All our Tomato Seeds are saved from the choicest fruits in our fields. We grow enormous quantities of Tomatoes exclusively for seed and never market any of our crops. Experienced tomato growers know why we never permit an ounce of canning house tomato seed to come into our store. It is impossible for such seed to be pure and true to name. We have had very short crops of our High Grade Tomato Seeds this season, so send us your orders early.

WEDDING BELLS.

MASSEY—STRONG.

A lovely home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Strong, near Edesville. Their daughter, Mary Hoffman Strong, became the bride of Mr. Paul C. Massey among surroundings that were indeed beautiful and inspiring. The house was decorated for the occasion with evergreens, holly and mistletoe. The bride entered the parlors upon the arm of her father, Mr. Edgar H. Strong, who gave her in marriage to the man of her choice. She was attired in a handsome traveling suit of brown chiffon broad cloth with hat and gloves to match, carrying bride's roses, and looked as charming as a picture. Miss Hattie Strong, sister of the bride was bride's maid and looked enchanting in a lovely dress of white organdie trimmed with valencienne lace. Mr. Spencer Biddle was the groom's best man. The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Miss Blanche DeFord. The ceremony was performed by Father Hevey, of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Chestertown. The happy bride and groom left on the B. S. Ford for a Southern trip amid the good wishes of a host of friends. A splendid wedding breakfast was served at the hospitable home of the bride's parents which was partaken of by the bride and groom and wedding guests. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Massey will take up their home on the Westcott farm, on Chester river, Quaker Neck and will be at home to callers after February 1st.

KIRBY—DOWLING.

There was a pretty wedding at St. Benedict's Church, Wilkins Avenue and Millington Lane, Tuesday afternoon, January 14th, 1908, when John L. Kirby, of 2407 W. Lombard Street, and Bertha M. GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice Celebrate 50th Anniversary of Happy Wedded Life—Not a Break in Family of Six Children and Twelve Grand Children.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brice celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Monday night at their elegant home on Washington avenue. The event was unusual and remarkable in many ways, but especially in the fact that not a break has occurred in this family circle for fifty years. Here within the shelter of the homestead was gathered Mr. and Mrs. Brice, their six children and twelve grandchildren, not a ripple of any kind disturbing the sweetness and happiness of harmonious relations in every walk of life.

Fifty years of wedded life! How few couples have lived to celebrate this golden anniversary? How few families have lived even twenty-five years without a visit from the death angel, and yet here is a family fifty years old without a break in the circle!

Mr. James Brice was the son of Wm. A. Brice and was born August 28, 1833, on the old Brice farm near Sassafras. He first attended the public school at Sassafras, but when 18 years of age, he was sent to live with Dr. Crane, his grandfather, at Church Hill, where he attended the academy. Mr. Brice has a letter written by his father while away from home at this academy in which the following advice is given: "Attend strictly to your studies, and be sure to keep an eye single to the glory of God in all you say or do, and pay strict attention to what your grandpa says to you, and obey him and your grandma."

After he left this school, Mr. Brice took up medicine, but soon let it drop and started teaching in school on road between Church Hill and Ingleside. In 1854 he went to farming below Church Hill and on Jan. 12th, 1858, he was married to Miss Kate Wilmer, at "Land's End" farm by Rev. H. P. Jordon, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church. Mrs. Brice is the daughter of the late Col. Wm. Henry Wilmer who lived on the farm opposite "Riverside. She has one sister, Mrs. Sutliff, of Baltimore, and a brother, Wm. H. Wilmer, of Philadelphia.

On January 1st, 1862, Mr. and Mrs. Brice removed to the Mansfield house in Chestertown opposite Barnett's brick yard and Mr. Brice began butchering. During the summer he occupied a stall in the Market House and during the winter he rented various quarters. He retired in 1885 after a successful but arduous business life. He is too industrious to be idle and since 1885 has been active in attending to his farms, selling fertilizers and looking after his church affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Brice are members of the Chestertown M. E. Church, faithful, loyal and liberal in all that pertains to its success. They are among the county's best citizens and we join with their friends in laying at their feet our congratulations and best wishes.

The receiving party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Brice, and their children, Mrs. H. W. Brice, Mrs. Wm. A. and Mrs. J. H. Brice, and Mrs. W. L. White. The family are as follows: Mrs. C. W. Watkins and five children; Wm. A. and Jas. H. Brice, one daughter each, all of Baltimore; Harry W. Brice, one daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Moore, two children, o Philadelphia; Mrs. G. Hines Thomas, three children, of Berlin.

The dining parlors were presided over by Mrs Marion deKalb Smith, Mrs. J. T. Twilley, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Misses Anne B. Smith, Nannie Brice, Katie Little, Nellie Nicholson and others. The colors were pink, roses of this color being elaborately placed in parlors while ribbons and potted plants made up the remainder of the decorations.

Among the elegant presents were gold dollars, pins, cuff buttons, brooches, candelabras, dishes and three handsome large leather chairs. One of the grandchildren received a letter stating that all grandpa wanted was a jew's harp, and taking him at his word, presented Mr. Brice with a gilded harp?

Live Local Notes.

Sale of Property.—Mr. Alex. Gray has sold to Mr. Pleasanton, superintendent of Chester cemetery, the house in which Mr. P. lives. Price is said to be $700.

Letters Lost.—The passenger train due to pass Townsend at about 4.35 o'clock and which is not scheduled to stop, ran over a mail pouch containing a great quantity of letters and other mail matter Thursday afternoon. There was a great scattering of the contents, some of the letters being found about a mile and a half south of Townsend, shortly afterward. It was for towns along the Queen Anne and Kent railroad, also for towns along the railroad leading to Chestertown but it is safe to say that much of the mail will never be delivered as it was lost.

To Build New Home.—Mr. T. G. Wroth on Monday sold a fine building lot adjoining his home on Water street, to Mrs. Annie Physick, who will build a home upon it. As exclusively noted in the NEWS two weeks ago Mrs. Physick has sold her present home on Princess St. to Mr. H. F. Jefferson, Mr. Jefferson will move into his new home in a few weeks and Mrs. Physick will make her home with Dr. H. B. Martin until she can erect a new house. The Washington Avenue house now occupied by Mr. Jefferson will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Newman, of Chestertown.

Sale of Mules.—J. B. Richardson and his uncle, Mr. White, sold a fine lot of mules at Whiteley's stables, Chestertown on Tuesday. Auctioneer Hurlock did the selling and John D. Urie, Esq., took the notes. The sales of pairs were as follows:

John Clendaniel	$235.00
" "	190.00
Robert Morgan	247.50
E. S. Graham	290.00
Robert Kennedy	177.50
Walter H. Clayton	250.00
Henry Brown	215.00
Gove Everett, single	140.00
W. H. Hopkins, single	115.00
S. G. Caldwell, single	95.00
John Hurley	297.50
John Hurley	270.00
John Hurley, mare	80.00
Jesse Dixon, mare	82.00
Jesse Dixon, mare	90.00
Jesse Dixon, 2 year old colt	66.00
Charles McKee, mare	89.00

School Notes.—Miss Nellie Walters has been assisting Prof. Melvin in his office during the absence of his efficient helper, Miss Annie Copper.

At a recent meeting of the State Board, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, the able assistant principal at Galena was awarded a life certificate. This entitles the holder to teach anywhere in the State of Maryland.

Miss Bessie Wheatley is confined to her home by sickness.

Miss Helen Link, formerly of Kent, has been appointed principal of School 5, District 1, near Woodlawn. She will take the place of Mr. Samuel R. Fox, who has been appointed principal of the Foreston school.

Mysterious Disappearance.—Mr. George Byron, keeper of Chester river bridge, lost a boat and net recently in a most mysterious manner. The boat in question, with the net on the stern, was left fastened to the bridge and during the high wind some nights ago she broke loose and drifted up the river with the flood tide. The next morning she was seen drifting back with the ebb tide, and was watched by some parties standing on the bridge until it reached that structure, but strange to relate it has never been seen since. Mr. Byron has dragged the river for a considerable distance on each side of the bridge without finding any trace of the craft, and has finally given it up as one of the "mysteries of the deep." The loss will be at least $25.00 with no insurance, and in these strenuous times the blow has hit "George" very near the solar plexus.

Labor Scarce.—The following advertisement has been sent to the NEWS by a well-known farmer in Worton

Wanted.—A man to plow. Will furnish riding plow with canopy top. I will feed, harness and unhitch horses and carry breakfast to him in bed. If the water doesn't agree with him, will get some from Chestertown that will. Will also furnish him team and buggy to drive evenings and Sundays. Should he prefer an automobile, will buy him one.

If this offer should not bring the desired result, the farmer might promise o remember the man in his will, furnish pin money and free access to the village store, deed him a part of his farm, or give him his daughter in marriage. This combination ought to be tempting enough to make even a hobo hustle.

School Report.—Superintendent M. Bates Stephens will accept our thanks for a copy of his 41st Annual report of the State Board of Education. The report in reference to this county shows that the total enrollment for the year in the white schools was 2845; average attendance for the year was 1954; average teachers' salary $327.13; 67 schools; 15 male teachers and 89 female teachers; cost per capita $14.77. The report in dealing with the colored schools gives the total enrollment for the year 1166; average attendance for the year 760; [illegible] schools; 7 male and 16 female teachers. In Queen Anne's the enrollment is [illegible] attendance 1442; salaries, average [illegible] colored enrolment 1166; attendance [illegible]

DON'T forget the Concert in the [illegible] next Tuesday.
