A Pretty Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at noon at Lynch M. P. Church on Tuesday, August 6, 1907, when Miss Lottie Copper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Copper, of Lynch, and James Parker, of Philadelphia, were married by Rev. G. A. Morris.

The bride was attired in white silk batiste and carried brides roses. The maid of honor, Miss Rachel Copper, sister of the bride, wore blue silk chiffon and carried asters. The bride's maid, Miss Sarah Copper, also sister of the bride, wore white French lawn and carried white geraniums. The ushers were Messrs. Ralph Williams, of Worton, Elmer Jones, of Lynch, Wm. Biddle, of Wilmington, Del., and Francis Hagan, cousin of the bride, from Lititz, Pa. Mr. Elmer Jones acted as best man.

The church was artistically decorated in green and white and the bridal party entered the church as the organ pealed forth to the melodius strains of Mendelsohn's beautiful wedding march, played by Mrs. Ellsworth Bowers. After the ceremony a "Wedding Dinner" was served by Caterer Brown at the home of the bride's parents.

Among the guests from out of the county were Misses Bertha Biddle and Elsie Blocher, of Wilmington, Mr. Thos. Roeder and mother, Mrs. J. J. Roeder, of Church Hill, and Messrs. J. Francis and Ernest S. Hagan, of Lititz, Pa. The bride and groom departed on the 2.45 train for their future home in Philadelphia amid showers of rice and confetti and with good wishes from their many friends who were at the station to see them off.
