When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds, and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Sold by all druggists.

Millions of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar have been sold without any person ever having experienced any other than beneficial results from its use for coughs, colds, and lung troubles. ORIGIN OF COUNTY NAMES.

It has been customary in enumerating the counties of the State to arrange them according to the dates of their erection, and this arrangement is the most familiar on account of its coustant use in legislative roll-calls. The origin of the names of the counties, together with the dates of their formation and their areas, are as follows:

St. Mary's in honor of the Virgin Mary, the landing having been made on the Feast of the Annunciation; in 1637; 269.1 square miles.

Kent—After the English county; in 1642; 281.0 square miles.

Anne Arundel—After the Lady Anne Arundel, wife of Cecilius, second Lord Baltimore; in 1650; 430.4 square miles.

Calvert—After the family name of the Proprietary; in 1654; 216.8 square miles.

Charles—After Charles, Lord Baltimore; in 1658; 462 square miles.

Baltimore—From the Proprietary's Irish Barony (Celtic "bite mor,") i. e., the large town; in 1659; 646.8 square miles.

Talbot—After Grace Talbot, daughter of George, first Lord Baltimore; in 1661; 267.1 square miles.

Somerset—After Mary Somerset, sister of Lord Baltimore; in 1666; 328.6 square miles.

Dorchester—After Earle Dorset, a family friend of the Calverts; in 1668; 573.2 square miles.

Cecil—After the forename of the second Lord Baltimore; in 1674; 374.6 square miles.

Prince George's—After Prince George of Denmark; in 1695; 479.6 square miles.

Queen Anne's—After Queen Anne of England; in 1706; 363.4 square miles.

Worcester—After the Earl of Worcester; in 1742; 491.5 square miles.

Frederick—After Frederick, heir apparent; in 1748; 660 square miles.

Harford—After Henry Harford, last Proprietary; in 1773; 493.8 square miles.

Caroline—After Lady Calvert, sister of Lord Baltimore; in 1773; 317.4 square miles.

Washington—After General Washington; in 1786; 457.3 square miles.

Montgomery—After General Montgomery; in 1786; 517.6 square miles.

Allegany—From Oolikhanna, i. e., beautiful stream; in 1789; 440.5 square miles.

Carroll—After Charles Carroll, of Carrollton; in 1836; 441.3 square miles.

Howard—After Col. J. Eager Howard, the elder; in 1851; 249.1 square miles.

Wicomico—After the river of that name, from wiko (house) and mekee (building); i. e., referring to an Indian town on the banks; in 1867; 368.9 square miles.

Garrett—After John W. Garrett; in 1872; 681 square miles.

STIRRED BY LOCAL OPTION.

State Aroused By Statements Of Governor-Elect and Mayor Mahool—Some Varying Views.

With Governor-elect Crothers intimating that local option is a desirable thing for the counties and Mayor Mahool saying that each ward of the city, and possibly each precinct, should be allowed to settle the question for itself, the local option question in Maryland comes to the front more urgently than it ever has in the past.

The reported interviews with Judge Crothers and Mr. Mahool have caused much comment. People are talking of the South's attitude on this subject, where one State after another seems to be lining up for prohibition, are asking themselves what Maryland is going to do.

The specific question before the people of Maryland at this time is the "home-rule" bill prepared by the Anti-Saloon League, which will be presented to the Legislature which meets in January. That bill provides that whenever 25 per cent. of the voters of any community in the State sign a petition asking that the sense of the voters be taken on the question of liquor selling in that community an election must be held and the result abided by.

So far as the sentiment throughout the State can be judged, a majority of the people favor the passage of such a bill for the counties. Ten or 12 counties have local-option laws at present, and in nearly all the others the sale of liquor is restricted in some way or other. Local-option advocates are to be found among men of all parties.

PASSED AS MAN FOR 60 YEARS.

Miss Catharine Vosbaugh, who for nearly 60 years passed as a man, died at a hospital today. She was born in France 83 years ago. When a young woman she found it difficult to make her way on account of her sex. Adopting man's clothing, she obtained employment as a bookkeeper in Joplin, Mo. This position she held for nine years, and then accepted a position in a St. Joseph (Mo.) bank.

While in St. Joseph she married a woman, with whom she lived for 30 years, as Charles Vosbaugh. The two women, as man and wife, came to Trinidad two years ago.

After the death of the "wife" Miss Vosbaugh worked in various capacities until she became so feeble that last year she was taken to a hospital. It was then that her sex was discovered.

But even after her recovery she refused to change her clothing, and continued to wear her masculine habilments to the end.
