One we loved has died and left us
For the dark and silent tomb
Closed his eyes in his sleeping slumber,
Faded in his early bloom.
He did not sink by slow decay,
Like one who lives the longest;
But every tie was wrenched away
Just when those ties were strongest.
Mother, when father is weeping
And says, "Where has Willie gone?"
Tell him I am sweetly sleeping
At the Saviour's holy throne.
Father, when mother is crying,
Dry the tear drops from her eyes;
Tell her there is peace in Heaven,
Where love and friendship never dies.
Mother, do not weep for me,
Though you've toiled and bended with care;
Happy you and I will be
When we meet one another there.
BY FATHER AND MOTHER.

Oh, our home is sad and lonely,
Sad hearts gather here today;
For its loverlight and its blessing
Has forever passed away.
He passed away like a summer's breeze
With scarce a parting sigh;
He passed away from this dark world
To dwell with Christ on high.
Dear Willie, you are not dead to us;
But, as a bright star unseen,
We hold that you are ever near,
Though death intrudes between.
BY HIS SISTERS.
