennett Willson farm now tenanted by Mr. Notley Willson.

AMONG Chestertown's best gardeners are Col. Wm. J. Vannort, George W. Smith, Charles L. Dodd, Dr. Simmons and others.

PROF. MELVIN, School Examiner, returned yesterday from the Jamestown Exposition where he attended the State Teachers' Association. He says he was in the great fire there but escaped unhurt.

WHEAT cutting began in Queen Anne's near Chestertown, yesterday. The first to begin were Messrs. Jacob Weller, Thos. White and J. T. Anthony.

Fire.—The dwelling and meat house, near I. B., in Queen Anne's, occupied by Mr. Samuel Merchant was destroyed by fire Tuesday evening. The fire originated from a defective flue. Mr. Merchant saved most of his meat and some furniture.

Appointments.—Gov. Warfield on Tuesday announced the following appointments:

Richard H. Collins, of Kent county, a member of the Board of Managers of the Maryland House of Correction, vice Richard D. Hynson, deceased, and Harry H. Owens, a special policeman for the protection of property of the Tolchester Beach Improvement Company.

Deckhand Drowned—Sidney Adams, a white deckhand on the schooner A. H. Schultz, fell from a yawl boat on the Sassafras river on Monday and was drowned. He was from Cambridge, where he leaves a widow and several children. His body has not been found.

Turned Beer into Water.—A company of Chestertown citizens ordered three kegs of beer for use Sunday and same arrived in good order and was placed in cold storage. There was, however, a disappointed set of men when they tapped the kegs and found that there was water in the kegs instead of beer! During Saturday night thieves had entered the house, emptied the kegs of the beer and replaced same with water! Oh, what a change came over the faces of the expectant gentlemen.

Automobiles.—Dr. H. Benge Simmons and James H. Sides are the purchasers of the first automobiles owned in Chestertown. They received by boat Tuesday two run-about autos. They are of Holsman make, high wheel, solid tire and look like a horseless carriage. A chef-feur has been here for several days instructing the owners, who are both careful citizens and have proper regard for the traveling public so that owners of horses need have no fear of meeting them on the road. The cost of these machines is reported to be $750 each.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Massey, announce the marriage of their daughter, Emily Ann to Henry Clay Hendrickson, on Wednesday, the twelfth day of June, nineteen hundred and seven, at Colorado Springs, Colorado, by Rev. Arthur Nelson Taft, Rector of St. Stephens, P. E. Church, Colorado Springs, Colorado.
