SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1907.

IF the automobile "chefs" are as careful as they should be the horses in Kent will soon become unmindful of the noise.

THURSDAY next will be July 4th and Kent farmers will be in the midst of wheat harvest. They can celebrate "Independence Day" when they sell their crop at $1.10 per bushel.

IN another column will be found a note of the many launches owned in Chestertown. Washington College should own a boat house and a crew organized for fine sport on the water. Chester river affords a splendid course for aquatic sports. Even under present conditions a creditable show could be arranged for commencement week or for some summer evening. The merchants would do well to get up a carnival on the water. Try it.

THE good impression made at the time the Democratic ticket was nominated is being strengthened with each passing day. The nominees are men who will bear inspection and will grow in favor as the campaign progresses. Their fitness for the respective positions for which they have been nominated at once impresses those whom they meet in their canvas, and the cordiality with which they are greeted proves that no mistake was made in their selection. Backed by a united Democratic party the entire ticket is sure of a handsome majority. Many solid Republicans have already pledged their support to the ticket.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The increased consideration being given by Democratic leaders to the question of the advisability of nominating Mr. Joseph D. Baker of Frederick for Governor has stirred up the latter's friends in Western Maryland, and a compact organization is being formed there to present Mr. Baker's claims at the State Convention.

Chief Judge James McSherry, of the Maryland Court of Appeals, says:

"In my judgement, the wise thing the Democratic State Convention could do would be to nominate Mr. Joseph D. Baker for the office of Governor of Maryland. I have known Mr. Baker for many years, and I do not hesitate to say, with emphasis, that he is most eminently qualified to fill the high office. He is a prudent, calm, broad-minded and capable man. He is a genuine Democrat. If made Governor, he would be Governor of the whole State, and would reflect great credit on our Commonwealth. The people of Frederick county are a unit for him."

Ex-Gov. BROWN and Gov. Warfield held a conference this week and it is reported that they agreed to join in the efforts to get a winning candidate for Governor. It is said the former is in favor of Mr. Baker.

THE Republicans in Kent are feeling around for candidates. Hon. James H. Baker, Azariah M. Kendall, Wilbur Eliason, Jr., and others are mentioned for the Senate, Robert R. Hill for commissioner in the second, John C. Davis in fourth and Bert DeCorse for Treasurer. John D. Urie, Esq., can have most any place he desires on the ticket, but says he doesn't want any.

THE most interesting event in local political circles this week was the announcement of Wm. T. Warburton, Esq., that he would accept the Republican nomination for Judge in this District, if it came his way. Mr. Warburton says he will make no contest for the nomination, but if the party sees fit to offer it to him, he will accept it and "make the fight."

IT was our privilege while at the National Editorial Association meeting at Jamestown to hear that brilliant cheerful editor John Temple Graves and that optimistic writer, Jacob Reis, each deliver excellent addresses on making the world brighter and happier. We also heard a band of sixteen blind boys discourse excellent music, but to all who can see the beauties of nature this message from Miss Minnie E. Hicks, Kent's blind poetess, is like the sweet zephyrs of a June day and chimes harmoniously with the above addresses and sentiments expressed to us by the musicians.

"I wish you would tell the world" said Miss Hicks, "that I have a little message to give everyone about living. When I became totally blind, after years of weakness of the eyes, but after I had enjoyed the privilege of sight, I grew despondent. It was natural for despondency to follow a loss of sight, and for a time I refused to go anywhere or take any part in the general affairs of life. But before it became chronic with me I began to see that I was letting my personal grief cast a shadow on all around me, and I determined to overcome my selfishness for their sake. So now I am happy, perfectly happy, and it makes me so glad to know that I do not make others unhappy by yielding to my own sorrows. I think it is the greatest thing in life to know—to realize—that you are not living alone, and that you have no right to spread despondency. I cannot see, but I have many loving and good friends to see for me, and their sight is so much better because it is the sight of love."

TEACHERS AT JAMESTOWN.

Dr. James W. Cain, President, Makes an Address—Fire Outside the Exposition Scares Many.

The Maryland State Teachers met in annual convention at Jamestown this week. On Tuesday night they heard the able addresses of Gov. Warfield and Dr. James W. Cain, of Chestertown, and President of the Association.

Among those present were: Examiner Milton Melvin, Misses Grace Newnam, Edna A. Bryan, Ethel B. Clements, Jeanette Peterson, Mary L. Wise, Evelyn and Julia Brinsfield, Prof. Greenwood and son, Arthur and others.

After roaming all over the Maryland Building the teachers started out for other fields. They went through the various buildings and were very much interested, especially in the portions of the state exhibits that showed the educational work. Some of them, however, found their way to the Warpath and some to the Streets of Cairo, where they amused themselves riding the camels and doing other "stunts" much to the amusement of themselves and the spectators.

A fire broke out Wednesday near the Exposition known as Pine Beach. Several temporary hotels were destroyed and a total loss of $200,000 suffered. It was near the Inside Inn and Kentucky building and caused quite a scare for a time. These hotels are built of Virginia pine and a fire makes rapid headway when started.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Capt. John Kirwan, of Baltimore, was entertained for the day on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester.

The ladies here have many beautiful flower gardens, Mrs. W. A. Spry has a very fine collection and is the handsomest we have ever seen also Mrs. Henry Rosin deserves special mention.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston entertained for the day Mr. Henry Gillen and sister, Miss Helen, of near McDonough, Del., on Monday last.

Mrs. W. H. Spry entertained on Sunday her son, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Spry.

Mrs. John F. Ernest and son, Douglas, visited her mother Mrs. I. Gunkie, of Warwick, on Monday.

Miss Helen Stradly, of Philadelphia, is visiting her grand parents Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, of Sassafras.

Mr. Louis A. Dreka, visited his wife from Saturday until Monday evening at Jamesburg, N. J.

Mr. Jacob T. Shallcross visited his home here for the past week and has returned to Norfolk, Va., for a few weeks, his son, Masten, accompanying him.

Mrs. Theriza Shallcross was entertained on Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. John F. Tarbutton, near town.

Mrs. W. S. Morris and son left on Sunday for a weeks sojourn with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Capells, of Cockeyville, near Baltimore.

Misses Susie and Myrtle Morris are visiting their aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Singleton, of Wilmington, and Miss Linetta Morris is visiting her grandparents Judge and Mrs. Sheppard Morris, near Willson's Point.

Mr. U. S. Morris visited his sister Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Singleton, of Wilmington, on Sunday.

Our farmers will begin cutting wheat through Kent county the latter part of this week.

Miss Fannie Johnson, a student of Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, is spending her vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Johnson, near Sassafras.

Mr. A. Wilson Cochran's horse that was injured the first week in April from having a shaft run in its side was neccessitated to have it chloroformed by veterinarian surgeon on Saturday. Doctors said it could never get well. This is a serious loss to Mr. Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston entertained from Saturday until Monday her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Landis, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Frank Sylvester and daughter Miss Gracie, left on Monday last for St. Mary's County, to attend the commencement of St. Mary's College, of which Miss Gracie was a former student, then they will visit Miss Elizabeth Smith, a school mate, of Virginia, and attend the Jamestown Exposition. They expect to be gone for several weeks.

Mr. Bayard Jones, of Wilmington, is visiting Mr. Lewis A. Dreka, for a few days.

BALTIMORE WANTS MORE!

Baltimore City is demanding more of everything in sight. These are a few of the things she wants:

Be it Resolved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore City, That the city delegation at Annapolis, Md., when elected, be, and they are hereby requested to introduce and to urge upon the next General Assembly such changes in the Constitution of the State Maryland and such bills as shall be necessary to accomplish the following reforms:

1. An increase in the representation in the General Assembly from the 24 wards of Baltimore city in both the House of Delegates and the Senate of Maryland.

2. Allowing the city to retain the commissions now chargeable by the city collector on all state bills.

3. Fixing the salary of the city collector at a certain sum to be paid by the city of Baltimore.

4. Allowing the city to retain all revenue receivable from traders' licenses issued in the city of Baltimore.

5. Allowing the city to retain all revenue receivable from liquor licenses issued in the city of Baltimore.

6. Abolishing the office of city surveyor as now enacted by the charter and provided for in the State Constitution, and lodging such duties and powers in the Topographical Survey Commission.

7. Lessening the State tax now payable by the city on its bonded indebtedness.

6. Amending section 7 of article 11 of the Constitution of the State of Maryland repealing such part thereof as necessitates an enabling act by the General Assembly to involve the faith and credit of the city of Baltimore.

And be it further resolved that a copy of this be forwarded to the chairman of the city delegation when selected by the members thereof.

Will Buy Grain.—Messrs. Jas. W. Crouch and Merrick Clements, of Chestertown, will buy grain in this section for rail or water shipments. They represent the most reliable firms of Philadelphia and Baltimore and will keep in close touch with all the markets.

Order of Publication.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1623.

Clarence Brown, vs.
Kate Brown, John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, Thomas Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., Ella Brown, Alice Wally, Nelle Brown, Thomas Brown, of Henry, Vincent Brown, all adults, and the infants, Mary Wilson, Daisy Wilson, Bertie Wilson, Oliver Wilson, George Wilson, Bulah Wilson.

The object of this bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the Leasehold interest of which Horace Brown, late of Kent county, deceased possessed at the time of his death in a small lot of land located on the west side of Washington Avenue, in Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, and to distribute the proceeds among those thereto entitled, being the above entitled parties who are the only heirs at law of the said Horace Brown who died intestate.—

The bill states that the leasehold interest in said property is not susceptible of division without material loss and injury among the parties thereto entitled, and in order to make a division of said property a sale of the same as prayed is necessary—

That all said parties are residents of Kent County, Maryland, except the following: John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, and Thos. Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., who are none-residents of this state and reside at Wilmington state of Delaware, Vincent Brown who is a non-resident of the State of Maryland and is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, and Ella Brown whose residence is unknown but is believed to be a non-resident of the State of Maryland, nor is it known if she be living or dead, and if dead whether she left descendents surviving her—

To the end therefore that a decree may be passed as prayed—

It is therefore ordered this 27th day of June A. D., 1907—by the Circuit Court for Kent county, State of Maryland, in Equity that the Plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper, published in Kent county, aforesaid, once in each of four successive weeks before the 29th day of July, A. D. 1907—giving notice to John Brown, Hattie Brown, Alfred Brown, Thomas Brown of Horace Brown, Jr., residents of the State of Delaware, Vincent Brown, resident of the State of Pennsylvania, and Ella Brown whose residence is unknown but supposed to be a non-resident of the State of Maryland, or if the said Ella be dead then to the descendants of the said Ella, or her unknown heirs at law, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 17th day of August A. D. 1907 to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
