VOL. 69. CHESTERTOWN MD., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1907. NO. 22

What's the Reason?

The fall season has opened up with us with a very decided increased activity over all former season's selling.

We are not a proud stuck up store, but we can't help but think that our merchandise is a little superior to the average one, hence the season for us capturing so many new customers (holding on to our old ones) and resulting into an increased volumn of trade.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

We think our Suits fit a little better—we think our prices are a little lower, consistent with high-grade merchandise. We think our goods are a little better and more carefully bought. We think you can get a little better all round treatment here than you will be accorded elsewhere.

We think if you will visit our store and take a look through our stock of Suits for Man and Boy, that we will be able to register you up as another, added to our list of new customers this season.

Our Hat, Underwear, Gloves and Hosiery Departments are always at the highest standard of excellence. You are always welcome at our store.

J. D. LUCAS.

NOT TO WIDEN DRAW.

At a meeting called by Col. Hoxie, United States Engineer, it was decided not to widen draw in the bridge over the Chester river at Chestertown. This important matter has been agitated by citizens of both the upper part of Kent and Queen Anne's and it was thought the steamboat company would stand by them. However, at the hearing Col. Thompson would not insist on widening the draw, so the engineer decided not to insist on any changes. The Kent county commissioners were represented by Lewin W. Wickes, Esq.

BRIDE-ELECT CHANGES MIND.

Miss Hines And Mr. Cockey Wedded A Day Earlier Than Expected.

Miss Eliza Burton Hines, a niece of the late Jesse K. Hines, who was a prominent Maryland Democrat, was married Friday to Mr. Alexander Cockey.

The wedding had been set for Saturday, but the bride changed her mind and the ceremony was performed Friday. Miss Hines was given away by her uncle, Marion de Kalb Smith, former Comptroller of Maryland and a leading resident of Kent county, Maryland. The bride wore a tailor-made traveling suit of dark blue cheviot, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a bouquet of violets.

The best man was Mr. De Val Cockey, a son of the groom by a previous marriage. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hines, of Chestertown.

After an extended tour of the North Mr. and Mrs. Cockey will make their home at the Walbert Apartments.—Sun.

Hotel Rented.—The Imperial Hotel which has been so well managed by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burchinal has been rented by Mr. Joseph R. Lambert, who will take charge Jan. 1, 1908. Mr. Lambert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lambert. He will have a competent lady assistant from Baltimore.

Dr. J. W. HERING leads his ticket with a majority of 12,935. He is surely a vote getter.

EX-GOV. SMITH received a majority of 9,175 in the State over both of his opponents. His pluralities were 17,338, Warfield's pluralties, 2,510; Talbott's pluralities, 5,653.

"The Eastern Sho' seems to be going some."—Evening News.

Not only going, but gone. And why shouldn't she, when she gets a United States Senator and a Governor?

THE COUNTIES AHEAD.

Baltimore City gave Judge Crothers 4,341 majority and the counties gave 5,028 majority. Good for the city but better for the counties!

PATRIOTIC.

Daniel W. Hadaway, our Democratic sheriff-elect without opposition, says he did his best for the ticket and that if it had been defeated he would have resigned. Such patriotism would be rare indeed.

"I TOLD YOU SO!"

The Republican organ made one correct prediction in issue of Sept. 18, 1907. It was as follows:

"The 'bob-tail' ticket has put the opposition to guessing; and it is just possible that a 'tale' of woe may follow later."

It happened just as stated and no one knows it better than our competitor.

THE bridge at Brown & Morris' mill, near St. Paul's Church, was washed away this week.

OUR hearty congratulations to J. FRANK HARPER, senator-elect in Queen Anne's.

THIS Judicial Circuit gave 1766 Democratic majority.

HURRAH FOR QUEEN ANNE'S.

The Democrats of good old Queen Anne's came out of the late fiery ordeal like pure gold shorn of the dross. A grand victory for the regulars is the result:

Crothers	529	Legislature	202
Hering	520	Reg. Wills	152
Straus	570
Magruder	546	Co. Commissioners.
Adkins	594	1st district	167
Hopper	615	2nd district	148
Sheriff	322	3rd district	157
Surveyor	210	4th district	143
Or. Court	214, 185, 191	5th district	177
Harper, Sen	251	6th district	76
Co. Treasurer	193	7th district	172

These figures show that the "Independents" were still true to the "old flag" on the State and judicial tickets.

Mr. Charles Kirby has removed his stock from the uptown store to next door to Smith & Graham. Mr. James Allen has rented the store vacated by Mr. Kirby.
