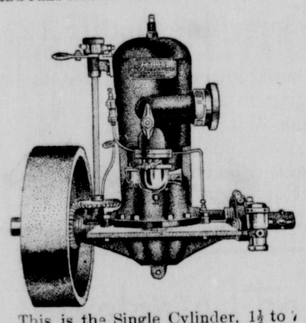
HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF THE

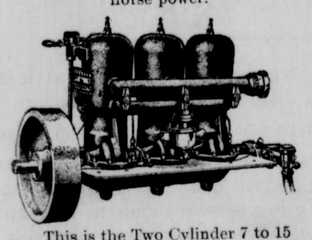
Ferro Engine?

Of course you have, but probably you have never seen it work. It works. Yes, it works over time—all the time. We are putting out a number of these machines and everyone is a wonder.

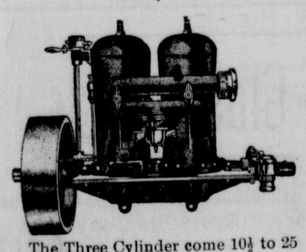
This machine oils itself automatically and runs like a clock.



This is the Single Cylinder, 1½ to 7 horse power.



This is the Two Cylinder 7 to 15 horse power.



The Three Cylinder come 10½ to 25 horse power.

This is the greatest motor yet produced. Come see it work. Get my prices. Installing done right here and all machines and work guaranteed for one year. Write for catalogue and prices.

AUTUMN WEDDINGS.

SMITH—FOXWELL.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized near Black's Station at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday when Miss Eva Foxwell Cooper, niece of Senator and Mrs. Garrett Foxwell, became the bride of Dr. Frank Wilmer Smith, a prominent young physician of Fairlee. The wedding was performed at the residence of Senator Foxwell by the Rev. John Henry Kuhlmann, pastor of M. E. Church, South, Chestertown. The bride and groom entered to the strains of Lohengrin played by Miss Lillian Speakman, of Smyrna. They were married under a beautiful arch of asparagus branches from which suspended a horse-shoe. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dark brown shadow striped Panama with brown hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. A wedding breakfast and reception was held immediately after the wedding which continued with much social pleasure until Dr. and Mrs. Smith left for a wedding trip which will be spent in the Blue Ridge Mountains. They will be "at home" after October 2nd at Fairlee, where the groom is pleasantly located and has a large and growing practice.

Those who attended the wedding included five of the bride's happy girl friends from Smyrna as follows: Mrs. Irma Lewis Malcomb, Miss Lillian Speakman, Miss Mary Hazel, Miss May York and Miss Edith Start; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith, Mrs. S. F. Smith, Mrs. Ollie Estes, Mr. and Mrs. John M. and G. Spencer Comegys, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, Mrs. A. C. Jarman, Mrs. Helen Comegys; Mr. Joshua Conner and wife, of Wilmington. The presents included several good size checks.

SHERWOOD—WOLFE.

The residence of the Rev. George Lewis Wolfe, Wilmington, was the scene of an attractive marriage Wednesday night at 8.30 o'clock when the marriage of his sister, Miss Frances Vinetha Wolfe and the Rev. William N. Sherwood, of Powelsville, Md., took place. One feature of the marriage which lent interest to the occasion, was the presence of numerous ministers.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. T. Tagg, assisted by Dr. J. M. Sheridan, of Baltimore, Dr. Wolfe, and the Rev. W. E. Stimmel, Wilmington.

The bride was attended by Miss Lillie A. Wolfe, of Baltimore, as bridesmaid, and the maids of honor were Miss Dorothy Wolfe, of Baltimore, and Miss Jane Dutton, of Wilmington. The Rev. William H. Micksell acted as groomsman. The ushers were William H. Edwards, Charles G. Ubil and Howard A. Zebley. Miss Elsie A. McGinney presided at the organ and played a medly of wedding marches, while the bridal party entered the parlor. Miss Aurelia Litzenberg sang "O Promise Me" before the ceremony. During the ceremony and while the bride and groom were receiving the congratulations of their friends, appropriate airs were softly played. The decorations in the parlors were green and white, while in the dining room the same color scheme prevailed.

The bride wore a gown of white silk batiste, prettily trimmed with lace and ribbon. She wore a tulle veil caught with forget-me-nots and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The gowns of the bride's attendants were all white. The bride carried a bouquet of white astors and the maids of honor bouquets were pink roses. Sprays of the same flowers ornamented their hair. Following the ceremony, which was gracefully celebrated with the assistacce of all the officiating ministers, congratulations were tendered by all the large assembly of friends. The Rev. and Mrs. Sherwood left on a wedding trip and afterward will go to their home in Powelsville, Md. Some of the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Matilda Sherwood, mother of the groom, Misses Katherine and Flora Wheatley, of Chestertown. Rev. Mr. Sherwood is a native of Chestertown, and received a number of presents from his friends here.

MELVIN—LANE.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas U. Melvin's, of Camden, N. J., on Saturday evening, September 17th, when their daughter, Emma, was given in marriage to Mr. Raymond C. Lane, of New York City, formally of Smyrna, Del. Miss Melvin was attended by her cousins, Miss B. McCulley, of Uril, Del., and Miss L. Melvin, of Lynch, Md. Mr. Lane was attended by his brothers, Mr. Bertrain Lane, of New York, and Mr. Victor Lane, of Smyrna, Del. Miss Maude Fay, of Philadelphia, played the wedding march.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas U. Melvin, of Camden, N. J.; Mrs. R. L. Warren, Mrs. R. R. Bowers, Mrs. L. B. McCulley, Mr. W. L. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. I. U. Bowers, Mr. L. M. Foster, Mr. U. F. Rolph, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Frederick Lane, of Smyrna, Del.; Miss Lillian Lane, of Wayne, Pa.; Mrs. J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, of Mt. Holly, N. J.; Miss Fanny Forth, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valcome, Misses Fanny, Bessie and Gertrude Valcome, Mr. Iran Lane, Mr. and Mrs. A. Goodwin, Mrs. L. C. Fay, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fay, Miss Ida Johnson and Miss Florence Revely, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Wirt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Earley, Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Closer and Miss Laura Behrens, of Camden, N. J.; Misses Nellie and Bessie Shaffer, of Blackbird, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane received some very useful as well as pretty gifts. After a short trip to Asbury Park, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Lane will reside in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Lane was a daughter of Mr. Thomas Wesley Melvin a former resident of Morgnec, Md.

BRAMBLE—ATKINSON.

On Wednesday morning, Sept. 18th, at 9.30 o'clock Salem M. E. Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding, the contracting parties were Thomas H. M. Bramble, and Miss Caroline I Adkinson, both of Fairlee. The church was beautifully and tastefully trimmed with goldenrod and asparagus. At the end of each bench were bunches of goldenrod and asparagus and the pulpit was trimmed with cedar. At the entrance to the church beautiful colored potted plants enriched the scene with their varied colors.

The bridal party marched between rows of goldenrod and asparagus. The ushers in advance, then the matron of honor and groomsman, followed by the bridal pair. Rev. James Taylor, of Fairlee, and Rev. Randall Lookabill, of Baltimore, performed the ceremony. Miss Laura Strong, of Baltimore, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, of Washington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Prof. J. L. Smith, of Chestertown, acted as best man. The ushers were J. Thomas Kendall, William G. Jump and Conlyn Nowland, of Fairlee, and Howard Helen, of Baltimore. The bride was dressed in white chiffon trimmed with Irish point and valenciennes lace and carried bouquet of bride roses. The matron of honor was dressed in white silk and carried a bouquet of pink asters and ferns. Bridal party left for the James town Exposition by way of Baltimore amid showers of rice and the well wishes of many friends.

On Tuesday evening a reception was given at the home of the bride. Many beautiful and useful presents were received.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

James M. Hyrons, a native of Kent, died in Wilmington Tuesday, aged 69, after a lingering illness. The interment took place Thursday in Chester cemetery, Rev. W. L. White officiating; J. E. Ferguson undertaker. The deceased leaves a widow and three daughters.

The funeral of the late Walter Lusby Nicholson was held Sunday afternoon in Christ church, the edifice being crowded with friends of the family. Dr. F. T. Little and Rev. G. A. Morris officiated while special music was rendered by the church choir lead by Miss Eva Hurlock. The floral offerings were lovely. The bearers were Charles F. Wheatley, Geo. White, Robert F. Gill, H. S. Cordray, Kemp Bordley, E. N. McMaster. Mr. C. L. Dodd directed the funeral arrangements.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Mrs. Julia Toulson, of near Crumpton. She was an earnest christian woman, who was much beloved by all her friends and neighbors. It is only about two months since the death of her only daughter, Mrs. James Jester, for whom she so deeply grieved. Though her illness was caused by typhoid fever, it may be truthfully said she died of a broken heart. She was buried beside her beloved daughter upon whose grave a choice bouquet of flowers was always seen, while the mother was able to place it there. She leaves a husband, son and two sisters to mourn her loss, and they have the sympathy of the whole community.

Mr. George W. Moffett a well-known resident of Kent County died at his home near Masseys, on Saturdry evening, August 24, 1907, after a lingering illness of several years, aged 80 years. He leaves a widow and six children to mourn his loss of a devoted husband and loving father, namely: Joseph H., Benjamin F. and George R. Moffett, Mrs. Jacob Crossley, Mrs. James F. Burris and Mrs. Geo T. Satterfield. Interment was made in Galena cemetery, J. L. Smith funeral director.

White, Dickerson, Md.; Samuel Rowland White, Jr., Galloways, Md.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Herbert E. Lusby's fine driving mare fell and broke her fore leg one day this week.

Easton Fair drew many Kent horsemen this week. The officials of the course were J. T. Couglar, of Baltimore, as starter. J. W. Walls, of Millington, George Jones, of Kennedyville, and Edward S. Roe, of Cordova, judges. Dr. S. S. Stone, of Ridgely; William E. Denny, of Stevensville, and T. M. Jenkins, of Trappe, timers.

The 2.35 trot for Peninsula horses had seven starters. It was a race for blood, requiring five heats. The first two were won by Margaret B., after which she tired. Perhaps then won three heats, pushed in each by Jim Russell.

Four started in the 2.30 pace. It was won in straight heats by Moffett's bay gelding Black Spider. The summary:

2.35 trot; Peninsula horses; purse $200.

Perhaps, s. g. (Nottingham)	3	5	1	1	1
Margaret D., b. m. (Tarbutton)	1	1	3	5	4

Crow, blk. g. (Johnson)	3	2	2
Bonnie Lassie, s. m. (Bell)	2	4	3
Nellie S., ch. m. (Gale)	4	3	4

Time, 2.24¼, 2.19¼, 2.23.

In the 2.22 trot, purse $400, five horses started. The Brewer sold in the pools for $3, against the field for $3, but failed to do better than take third money. West Morrell won in straight heats, but it was one of the prettiest races ever seen at Idlewhile Park, as in no heat was he more than a neck ahead of the second horse. A considerable sum of money changed hands on the first heat.

The last race was the free-for-all for Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne's and Caroline county horses, purse $150. Although only three horses started, it was watched with the greatest interest by residents of Cambridge and Denton, where the horses were owned. Elsie G. was a hot favorite at $5 to $3, but Sly Russell, after a hard fight, won in straight heats.

2.40 pace; Peninsula horses; purse $200.
