The Store
That Does Things Best

This store is not satisfied merely to "go through the motions" of storekeeping. What is done here must be done best—always.

It is this policy that makes Baltimore's Best Store the most satisfactory of all places to buy goods—for you are sure in advance of getting the best merchandise, the best store service and the most liberal treatment that you can find anywhere.

And a sale here is never considered closed until you say you're satisfied.

This month is the month of clearance—summer goods must be gotten out before September comes. And we're doing this just as thoroughly as we do everything else.

The lots are small—too small for detailed mention—but the savings are very, very big.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service. Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

EDITORS OF THE KENT NEWS:

In explanation of the foolishness (?) of the Prohibition Party of Queen Anne's County in nominating a ticket, permit me as one of the candidates on that ticket, to ask why Prohibitionists should throw their strength to the other parties anymore than that the other parties should throw their strength to us?

The Prohibition Party believes in the annihilation of the liquor traffic to the extent of prohibiting the manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of the iniquitious thing. Does the Democrat Party or any other party stand for this principle? If not why should we abandon our principle and stand with a party that does not, and has never antagonized the saloon in any of its work? We think it wiser to vote for what we want and not get it than to vote for what we don't want and get it.

Our party stands firmly for the above principle and has never fused with anything with which it did not agree in the twenty one years of our party life in Queen Anne's County. Why Sirs, should it appear foolish in us now that we are "of age" to refuse to backslide from our path? Would that the good men on the other tickets stood on platforms equally good. If the other parties wan't our strength let them declare war on the saloon and they shall have our most hearty support.

TOLCHESTER'S PROSPECTS GOOD.

Racing Meet At Beach Likely To Surpass Previous Records.

The Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil county fair and race meet to be held at Tolchester Beach August 27 to 30, inclusive, looks good to General Manager George E. Noland. The dates for the harness race meeting at Tolchester were claimed by the Rockville Fair Association at a meeting held by the Maryland and Virginia Fairs and Racing Circuit, and it looked as though there was to be a battle royal between the two associations.

Tolchester dropped out of the circuit and gamely decided to race on the dates it has had for several years. The move now appears to have been a wise one on the part of Manager Noland. Poolselling on the Rockville course has been protested against and doubts about the association of that place being able to hold a meeting have strengthened the Tolchester meeting and a bigger entry list than in the history of the down-the-bay course is consequently anticipated.

Entries for the Tolchester meeting are to close August 22, and records made that day are not to be bars. The race meeting at Pocomoke City closes August 23 and the horses racing there can then be shipped to Tolchester.

General Manager Noland has paid particular attention to the Tolchester race track, and says it will, weather permitting, be safer and faster than it ever was before.

New stables have been built and the old ones thoroughly repaired.

KENT IN IT AGAIN.

The Republican State Convention Selects Hon. James H. Baker As Candidate For Comptroller.

The Republican State Convention met in Baltimore Wednesday and nominated the following ticket:

For Governor—GEORGE R. GAITHER, of Baltimore city.
Comptroller—FORMER STATE SENATOR JAMES H. BAKER, of Kent county.
Attorney-General—HAMMOND URNER, of Frederick.
Clerk of the Court of Appeals—THOMAS PARRAN, of Calvert county, the incumbent.

This result was reached under the dictation of Congressman Mudd, with the consent of Congressman Jackson. Mr. Mudd selected the nominees, directed the chairman whom to recognize, shut off speakers and otherwise personally dominated the proceedings.

The platform declares for enactment of a State primary election law by the Legislature, but, unlike the Democratic platform, makes no pledge applying to this year. The coming election of two Senators will therefore, as far as the Republicans are concerned, be conducted under the old methods.

The enactment of a corrupt practices law, a subject of pathetic interest to Congressman Jackson, is favored and opposition is expressed to any suffrage amendment. Repeal of the Wilson Ballot act is demanded.

Mr. Vannort Presents Mr. Baker.

Nominations for Comptroller were called for and Col. William J. Vannort, of Kent County, who was the Republican candidate for Governor against ex-Governor Frank Brown 16 years ago, took the stage and nominated Mr. Baker. He said:

"'Deeds, not words,' is our motto. Coming from the Eastern Shore of Maryland, we are before you today to present the name of one of our honored sons. To the reputation of the gentleman whose nomination I shall make no eulogy of mine can add lustre. I know that I only voice the sentiments of the Eastern Shore in placing him before you. He has never sought political preferment, but when he was asked to run he acquiesced. His character is stainless, and in his nomination we will honor him to whom honor is due. When the ballots are counted you voters will find that you have not made a mistake in nominating James H. Baker for Comptroller."

Mr. Baker's nomination was seconded by Mr. George Dorsey Day, who said:

"I arise to second the naming of the gallant man from Kent county. It is only a reward for his past services. His nomination will add great strength to the ticket."
