DEATH'S DOINGS.

MRS. MARY E. RYLAND.

Crumpton M. P. Church is again bereft of a noble sister. Mrs. Mary E. Ryland, the widow of Mr. Ashbury Ryland, fell asleep in Jesus on September 10th, 1907. She had been a great sufferer for five or six years, most of the time confined to her chair, but during this time she was patient and submissive, expressing herself however frequently as having a desire to be able to be in attendance at her church which she loved so dearly. She had been a member of the Methodist Protestant Church from her youth and we are informed was always ready to do her part. I have never known a person more highly spoken of by everybody and 'a good name is rather to be chosen than great riches'. She leaves three sisters, one brother, four children and three grand-children to mourn her loss, but we rejoice to believe that their loss is her eternal gain. Her children lovingly cared for her in her affliction, and she was nursed like an infant by her entire family. The daughter-in-law as well as the children and grand-children always being on the watch for an opportunity to administer to her comfort, and while she was not allowed to go in and out among us recently we shall miss her as a loving Christian and nieghbor and especially as a mother in the home. Funeral services were held in her home by her pastor, Rev. J. C. Burdette, assisted by Rev. Janney, of the M. E. Church. Interment in Crumpton Cemetery.

BLANCHARD EMORY.

Mr. Blanchard Emory, one of the most prominent and best-known business men of Queen Anne's county, died at his home on Chesterfield avenue, Centreville, Saturday night. Death was due to Bright's disease, abetted by a complication of other ailments. Mr. Emory was born on March 4, 1855, near Centreville.

From 1891 to 1895 he held the office of justice of the peace. In March of the latter year he was appointed postmaster of Centreville for a term of four years. He had been agent for the Adams Express Company since July 7, 1877. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and was an Episcopalian. On May 7, 1879, Mr. Emory married Miss Mary Kerr. The surviving sons are Alan G., of Wilmington; Edward B. and Blanchard Emory 3d, of Centreville.

The infant child of Rev. Mr. Hooker and wife, died in Kennedyville early Saturday morning. The remains were carried to Baltimore for interment.

Ginger In Washington College.

Football practice at Washington College began Tuesday at Washington field. Thirty candidates reported to Captain White. Nearly all of last year's team have returned and Wilson, quarterback of the 1905 team, is also back in the game. The candidates were put through the usual preliminary practice of falling on the ball, passing and practicing starts, after which the squad was sent around the track.

Although the material is light the coach feels positive that Washington will be well represented on the gridiron this year. Following is the schedule as arranged by manager Bordley:

October 5—Rock Hill College, at Chestertown.
October 11—Wilmington Conference Academy, at Dover.
October 19—Baltimore Medical College, at Chestertown.
October 26—Western Maryland College, at Westminster.
November 2—St. John's College, at Annapolis.
November 9—Maryland Agricultural College, at Chestertown.
November 16—University of Maryland, at Chestertown.
November 23—Baltimore University, at Chestertown.
November 30—Gallaudet College, at Chestertown.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Miss May Green, of Holmesburg, Pa., has been visiting friends in town this week.

Mr. Robert Barnes and family, of Queen Annes Station, are guests of Mr. John Barnes.

Mrs. Rose Walls and Carter are visiting relatives at Greensboro.

Mr. George Davis is giving Mr. John Smith's house a new coat of paint which will greatly improve it in appearance.

Miss Vic and Miss Helen Power are visiting friends in Philadelphia and New York City.

Mrs. Young, of Franklin City, Va., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Taylor.

Mr. Ralph Coursey and family, of Milton, Del., spent a few days last week at Mr. John Gillespie's.

Mr. Paul Comegys is to be congratulated upon an addition to his family in the form of a fine son.

We are sorry to note the death of Mr. Jonah K. Spayd at Lebanon, Pa., one day last week. Mr. Spayd spent his summers on his farm near town and was a familiar figure among us. He had reached an advanced age and this past summer his feebleness was commented on by all who saw him.

Miss Sue Wilson, of Wilmington, Del., was a guest at the parsonage last Saturday and Sunday.

We are glad to state that Miss Ruth Price and Master Kennard Bailey, who have been very sick for some time past are improving.

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then take it—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine.

This is the first question your doctor would ask: "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that daily action of the bowels is absolutely essential to recovery. Keep your liver active and your bowels regular by taking laxative doses of Ayer's Pills.
