Announcement.—The wedding of Miss Lucy E. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Thompson and Mr. Frank J. Duyer is announced to take place next Wednesday evening, September 4th, at 7.30 at the home of the bride's parents, near Edesville.

WEDDING EVENTS.

PEARSON—HUTCHINS.

A very pretty, though quiet, wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, August the 20th, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the beautiful home, "The Pines," of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Powell, near Marydel, Md., when Miss Virda Hutchins, of Hartly, Del., became the bride of Mr. Franklin Pearson, of Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. E. H. Derrickson, officiating clergyman.

The bridal party entered the beautiful decorated parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, gracefully rendered by Miss Helen Powell. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of electric blue taffeta with chiffon trimmings and was attended by Miss Florence Powell whose dress was of cream silk mousseline with rose medallion trimmings. Mr. Curtis Hutchins, of Reading, Pa., brother of the bride, acted as groom's man. Her going-away dress was of green taffeta with hat to match.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson, Mrs. J. Frank Harris, of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. L. D. Nickerson, of Philadelphia, Pa., Misses Amy Pritchett, Florence and Helen Powell, Anna Harris; Messrs. James Scotten, Curtis Hutchins, Floyd Nickerson, D. Scotten. After the ceremony the bride and groom boarded the train from Marydel for points North, accompanied by Mr. James Scotten and Miss Florence Powell amid showers of rice, etc.

LEARY—TARBELL.

A very pretty wedding was held at the home of Mr. O. P. Leary, Rock Hall, Maryland, on Wednesday night, August 21st, where their son, Mr. Oregon C. Leary, and Miss Lula I. Tarbell were united in marriage. Shortly after eight o'clock as the wedding march sounded the bridal procession appeared, consisting of Misses Nellie Apsley, Avis Carter, Lillie Coleman and Ethel Rodney, who were flower girls, Rev. E. Morris Lukens, and the bride and groom elect. In the presence of over one hundred relatives and friends, under a beautifully decorated arch the impressive ceremony was performed. After which Mr. and Mrs. Leary received many congratulations and happy wishes. Mrs. E. Morris Lukens rendered appropriate music following the ceremony, after which the guests were served to a bountiful feast. The bride was neatly dressed in white Persian lawn and carried a loose spray of clematis. Mr. and Mrs. Leary were the receivers of many beautiful and useful presents. They left a few days after for Ford's Store, Md., where they will reside.

KENT COUNTIAN IN TROUBLE

Mr. William Larrimore, Formerly of Rock Hall, Shoots Wife's Caller And Wounds Another.

Mr. William Larrimore, who formerly lived in lower Kent County and has relatives in this section, is reported to be in a peck of trouble in Baltimore. Larrimore is charged with shooting O. F. Duke, of Masonville, Md., and Miss Lillian Dickson, of Baltimore. The latter being near Larrimore when he shot Duke.

The scene of the shooting was at Larrimore's home, 421 Lombard street, Highlandtown, Baltimore. According to Larrimore, he returned to his home a little before 10 o'clock, Sunday, and, finding Duke there with his wife, became enraged. Securing a shotgun standing in a corner of the room, he picked it up and without hesitation shot Duke in the back as he ran from the room and reached the front steps. Miss Dickson was walking down the street, and part of the buckshot entered her leg.

It is said that Larrimore had repeatedly warned Duke to keep away from his home. For several weeks previous to last January, it is said, Duke boarded at the Larrimore home. He and Mrs. Larrimore are said to have become friends, and the two are alleged to have once visited Norfolk, Va. Nothing was heard of the couple until Mrs. Larrimore returned to Baltimore and met her mother on the street. Her parent is said to have pleaded with her to stay in Baltimore and try to live with her husband. Mrs. Larrimore is alleged to have broken down and wept bitterly and declared that she would never be happy until she was again at home with her husband and children.

For several weeks, it is said, Mr. Larrimore was urged to forgive his wife, which he finally consented to do, and allowed her to return to his home under the condition that she never see Duke again.

To this, it is said, she agreed, and the couple once more lived happily in their comfortable little home on Lombard street. About a week ago it is said that Duke wrote Mrs. Larrimore from Masonville that he was coming to Baltimore and that he was anxious to see her. Mrs. Larrimore is said to have ignored his letter, but nevertheless he persisted in seeing her. He reached the city several days ago.

Mr. Larrimore is said to have learned of his presence in the city and to have watched his wife closely.

Larrimore is a foreman in the works of the Maryland Steel Company. He went to Sparrows Point Sunday night about 6 o'clock but returned to the city several hours later and was astonished to see Duke with his wife. Two of his small children were in one of the rooms playing, and, upon gazing on them and then his wife and Duke, was for a moment bewildered. But for a moment only. He then rushed blindly into the room where he kept his shotgun.

Duke lost no time in leaving the room and just as he reached the front step Larrimore fired. Duke fell unconscious, and in a few moments hundreds of persons arrived. The Back River cars, which pass the house, were crowded with passengers and many left to ascertain the cause of the shooting.

Larrimore is under arrest. Wagonman Patrolman Kramer took the unconscious man to the hospital. Miss Dickson was taken to the office of Dr. J. C. Schofield, Highland avenue and Pratt street, where she had her injuries dressed, and was then taken to her home. At the hospital Dr. R. F. Duffy, who attended Duke last night, said that he was in a critical condition, his back and right arm being perforated with shot.

St. Paul's Parish church and Christ church, I. U. Parish. There will be divine service in these chuches next Sunday, 14th after Trinity, Sept. 1st as usual, at St. Paul's celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.30 a. m., at Christ Church I. U. instruction 3.00 p. m., Divine service 3.30 p. m.

Mr. J. W. Beauchamp, of St. Paul's Mill, lower Kent, is quite sick at his home having suffered a stroke of paralysis on Thursday.

Mr. Wm. H. Ivens and Master Willie Spaeth, of Philadelphia, spent several days in town this week on business.

Miss Cornelius, of Lynch, has returned from visiting Mrs. Joseph Norris in the West Virginia coal field.

Rev. Father McCarthy and friend, Mr. McDonnell, of Philadelphia, Miss Marie Rodrick, of Wilmington, Miss Ella Alder and little niece, of Queenstown, have been visiting Mr. John Duyer and family on High street.

Mrs. Tracy, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort.

Little Elsie Whiteley, Susan Stam and Elizabeth Brice, of Chestertown, are quite sick with fever.

Teachers' Institute Next Week.—The Kent Teachers' Institute will begin Monday next. The instructors will be Dr. J. W. Cain, Dr. R. H. Gault, Prof. J. E. Carroll, of Dover, Miss Hannah A. Coale, of Baltimore, Miss Lula Thomas, of Baltimore, Miss Miriam Leaverton and Prof. Owen C. Blades. Prof. Milton Melvin anticipates an enjoyable and educational week. On Thursday evening H. Wirt Steele, Esq., will deliver a public lecture in Stam's Hall with admission free.

Outing Parties.—The Captain Crane party on the yacht "Josephine" write that they are having a great trip. They took in the St. Michaels races, visited Solomen's Island, Crisfield and are now on a trip to Jamestown, Petersburg and Richmond.

Dr. Arthur Dunning Mansfield, director of the "Pleasant Hill Sanatorium" at Owings Mills, Md., with his three children are spending several weeks at Chestertown in their cosy yacht, "Venezia." The doctor and his family have been to Jamestown and other places but for several years manages to spend several weeks on the beautiful Chester river.

Messrs. Harry Hodgkins, Milton E. Baker, William Benjamin, F. Clay and Chas. McWhorter have pitched their camp at Tolchester for a week.

Mr. Josias Price, of Lankford, entertained a few of his friends to a delightful cruise to Queenstown and Quaker Neck, Thursday afternoon on Capt. Leary's launch. Among those in the party were: Mr. Sadtler and daughter, Miss Ethel of Baltimore, Mrs. Edward Lusby and sons, Raymond, Harry, Clay and Linwood and Mr. Josias Price. Capt. Leary, of Piney Neck, in command.

Gunners Beware.—There's been a great many flickers killed in Kent but State Game Warden Dennis says it is against the law. He says "it is unlawful to kill flickers in Baltimore, Carroll, Cecil, Frederick, Harford, Montgomery, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, St. Mary's, Washington, Wicomico, Worceeter and Kent counties. This is my opinion based on the laws of Maryland and I shall, and do by this interview, instruct the deputy wardens of the State to enforce the law and arrest anyone who may shoot or have flickers in possession.

"Under Chapter 474, Acts of 1874, it is made unlawful to shoot woodpeckers. The flicker is a species of woodpecker and is an insectivorous bird. On this I base my opinion as to Baltimore county. Under the same reasoning it is my opinion that it is unlawful to kill flickers in the other counties mentioned above except Kent county, where they are protected under the term 'any bird' and in Worcester county under 'song and insectivorous birds.'

The season to kill rail and reed birds will begin on September 15 and last until January 16.

Big Prices for Fruit.—Kent County fruit growers are gathering very little fruit but over in Delaware some fruit is being gathered and big prices are being obtained. M. Soper & Son, of Magnolia, well-known in Kent as expert fruit men, started the season with the Early Ripe which sold in Philadelphia at $2.25 per bushel basket. This is a yellow skinned apple when ripe. Barring all other varities grown on the Peninsula, the Early Ripe is the best to handle. A point that may be mentioned in its favor is that it is an exceptionally good carrier. It can be shipped in ventilated cars, without refrigerators, to any of our best markets. Such varieties as Yellow Transparent, Early Alton, Red Astrachan and Fourth of July sold at the stations from $1.00 to $1.50 per bushel. The above named growers disposed of their entire crop of the famous Williams at Wyoming. None sold for less than $1.50 and as high as $1.96 per bushel. Bartlett pears have been selling for from $1.00 to $1.95 per bushel according to conditions of the fruit and grades. Peaches are selling for far more than they are worth, considering their food values. Anything is bringing good prices. Fancy peaches are selling as high as $4.00 per Georgia carrier, at Wyoming.

AGREE TO FIGHT BRIBERY.

About 40 of the leading men of both political parties of Caroline county held a meeting at the Law Building in Denton on Tuesday and took steps to prohibit the use of money at the coming eleetion. Messrs. Thomas A. Smith, Albert W. Sisk and Dr. F. R. Malone, the Democratic State Central Committee, and Messrs. C. W. Hobbs and W. W. Seward, of the Republican State Central Committee, and nearly all the candidates of both parties were present.

Strong speeches were made by nearly a dozen of the leading men of both parties condemning the bribery evil, which has grown with leaps and bounds in Caroline for a number of years.

Among those who denounced it and expressed themselves as anxious to see it stopped were Messrs. Smith, Hobbs, Seward and Sisk and several of the candidates and others. By a unanimous vote all present determined that a strong anti-bribery agreement, to be signed by the committees and candidates of all parties and enforced in letter and spirit and without fear or favor, should be entered into. The important points of the proposed measure were fully discussed, and a motion was carried requesting that a joint committee be named to draft the contract, to be adopted at a meeting to be held in the courthouse next Tuesday.

THE Betterton tournament for Sept. 3rd, has been postponed. The "Shell races" on Labor Day at Betterton promise to attract a large crowd as these are the first races of the kind ever held at head of Chesapeake Bay. Fireworks and base ball on same day will also help to make Monday a big day.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.
