Live Local Notes.

To Pay Claims.—Alonzo L. Miles, attorney for Mrs. R. Irving Walker, has given notice to creditors that he will pay off all claims on or before September 20th. He also petitions for the dismissal of her petition in bankruptcy and all the proceedings thereunder. This will enable Mrs. Walker to resume control of her large estate. The indebtedness is about $62,000.

Removals.—Mr. Wm. J. Hurlock will remove from the Welch farm, near Kennedyville, to the Newnam farm occupied by Mr. George Schauber. Mr. S. will remove to the farm near Chestertown with his brother. The Johnson Bros. will tenant the Welch farm.

Mr. W. W. Baldwin and family, of near Chesterville, will remove to the Smyth house on Cannon street, Chestertown.

Good Personalty Sales.—The Barrett Smith sale on Thursday, advertised exclusively in the NEWS, was a fine one. Horses sold as high as $200 and cows from $30 to $40. Auctioneer Greenwood says implements brought good prices.

The sale of personalty belonging to Mrs. Mary L. Minner and which was advertised exclusively in the NEWS, was the best attended of the year and everything brought excellent prices. Auctioneer Hurlock says it was the best sale of the season. Horses brought from $121 to $186, cows from $30 to $53; yearling colt $80, suckling colt $68, etc.

Chester River Draw.—The hearing in the matter of the draw in the Chester River bridge will probably be held in the Engineer Office at the Custom House in Baltimore at ten a. m., on Wednesday, October 2nd, 1907. In the meanwhile it is expected that the County Commissioners of Kent and Queen Anne counties will submit written statements of their views upon the question of widening this draw, and notice of the hearing will not be sent out until this communication has been received.

An Afflicted Family—This community sympathizes with Mr. Robert G. Nicholson and his estimable family in the affliction through which they are passing. About a month ago his son, Lusby, was brought home from Worcester county suffering from typhoid fever, and within a week his sister, Miss Bessie, was stricken with the malady. Mrs. Raymond Jones, the house-keeper, was taken about the same time. Mrs. Jones was sent to St. Luke's Hospital, Baltimore, on Thursday, and is critically ill. Miss Bessie is resting easy but Lusby succumbed to the disease late Thursday evening.

Horse Notes.—Josie Lee won her race in Baltimore last week but the time was slow.

Mr. Wm. A. Bell left home this week to take charge of his well-known Bedworth, Jr., owned by Jarvius Bros., Washington, and which has not been doing much for a year. Bedworth, Jr., will go against track record of 2.12 at Easton next Thursday.

Trainer Frank Johnson has sold "Half Gallon" for $400. This is the horse which Mr. J. bought of Mr. Wm. Wagner.

Mr. Harry McWhorter lost his driving horse last week.

Mr. H. S. Barnett's fine grey horse was badly cut by barbed wire one night last week.

Dr. Robert R. Roth, of Easton, has equipped himself with one of the prettiest turnouts in Easton. On Monday he purchased of Jas. W. Walls, the well-known Crumpton fancier of high grade horses a pretty bay horse "Frank" by "Melodious Chimes," dam a thoroughbred.

ROCK HALL TOURNAMENT.

Good Riding—Large Attendance—Excellent Order—Brilliant Dance At Night.

The tournament and dance at Shallbourne Park, Rock Hall, last Saturday was a grand success being attended by 500 persons. The managers are delighted with the affair and are to be congratulated upon the excellent order which prevailed. Messrs. Harry C. Willis, Jesse H. Usilton and Joseph E. Watson were the Judges and superintended this feature with marked ability. The riders were Andrew Sutton, Knight of Bayside; W. C. Moffett, Knight of Shallbourne; Albert Moffett, just for fun; J. H. Moffett, Swan Creek; Tom Fowler, Flatland; Walter Fowler, Little Grove; Wm. Hadaway, Rock Hall; Wm. Ashley, Wandering Boy; Roy Jacquette, Fairlee; Elwood Fowler, Worton. The prizes were $10, $5 and $2.50.

Roy Jacquette won first prize and crowned Miss Ethel Taylor as Queen; Walter Fowler was second and crowned Mrs. Fowler; Tom Fowler was third and crowned Miss Louise Beck. Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., made the charge to the Knights and also the coronation address and greatly pleased all present. The climax came in the evening when more than 500 persons filled the park and enjoyed the dance to sweet music from Patterson's Orchestra of eight pieces directed by Prof. Kerler.

THE big Democratic mass-meeting is to be held in Chestertown Oct. 15th.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

W. LUSBY NICHOLSON.

It is with much sadness we record the demise of W. Lusby Nicholson, son of Mr. R. G. Nicholson, who was brought home from Worcester county ill with fever about a month ago, and notwithstanding the best attention, passed away Thursday, aged just 21. Lusby graduated at Washington College last June and was the leader in all sports and fun of College life. The following lines written by his chum, Mr. Kemp Bordley, is given place as expressing the feelings of this community:

"Our lives are rivers, gliding free,
To that unfathomed, boundless sea.—
The silent grave."

Thursday evening about 7.30 another friend passed away, and it was with the deepest regret that the public learned of his death. A man whose character in this community is unimpeachable,—a man generous, noble and good. Fresh from College, and just about to enter upon his life's profession, and yet God, in his infinite judgment, has deemed it fitting that he be taken from our midst, and that devoted family ties be severed for a season.

How shocking is the summons of Death! God calls—we know not why—and loved ones answer His behest; God beckons,—the dearest must depart.

He lingered long in the twilight of his illness, and was apparently recovering, but slowly and surely the curtain of the evening fell, and the folds of night wrapped him tenderly in their embrace and he was gathered to His maker.

Experience has taught us how crushing must be the affliction of his loved ones. Would that we could offer them more than our futile expressions of sympathy, those who have seen all their hopes and aspiration shattered by the breath of Providence. May God grant them some solace in their bereavement and sustain them in such an hour of grief.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Chestertown M. P. Church, interment at Chester cemetery. There will be no services at St. James Church Sunday.

WILLIAM W. NEWCOMB.

Mr. William W. Newcomb, one of Kent's most prosperous farmers, died at his home near Flatland, last Friday evening at seven o'clock after a lingering illness of throat consumption; aged 51 years.

Mr. Newcomb is survived by a widow, who was a Miss Matthews, a sister of Messrs. John E. and Stewart R. Matthews, of this town, and one daughter, Mrs. Harry Fowler and one son, Clarence. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this dark hour. Funeral services were held at his late residence, Monday, conducted by Rev. Morris, of St. James, interment being made at Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Thomas Davis, James A. French, John Duyer, Joseph Atwell, James E. Morris and Wm. C. Anderson. Undertaker, J. E. Ferguson.

MRS. EMILY A. PRICE.

Mrs. Emily A. Price, an estimable lady of the First district, Cecil county, after many years of patient suffering passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Jones, on Monday morning, September 2. Funeral services were held at the house on Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock. Rev. W. A. Coale officiating; interment in the cemetery at Warwick. Four children survive her—Mrs. George Jones, of Earleville; Mrs. Eva Topping, of Chestertown; Mrs. Clara Lynch, of Wilmington, and Perry Price, of Fairlee. Five of her grand-sons—Messrs. Harry, William, George, Crawford and Cleveland Jones, and Carl Hines acted as bearers. Deceased was in her 69th year.

MILTON B. HADAWAY.

Captain Milton B. Hadaway died at the home of Mr. Clarke Stoops, where he boarded, in Quaker Neck, on Tuesday last. He was a well-known and esteemed citizen of Kent and an experienced waterman. He was 53 years of age and unmarried. He had been sick for several months. The funeral took place from Mowbray Chapel, Rev. McCoy, officiating; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker. The bearers were Daniel Hadaway, Thomas Hadaway, Jr., Grover Hadaway, Milton Faulkner, Wilmer Brown, Edgar Bowman.

SIR WALTER RALEIGH, JR.

Mr. Sir Walter Raleigh, Jr., died at the home of his brother, Mr. Percy Raleigh, in Chestertown, on Thursday after a long illness. The deceased fell from a high scaffold some years ago, since which time his decline began. He was a carpenter by trade and popular among his fellows. He was 28 years of age. The funeral will take place 2 P. M. today, interment in Chester cemetery, J. N. Dodd, undertaker.

ARTHUR TURNER.

Arthur the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams, of Turner's Creek, died on Monday morning last, of meningitis. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, Rev. Samuel Edson officiating. The interment in Shrewsbury cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

JAMES W. BIRD.

James W. Bird, age 54, died in Brooklyn, N. Y., on September 1st, and was buried at Flatbush, Long Island. Mr. Bird was well-known in Kent where he formerly lived.

"Riverside Sold.—The beautiful "Riverside" farm on Chester river, tenanted by Mr. Samuel L. Wright has been sold to Dr. W. K. Robinson for $27,500. This farm belonged to the late Col. Edward Wilkins, the pioneer peach grower of this county, and is one of the most beautiful locations on Chester river. It has passed into new hands more than once recently, having been sold in 1895 at public sale to Wm. B. Usilton for $12,434; Capt. C. R. Atkinson purchased it in 1900 for $15,000 and in about 1904 Mr. Wright, of California, paid $18,000 for it.

Dr. Robinson is the owner of an interest in a mine at Goldfield, Nevada where he struck it rich. He married Miss Jennie Vickers, daughter of H. W. Vickers, Esq. Mr. Wright will give possession Jan. '08, having advertised his stock at public sale in this issue.

NEW SUMMER RESORT.

Great Oak Manor Company Incorporated With $60,000 Capital—Lots To Be Sold And Wharf Built.

The rumor of a new resort in Kent on the Handy farm, heretofore mentioned in the NEWS, has taken form this week in the incorporation of Great Oak Manor Co. The officers are John M. Schwartz, of Shamokin, Pa., president; Arthur Gordon, secretary; Herbert B. Stimpson, attorney. Randolph Barton, of Baltimore, has been made trustee in the sale of bonds. The company is capitalized at $60,000 consisting of 600 bonds at $100 each bearing interest at 4 per cent.

Herbert B. Stimpson, Esq., of Baltimore, purchased this farm, the Luther Handy place, opposite Worton Manor Beach, on the Chesapeake Bay, at public sale for $9,000 and in turn sold it to John M. Schwartz, of Shamokin, Pa. The Manor Company resulted.

The tract consists of 300 acres of farm land, beautifully situated on the Bay, and is an ideal location for a summer resort. Mr. Schwartz is now on the farm superintending the laying out of building lots, streets, etc., and a force of Bohemian laborers will shortly be put to work grading the banks and making preparations for building a wharf at which boats between Baltimore and Philadelphia will stop.

Mr. Schwartz states that the company will erect a number of modern cottages which will be sold to and occupied by the wealthy families of Pennsylvania and New York who are seeking the quiet and beauty of a location such as Handy's Point affords. Several of the locations have already been sold, and as soon as the tract is divided all the lots will be sold and the work of erecting the cottages will begin.

Carroll Loller, who at present tenants the farm, has been employed to manage the farming and trucking feature, the vegetables to be used by the colony.

A "BOB-TAIL" TICKET

Kent County Republicans Nominate a Short Ticket—John D. Urie, Esq., Resumes Leadership—Considerable Bad Feeling.

The adjourned meeting of the Republican County Convention met in the Court House at Chestertown Monday, Hon. James H. Baker, presiding.

John D. Urie, Esq., who has permitted Messrs. Townshend, McMenamin and others to play with the Republican political baby in Kent for a few years, took it away from them as easily as does a nurse take a doll from a crying baby.

Yes, they cried a little, but it was done just the same and "they" will have to stand off now and see Mr. Urie show them how to work the machine, etc.

A motion was made by John D. Urie, Esq., that a committee of seven, one from each district, be appointed to confer and report upon the expediency of naming a full ticket at this time, and, if not to recommend what portion of the ticket should be filled. This motion was opposed by Sidney P. Townshend, Esq. Mr. D. B. McMenamin made a strong plea for the defeat of Mr. Urie's motion, and indeed his remarks were having considerable weight with his auditors until the "master hand" got to them and upon vote the motion was adopted by a decided majority and the committee's report recommended that only the legislative candidates and county commissioners be named at this time.

Mr. Townshend moved that the report of the committee be tabled, but his motion was lost and the convention proceeded to name candidates in accordance with the recommendation of the committee.

Mr. David B. McMenamin was put in nomination by Mr. Townshend and Mr. John C. Davis was nominated by Mr. Urie. A viva voca vote by precincts was called and Mr. Davis was named by a vote of 26½ to 8½.

Messrs. James A. Casey and Perry B. Rasin were nominated for House of Delegates without opposition.

Messrs. Lewin S. Price, of Millington, and W. H. Ford, of Golts, were placed in nomination for county commissioners from the first district. The former won by a large majority, the vote being the same as in the senatorship contest.

Capt. Daniel Hill was nominated for commissioner from the second district, but he decided that he preferred to stay off a "bob-tail" ticket and the place was left vacant. Mr. Thomas W. Trew was named for commissioner from the Seventh district without opposition.

Some one remarked that the convention run out of material for offices and therefore stopped where they did. We cannot agree with this view because there were several Republicans who were anxious for places and who are very sore and disappointed at the result. The Republicans left the following Democratic candidates without opposition:

State's Attorney—W. W. Beck.
Treasurer—Thos. Gale.
Sheriff—Daniel W. Haddaway.
Commissioner—Harry Davis.
Judges Orphan's Court—J. H. Simpers, J. P. Nicholson and W. S. Morris.
