VOL. 69. CHESTERTOWN MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1907 NO. 11

A Reasonable Proposition.

The season is well advanced and we have more goods than we will carry over, and there is but one way for us to bring about the desired result; that is to fix prices at such tempting smallness as to attract the purchasing public. Hence our on all remaining summer goods. Men's, Boys', Children's weareables all go alike at our wind-up-of-the-season price.

It is needless for us to mention figures on clothing as you are well acquainted with our clearance sales of the past and know the positive genuineness of them. We never indulged in that flim-flam method of marking prices up and then reducing them to a point where there is still left a great big profit. You've only to see the values offered in this sale to appreciate them.

In this sale is included the best one dollar neglige shirt in the world, full cut and guaranteed fit, 79c and so on throughout our entire store you will find the greatest bargains. STRAW HATS half price—our loss your gain.

Yours for business,

J. D. Lucas

(Opposite Stam's Hall.)

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF THE Ferro Engine?

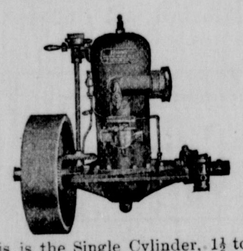
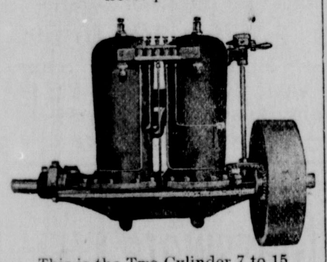
Of course you have, but probably you have never seen it work. It works. Yes, it works over time—all the time. We are putting out a number of these machines and everyone is a wonder.

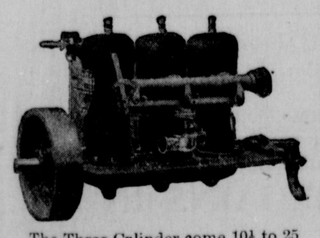
This machine oils itself automatically and runs like a clock.



This is the Single Cylinder, 1½ to 7 horse power.



This is the Two Cylinder 7 to 15 horse power.



The Three Cylinder come 10½ to 25 horse power.

This is the greatest motor yet produced. Come see it work. Get my prices. Installing done right here and all machines and work guaranteed for one year. Write for catalogue and prices.

Death's Doings.

MRS. J. THOMAS PENNINGTON.

Annie M., wife of J. Thomas Pennington, died at her home in Galena Saturday evening, after a long illness. The deceased was a daughter of George R. and Mary E. (Duyer) Vansant and no one knew her but to love her. For many years she has been in ill health during all of which time her faithful husband cared for her as though she was a child and he seemed always happy when catering to her wishes. She was a woman of liberal mind and charitable heart and did what she could in relieving the poor everywhere. The deceased leaves a husband and several half brothers. The funeral took place Tuesday interment in Galena Cemetery, Revs. Mr. Edson and J. W. Prettyman officiating. The bearers were Adam F. Huey, Colin F. Taylor, Charles England, Richard S. Wallis, Andrew W. Woodall, B. J. McCauley, E. Thomas Massey, Dr. E. A. Scott.

MRS. MARGARET C. WELCH.

At the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Moody, on Washington avenue at 6.30 a. m., Wednesday, August 14th, after a long illness, Margaret Cushley, the beloved wife of the late Samuel C. Welch and daughter of the late William and Jane Cushley, of Baltimore, aged 65 years. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Emma A. Mitchell and Mrs. W. E. Moody, also one grandson, W. Raymond Moody. No one could have been more tenderly cared for than did Mrs. Welch while under the eye of Mrs. Moody. The interment took place yesterday in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore. Services were held at the house conducted by Rev. W. L. White. Undertaker, J. N. Dodd.

OLLIE MILBOURN.

Crumpton mourns the loss of one of its brightest and most attractive young ladies, Miss Ollie Milbourn, youngest daughter of Mr. Samuel R. Milbourn, who was called away by death Tuesday, August 6th, while employed at Buck Hill Falls. She was taken sick with appendicitis and while she received all medical attention that could be given her, and nursing as well, yet death soon claimed its own. She being the youngest of the family naturally, the father and mother's affections entwined about her in a peculiar way. They will miss her in the family circle, we will miss her in the church and Sunday school, and we will miss her in the community. But while onr hearts are bleeding we do not sorrow as those who have no hope, we rejoice in the fact that our loss is her eternal gain. Her last message to her father was tell "Papa" to meet me in heaven and said she was ready to die. We rejoice to record the fact that she became a christian in very early life, being only 18 years old when she died and the church record shows that she was received in full connection in the church eight years ago next March. Her funeral was preached in the Crumpton M. P. Church which she loved so dearly, her pastor, Rev. C. J. Burdette, officiating. Strange as it may seem she made certain requests in reference to her burial though in fairly good health when leaving home—in selecting her pall bearers and desiring plenty of flowers and surely the floral designs were lovely and very elaborate, representing the church and Sunday school and her many friends. A large number were present to pay the last tribute of respect to her, and it was a very impressive service, after which her remains were taken to Chestertown for burial. The pall bearers were as follows: Joel Clements, Ernest Clark, Raymond Edwards, John Richards, Medford Porter, Edward Porter.

MARIE GREENWOOD.

Miss Marie Greenwood, daughter of Mr. William H. Greenwood, of Edesville, died last Saturday at the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Greenwood, Chestertown, of consumption, aged 14 years. Funeral was held Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. T. Little, interment in St. Pauls cemetery. The pall bearers were Charles Wheatley, Galen Vansant, Hope Hudson, Maurice and Preston Ivens and James Coleman. At the funeral services appropriate songs were beautifully rendered by two quartettes composed of Misses Addie and Eva Hurlock, Dr. H. L. Dodd and Fred. G. Usilton; and Misses Virginia Little, Rebecca Aldridge, Marguerite Dodd and Josephine Wheatley, representing the Junior C. E. Society. This little sufferer was a most lovable and unselfish child, with an exceptionally bright mind and sweet disposition. During her long illness she had the constant care of a faithful grandmother and the loving attention of aunts and friends. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

A committee of the Junior Christian Endeavor Society drew up the following resolutions in her memory.

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in his wisdom deemed it best to take from us our beloved friend and faithful member, who was ever ready and willing to help others. Be it

Resolved, That we extend our most sincere sympathy to the bereaved family, in the earnest hope that they may find consolation in the knowledge of her pure life.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and a copy inserted in the county papers.

J. D. URIE ON TOP.

Republican County Convention Met In Chestertown Monday — New State Central Committee Elected —Ticket To Be Named September Ninth.

It is seldom that a man or party gets defeated without knowing it, but such is a fact in regard to the result of the Republican primaries in Kent. Mr. Wilbur Eliason, who has been the chairman of the State Central Committee for four years, was not especially anxious for the place, but his friends took an interest in trying to retain him. The result, however, was a new State Central Committee. Mr. Eliason will not acknowledge his defeat leaving the public to judge. His warm supporters like Sidney P. Townshe nd, Esq., Daniel Hill and others admit they were defeated but say it was done in a most polite and "harmonious" manner!

In Chestertown district Mr. Eliason allowed Mr. Urie to name two out of three Delegates in his precinct! When Mr. Robert R. Hill, of Kennedyville, heard how the affair was being managed he is said to have remarked, "Pops, we might as well lay down and let Mr. Urie have everything." And Mr. John N. Bennett brought the second district down for Mr. Urie!

There was a serious blunder made in the "running" of the convention for it was not intended that Mr. Eliason should know that he had been defeated. But after the credentials committee had reported, Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., moved to re-elect the old State Central Committee, viz., Wilbur Eliason, Daniel Hill and Ezekiel Tilghman. This motion was seconded and a vote taken resulting in the defeat of the old committee by vote of 30 to 14.

A new committee was elected consisting of James H. Baker, John C. Davis and Ezekiel Tilghman. Messrs. Baker and Davis stated that they did not care to serve on this committee but as they had been asked by both sides, for the sake of harmony, they would accept.

Wilbur Eliason, Esq., chairman of the State central committee, called the convention to order. Permanent organization was effected by the election of Hon. James H. Baker as chairman and L. Bates Russell secretary.

In taking the chair Mr. Baker made a short but ringing speech, in which he declared he was proud that he was a member of the party that did not seek to rob the poor and unfortunate of their citizenship by trick ballots and constitutional amendments.

Upon motion of Mr. Eliason, it was unanimously decided to defer the nomination of candidates for county offices, until Monday, September 9th.

The following mass delegations to the State and Judicial Conventions were named:

State Convention—Wilbur Eliason, L. P. Atwell, Daniel Hill, Robert R. Hill, Samuel J. Comley, John N. Bennett, Harry Willis, John S. Owens, George E. Owens, John D. Urie, Col. W. J. Vannortt, D. B. McMenamin, John C. Davis, Sidney P. Townshend, W. H. Lambert, L. Bates Russell, Frank M. Miller, W. A. Burk, J. B. Burchinal, Charles S. Smith, James A. Casey, Capt. J. B. Willson, George Ashley, Jas. H. Baker, Bartus Trew, Sam'l J. Vickers, I. R. Leaverton, W. G. Smyth, Purnell Jump, Jas. T. DeCorse, T. H. M. Bramble, Carey Reinhart, A. M. Kendall, Joseph Reed, James Willis, Joseph E. Boyd, R. Frank Elburn, J. Emery Smith, Dr. J. W. Urie, J. W. Broadway, Henry Yorker, J. T. Strickland.

Judicial Convention—John D. Urie, Sidney P. Townshend, W. W. Baldwin, H. D. McClary, Wilbur Eliason, David B. McMenamin, L. Bates Russell, John C. Davis, W. A. Burk, Col. W. J. Vannort, James H. Baker, Charles S. Smith, Bartus Trew, Samuel J. Vickers, Alfred W. Willson, W. G. Smyth, Dr. J. W. Urie, W. H. Lambert, James A. Casey.

Married.—Mr. John J. Scoon, the popular constable of Rock Hall, has taken unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Cora Schwartz, an accomplished young lady of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed at Wesley Chapel parsonage on Monday by Rev. Mr. Compher. Congratulations, "Jack."

Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Tarbell, of Syracuse, New York, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lula Iola, to Mr. Oregon C. Leary, of Rock Hall, Maryland, to be held at the home of the groom at eight o'clock P. M. Wednesday, August 21st.

At the P. O. S. of A. convention this week in Annapolis Mr. J. W. Boyer, of Rock Hall, and Mr. John McRochester, of near town, were elected trustees. Mr. John C. Davis, of Chestertown, and J. Henry Baker, Esq., of Baltimore, are national representatives.
