AMUSEMENTS ON WARPATH.

The 101 Ranch.

A queer gathering indeed has been assembled with Miller Brothers' famous 101 Ranch Wild West Show, which is being presented down at the exposition under the direction of the C. W. Rex Company, and which is playing to thousands of people daily. There is a veritable congress of nations, and the red man must not be forgotten. The savage is back to the scene of his early operations. He is there in his paint, but not the paint of war. He plays a prominent part in the wild west show, a wild west show that is the real thing, a show which is natural and which does not feature dime novel characters.

The buffalo chase, the attack on the emigrants' train, the capture of the horse thief, the pony express, the attack on the stage coach, the weird war dances of the Indians, the dancing horse, Columbus, George Elser's riding, Wenona's shooting act, the act of Texana and Reynolds, the roping and tying of wild cattle, the riding of the bucking bronchos and many other exciting and thrilling acts.

The arena is opposite the Lee Parade. There are accomodations for 15,000 people and performances are given daily at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m.

The Famous Midnight Ride of Paul Revere

One of the features of the Warpath at the Jamestown Exposition, and in fact one of the few that possess the advantage of being absolutely new is the production of the famous midnight ride of Paul Revere.

All students of Longfellow are familiar with his "Tales of A Wayside Inn," and all readers are impressed with his patriotic story of Paul Revere and his service to the country in its time of need.

By means of several panoramas revolving in different directions, a real horse galloping at top speed, electrical and mechanical effects of a most intricate nature, the hero is seen from the time he awaits the looked-for-signal from the old North Church, to the conclusion of his journey, every house, bridge, village, or place of historical interest is correctly reproduced, with a faithfulness for detail that has only been obtained after years of hard work and study.

In view of the facts, it is hard to conceive an entertainment that is more caculated to be of an educational and instructive value than this elaborate portrayal of an event familiar to every man, woman and child throughout our land.

Princess Trixie, the Educated Horse

Princess Trixie, the educated horse, has so steadily worked herself into public favor at the Jamestown Exposition that she has now become the "star" attraction, and she has excited so much comment, controversy, and discussion which needs all the management's patience to cope with. People, as a rule, are so loth to believe that a horse can think or reason and act, without any suggestion from a trainer, that her performances seem to savour almost of the supernatural.

Trixie tells how many women are occupying a certain row of seats, describes the various colors of their hats, waists, or other portions of their apparel, will tell the time correctly to the minute from any watch held by any member of the audience, manipulates the cash register and plays short selections upon musical instruments, without any apparent signal or cue from her master, her performance throughout is of a most interesting, amusing and instructive nature, and is well worthy the liberal patronage it enjoys.

WIN SUCCESS IN NURSING

The Best Paying Occupation — Free Scholarships.

Nursing the sick is perhaps the most attractive field for the ambitious woman who would win success and make the most of life. It is a refined occupation. It gives skill to the hand and grace to the heart. It is the best paying occupation now open to women, and presents an ever-widening field of opportunity. The call for nurses is a world-wide call. It is the one calling which is not overcrowded.

The demand for skilled nurses increases with the years. Thousands of young women have the natural graces of the skilled nurse, but have never had a chance to cultivate them, and so have been prevented from improving their own condition and blessing the race. But a new day has dawned. Large hearted philanthropists have opened wide the door of opportunity at the Philadelphia School for Nurses, 2219 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. A Two Years' Free Course has been established at this Institution, wherein the student is provided with room, board, laundry, nurse uniforms, and all the refinements of a good home, with suitable training, instruction and actual nursing in the homes of the poor and among people of moderate income, and at the end of the Course the student's fare home is paid.

The Term can be shortened to eighteen months by a Course of six months reading and study at home—a course which is very valuable in itself. Hundreds of young women, scattered all over the country, are started in the work, becoming not only self-supporting, but a boon to their respective neighborhoods.

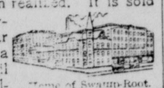
A Short Course is also provided for the woman who wishes to quickly prepare for self-support and a substantial income. Enrollment is now in progress for a class of four hundred students in the Resident Courses next year. Young women from the smaller towns and country districts are favored in the distribution of scholarships, with a view of conveying hospital knowledge to all rural communities.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Sawmp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghampton, N. Y. on every bottle.

G. B. BURHANS TESTIFIES AFTER FOUR YEARS

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Centre, N. Y., writes: "About fours ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by all druggists.
