SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1907.

THE oyster season opens on Monday next.

THE Baltimore Evening News' blackguarding efforts against Judge Crothers has already reacted and that paper is now regarded with suspicion by readers generally.

THE Democratic candidates made a hit at Tolchester on Wednesday. Judge Crothers and his mates are hustlers. They are all worthy standard bearers and with our own fine county ticket are indeed a credit to the Democratic party.

THE Republican ticket in Cecil seems to be falling to pieces. Several of the candidates recently nominated have resigned and others are expected to. It's a bad outlook for the Republicans this year in Cecil sure.

A GREAT MEETING that will be in Baltimore at the Lyric on the evening of September 19th. The notification speech will be made by Senator Raynor and will be replied to by Judge Crothers, Dr. Hering and Messrs. Straus and Magruder.

IT is now Judge Hopper. Hon. P. B. Hopper took the oath of office as successor of Judge Crothers under the appointment of Governor Warfield, last Saturday at Centreville. He received hearty congratulations from a number of friends present. It is said he will get a big majority in Queen Anne's. He is certainly worthy of it.

JUDGE CROTHERS IN KENT.

Judge Austin L. Crothers, Dr. J. W. Hering and Mr. Isaac Lobe Straus, the Democratic nominess for Governor, Comptrolller and Attorney-General, respectively, made their appearance at the Tolchester fair Wednesday and began a campaign of handshaking probably never before equaled at this resort. The crowd included people from Kent, Cecil, Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline, of the Eastern Shore, as well as a large number from Baltimore and Annapolis. Each of the candidates was charmed with the reception, delighted with what he saw and has the peace and comfort of an abiding faith that the Democratic party of this part of the State intends to leave no stone unturned in making sure the election of the Democratic standard bearers.

DEMOCRATS' BEST CARD.

On the threshold of the most important campaign that has been waged in Maryland for many years the Democratic leaders believe the people are with their ticket and that the chances for success have rarely been brighter.

The stake which both sides have in the fight is a great one, and the result will be far-reaching and important. Because the people had more to do with the nomination of the Democratic State ticket and because they will also be given the opportunity of naming by direct vote the Democratic candidates in the city primaries, it is believed there will be a far stronger popular sentiment behind the Democratic candidates than behind the Republicans, whose State nominees were named by Congressmen Sydney E. Mudd and William H. Jackson and whose city ticket in all probability will be dictated by Collector Wm. F. Stone, leader of the local Republican organization.

The influences back of Mr. George R. Gaither and his colleagues on the Republican ticket are such as to preclude the posibility of their support by the independents, and, while the city and counties have been scoured by Mr. Gaither's friends in the 10 days since his nomination, not a single leading man of independent proclivities in politics has been found ready to espouse the Mudd-Jackson-made ticket, no matter how respectable the nominee for Governor. If no other argument were needed the generally recognized fact that a Republican Legislature means Mudd or Jackson, or both, in the United States Senate should be, it is said, sufficient to solidify the Democratic party and to bring to the support of Judge Crothers and the ticket every independent in the State, as well as others who believe, with the Democratic platform, that "evils and dangers follow the triumph of the Republican party in Maryland because of its dependence on the negro vote."—Baltimore Sun.

THE OYSTER SEASON.

On Monday, September 2, the oyster season for Maryland will open. The Maryland oyster season officially opens on September 1, but as this date falls on Sunday this year there will be no business conducted. During the summer months the oyster boats are engaged mostly in the carrying of fruits and vegetables from Maryland points to the Baltimore market, but after September 1st, it is rather difficult to charter an oyster vessel for produce carrying purposes. Maryland oysters this season are expected to be of good quality, but prices, it is expected, will be higher than last year. This was explained by an oyster dealer by the fact that oysters for some years past have each season been arriving in smaller qualities. The oyster law will, it is believed, eventually overcome this shortage, but it has not been in effect long enough to influence the supply this season.

Buying good jewelry

Is a sensible, a safe, a wise investment — purchasing the cheap kind is a waste. Putting a reasonable amount into a really good ring, for instance, is as wise as spending it for new clothing.

The ring assists to produce that general appearance of well-to-doness which it will pay any man or woman to cultivate.

And so with other jewelry.
