Misses Eva Parsons, Della Price and George Copper spent a part of last week in Baltimore.

Mr. J. A. Merritt left Saturday for Morgantown, W. Va., where he has a position in the civil engineering department of the B. & O. railroad.

Miss Ella Fowler, of Worton, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Chalfant, of Philadelphia, for the past two weeks.

Mr. Harry Graham was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason by Chester Lodge Wednesday night.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ivens on High street this week and left a little girl.

Hon. Thomas A. Smith was in Chestertown this week on business.

Approaching Marriage. — Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Conner to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rhoda Morrison Conner to Charles Garfield Watts, on the evening of Wednesday, October 16, at 7.30 o'clock at Grace M. E. Church, Wilmington. The bride will be given in marriage by her father and will be attended by her sister, Miss Alice Conner, as maid of honor. The other maids are to be Miss Nettie Bickley, of Philadelphia; Miss Elizabeth Schofield Price, Miss Helen Palmatory, Miss Viola Frederick, Miss Eleanor Austin and Miss Mina F. Palmer. The flower girls will be little Misses Marian Spruance and Eleanor Taylor. Thomas Massey, of Chestertown, Md., will act as best man, and the ushers will be Darlington Flinn, Leroy Palmatory, Everett Brinton, N. S. Eckman, J. Christy Conner and William Baxter, of Philadelphia. Miss Conner is being entertained at numerous dinners and luncheons. Among the large affairs arranged in her honor was a dinner on last Saturday, when Miss Elizabeth Price acted as hostess. Miss Viola Frederick will give a luncheon to the wedding party on Monday. Miss Austin will entertain at a dinner on Saturday, and Mrs. J. Harvey Spruance will be hostess at another dinner on Thursday.—Morning News.

DU HANELL—BROGAN.

At Asbury M. E. Church, Wilmington, at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening, the marriage of Charles C. Brogan, of Philadelphia, formerly of Cecil county, Md., and Miss Elsie Duhanell, of Earleville, Cecil county, took place. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. H. A. G. Westerfield. The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit. Miss Du Hanell was a former Sunday School teacher in Mr. Westerfield's church, and was also a teacher in the North East High School. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Brogan left on a wedding trip. They will live at No. 843 North Forty-first street, Philadelphia.

Don'r forget the Democratic mass meeting next Wednesday.

Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Zenker, formerly of Kent, announce the marriage of their daughter, Katie E., to Mr. Samuel H. McKnett, formerly of Kent, on Wednesday, October 9th, 1907, at Easton, Pa.

CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday was "Rally Day" at Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. In the morning Dr. Little administered Holy Communion to a large membership; in the afternoon a special program was presented in the Sunday school, a feature of which was the distribution of beautiful souvenir cards. The Song Service at 6.45 was in charge of Mrs. C. J. Reiche and Miss Fannie Baker, superintendents of the Junior C. E. Society. Dr. Little preached a strong sermon at night on "The Border Line."

Rev. W. P. Compton, member of Wilmington Conference and pastor of Nassau M. E. Circuit, is suffering, as a result of overwork, from nervous prostration. On Sunday he went to the State Hospital at Farnhurst for treatment and the indicatations are that he will be restored to his work and his family.

WASH. COLLEGE 16; ROCK HILL 0.

The football season of Washington College began Saturday with a game against Rock Hill College. Rock Hill kicked off to Washington, who, after successive line plunges and an end run by Wilson, scored a touchdown. Washington scored another touchdown in this half on a long end run by Butler and a line plunge by Johnson.

In the second half Washington again scored a touchdown. Owing to the lateness of the Rock Hill team in arriving, darkness prevented any fast playing in this half. The game ended with the 16 to 0 in favor of Washington. Referee, Merritt; umpire, Wood; linemen—Hitch, Washington College; Carliss, Rock Hill. Time of halves, 15 minutes. It looks as if Washington College had a successful season ahead of them. Coach Thompson is the man for the place and puts lots of ginger into the game. Washington and Dover Conference Academy played yesterday at Dover.

Miss Lillian Frazier, of Baltimore, is the guest of her brother, Mr. John Frazier, for a few days.

Mrs. J. M. Watkins, of Baltimore, spent a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. E. H. Strong, Greys Inn Point.

Mrs. W. V. Harris is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Leon Arders, of Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Charles H. Ashley and son Stewart, are the guests of Mrs. Tracy Johnson, of Baltimore.

My Hair Ran Away

Don't have a falling out with your hair. It might leave you! Then what? That would mean thin, scraggly, uneven, rough hair. Keep your hair at home! Fasten it tightly to your scalp! You can easily do it with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is something more than a simple hair dressing. It is a hair medicine, a hair tonic, a hair food.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."
