SATURDAY, AUGUST 10, 1907.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

The Democratic Convention met in Baltimore Thursday and after an exciting session adjourned until night when the following strong ticket was nominated:

For Governor—AUSTIN L. CROTHERS, Cecil County.
For Comptroller—Dr. J. W. HERING, Carroll County.
For Attorney General—ISAAC LOBE STRAUS, Baltimore City.
For Clerk of the Court of Appeals—C. C. MAGRUDER, of Prince George's.

JUDGE AUSTIN L. CROTHERS.

The Democracy of Maryland has given to the people as its standard bearer for Governor Hon. Austin L. Crothers, of Cecil county. It is one of the best ever made by the party in the State. He served as State's Attorney for several terms and gave good service. As Senator he was chairman of the finance committee and was a faithful guardian of the State Treasury. In 1906 he was appointed by Gov. Warfield as associate judge of this Judicial Circuit to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Brown, which position he has filled with credit to himself and honor to his party.

He is especially fitted to be given the affairs of State and should receive the hearty endorsement of every white man in the State. His associates, Hering, Straus and Magruder are men of equally high character and fitness. The NEWS congratulates the convention upon their work. It was an old-time meeting where every man had a voice and nothing was cut and dried.

DR. J. W. HERING, of Carroll, the Democratic nominee for Comptroller, is one of Maryland's best citizens and has served four years as comptroller prior to Dr. Atkinson. He is a great vote getter, an upright man and a true Democrat.

KENT WAS IN IT!

Kent county played a very important part in the Democratic State Convention and had much to do with bringing about the excellent result. Among those present from Kent were Messrs. Marion deK. Smith, Lewin W. Wickes, Wm. B. Usilton, James T. Dixon, Wm. W. Beck, Philip G. Wilmer, S. Scott Beck, H. C. Willis, Wm. M. Slay, Harry Rash, R. C. Morgan, Dr. W. F. Hines, Andrew W. Woodall, Jesse H. Usilton, J. Raymond Bowers, Jesse Ireland, Wm. Comegys, Samuel Vannort, George Beck, Dr. Jas. W. Cain, William H. Wallis, Richard Groves, Thomas Maslin, Samuel Mann, Jos. W. Howard, Wm. H. Cooper, Jas. W. Ivens, John Medders, Noble Gears, Sheriff Andrew Medders, John N. Dodd, and others.

The Sun of Thursday in speaking of the gathering says:

Things began to get hot early in the morning, when the Talbot and Kent delegations arrived at the Hotel Rennert and joined the throng of Democrats already gathered there. It then developed that Judge Crothers was an active candidate for the nomination, and Kent county people began energetically to boom him as the Eastern Shore candidate. A movement for a general Eastern Shore caucus over the situation, with a view of uniting upon Mr. Crothers, was started, and the Eastern Shore people, with considerable encouragement from one of the organization leaders in other parts of the State, were enthusiastic in his behalf.

In the Eastern Shore Conference Jackson and Miles tried to block the nomination of Crothers, but their purpose was so plain that their efforts proved futile. These two men are candidates for U. S. Senate and were afraid of an Eastern Shoreman for Governor throwing the Senatorial chair to the Western Shore.

The nomination of Judge Crothers, says the American, ought to be acceptable to Governor Warfield, who named him to succeed the late Judge Edwin H. Brown. Judge Crothers recently declined to be a candidate for nomination for judge. He was requested by the Democratic lawyers of the circuit to reconsider the declination. He deferred his answer until after the state convention. Some people are wondering now if the Gubernatorial bee was buzzing around his head when he declined to be a judgeship candidate. The judgeship nomination will go to Albert Constable, of Cecil, Lewin W. Wickes, of Kent, or P. B. Hopper, of Queen Anne's.

"Eastern Shore forever!" shouted Mr. W. W. Beck, of Kent, when he heard that Judge Crothers' star was in the ascendant. "They can't beat us. Eastern Shoreman once, Eastern Shoreman always."—American.

One of Kent's delegates is said to have carried a grip in which was found only a clean collar, while another carried a satchel containing a pair eye glasses! We have not heard of the contents upon their return.

C. C. Magruder, of Prince George's, is the nominee for clerk of the Court of Appeals. Thus every part of the State is represented by men of the highest character and fitness. It is a winner.

CROTHERS, Herring, Straus and Magruder will make a strong ticket.

IT IS reported that the Handy farm on Chesapeake Bay and Worton Creek is to be used as a resort and that building lots for summer homes have been laid out.

ISAAC LOBE STRAUS, ESQ., of Baltimore City, the candidate for attorney-general, is a brilliant young lawyer and an indifatigable worker. He is a fine speaker and will make a fit companion to Crothers, Hering and Magruder.

Buying good jewelry

Is a sensible, a safe, a wise investment — purchasing the cheap kind is a waste. Putting a reasonable amount into a really good ring, for instance, is as wise as spending it for new clothing.

The ring assists to produce that general appearance of well-to-doness which it will pay any man or woman to cultivate.

And so with other jewelry.

Well, here is a store that has absolutely nothing whatever to do with questionable goods. Here is a store that believes in fair price for a dependable article.

Here is a store that gives you a square deal every day in the year

You are invited.

PUBLIC SALE.

THE undersigned, intending to quit farming, will sell without reserve, on the farm on which he now resides, one mile from Cecilton, on the road from Cecilton to Earleville, on Wednesday, August 14th, 1907,

the following Personal Property:

9 HORSES AND COLTS

No. 1—Helen, brown mare, 16 years old. Has been one of the best drivers in the district. Has had me 8 colts, and is now in foal by "Trurina."

No. 2—Bessie, dark brown mare, 12 years old. This is a sound, straight and a splendid bred mare; has had six fine colts, one by her side now, and is again with foal.

No. 3—Bob, bay horse, 12 years old. First class all around horse, guarantee him any place, either to work or drive.

No. 4—Polly, gray mare, 14 years old. The best farm horse I ever owned, a percheron, about 1100 lbs., couldn't say too much about this mare, guaranteed in every respect.

No. 5—Easter, dark bay horse, 4 years old. Helen's colt, sire, "Myrtleton," will weigh close to 1100 lbs. 16 hands high, sound and all right in every respect, I guarantee him to do anything you would call on him to do, a grand family horse.

No. 6—Jim, bay horse, 4 years old, 15 hands high, will weigh about 900 lbs, well bred, sire, "Sir Cypress"; he is tough as iron, good driver and worker.

No. 7—Trixie, dark bay mare, 2 years old. Helen's Colt, sire, Mr. Chas. Massey's "Adversity", 15 hands high. This mare is made for the road, I sold a brother to her last November out of the fall's work for $200.

No. 8—Togo, dark brown horse, 2 years old. Bessie's colt, sire, "Trurina"; he is 15 hands high, a big colt, I am keeping for my own use a brother of his, for which I would not take less than $200.

No. 9—Alice L., brown colt, 1 year old. Bessie's colt, sire, "Bell Rocker"; a fine colt for her age.

30 HEAD OF CATTLE

Graded Guernseys—20 Milch Cows, 9 Heifers, 1 2-Year-Old Thoroughbred Guernsey Bull. These cows and heifers are all graded stock. I have been 23 years picking my herd of cattle. I have raised every one of them and saved only the best. There will be seven or eight of these cows fresh by day of sale. Seventeen of these cows from May, 1906, to May, 1907, have paid me very nearly $1000 without their calves. The other three are heifers, fresh since May last. Dairymen looking for cows will do well to see these.

Seven Brood Sows, with pigs by their sides. These sows are Poland China stock, well bred and beauties.
