Now Come

And come with a rush if yon want to get some of the good things we are offering in

Suits and Overcoats Men, Boys and Children of all description.

Our line of Men's Suits and Overcoats are quite varied and complete. But don't wait, as they will soon go at the reduced prices we are offering them.

The assortment of Boys' and Children's not quite so large as our sales have far exceeded any previous season on children's wear, yet there is plenty to find a good selection if you come early.

Uuderwear, Gloves Seperate Trousers and all heavy stuffs must get out of the way and in order to hurry it out we have marked it accordingly.

All our goods are marked in plain figures and marked at prices they honestly should be sold for. You know what to infer from this. In other words — the discounts we give you from these marked prices — ARE DISCOUNTS. Draw your own conclusions.

DIRECTLY OPP. COURT HOUSE

Chestertown, - - Maryland

PERSONAL TIDINGS.

Mr. J. Cordray Loud arrived home from Wilmington Monday and reports his son as convalescent. He says there are few families in that city free of some kind of ailment and that he was sick nearly the whole time he was up there.

Mr. J. E. C. Biddle, a former Kent countian, now living in Wilmington, writes "hurrah for Judge Gray for next Democratic President."

Mr. and Mrs. William Newnam arrived from their wedding tour last week and are occupying a suite of rooms at the Voshell House. They will remove to Washington Avenue in the Spring.

Mrs. James L. Beck entertained a large company Tuesday evening at her hospitable home near Tolchester. Cards was the feature of the evening's entertainment. A splendid supper of good things prepared by the best of cooks was served.

Mr. Joseph Parsons, of Middletown, was the guest of friends in town this week. He was in fine health.

Mr. W. R. Pippin has resigned as local agent for the Baltimore Life Insurance Co., and Mr. R. Snowden Thomas will likely take his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. McFeely, who have been boarding in Chestertown since relinquishing the position of matron of Washington College, expect to remove next week to Mt. Vernon, New York. Mr. M. is one of our old and most respected citizens and our community generally will regret the removal of such an estimable pair as Mr. and Mrs. McFeely.

Mr. Howard Dodd cut the end of one of his fingers off last Saturday while at work in Culp's factory. Howard has just recovered from an abscess on his jaw and thinks he has had his share of ailments for 1908.

Mrs. Arthur Bradley was removed to Baltimore City hospital Monday. Her physician thinks she will recover in a few weeks.

Mr. Simeon Van T. Jester, of Swarthmore College, has been visiting relatives and friends in town.

Capt. James W. Coleman has been quite sick this week at the home of his daughter on Queen street.

Mrs. Benana Russell, accompanied by her son, Mr. J. W. Russell and daughter, Mrs. A. M. Culp, went to Baltimore Monday and consulted a specialist for nervous trouble. Mrs. R. has been a great sufferer and her friends will be glad to learn that the indications are bright for relief.

Mr. Royce K. Bartlett, of Wilmington, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. Harry Anthony.

Prof. J. T. Bruehl, wife and little son; Miss Corrienne Troy and Mr. O'Neill, of Centreville, were guests over Sunday of Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk T. Bramble, of Baltimore, are spending a few days with their parents in town.

Mrs. Jennie Moody and Mr. Jacob F. Thompson are quite sick with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Taylor, of Oak Hall, Va., are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Fred H. Russell, on Washington avenue.

Mrs. John F. Howard has been confined to her home with the grip.

Mr. John E. Barnes, of the NEWS, has been a victim of the grip.

Mr J. W. Elliott is quite sick at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. A. Ivens.

Mr. William M. Culp the efficient railroad agent at Chestertown, is enjoying a well earned vacation. He is visiting his brother at Barberton, Ohio.

Mr. Robert C. Morgan visited his old friends at Fairlee on Tuesday.

Miss Mary E. Jewell, of near St. Paul's and Miss Mamie Miller, of Rock Hall, are guests of Mrs. Price Stanley, Delaware City. Miss Miller leaves today to visit friends and relatives in Philadelphia and Camden.

Mrs. Austin, of Baltimore, has rented the Edwards store-room on High street and will remove here at once.

The following wedding was reported from Washington on Wednesday: James R. Lyon, aged 21, of Benedict, Md., and Miss Mary E. Rogers, 21, of Chestertown Md. Minister, Rev. Thomas O. Crouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Stein. of Wilmington, are guests at the Loud House. Mr. Stein is substituting for Mr. W. M. Culp while he is on his vacation.

Mr. T. W. Eliason has been confined to his home for several days this week by sickness, but was able to be out yesterday.

Mr. Alexander Grey, of Baltimore, visited friends in Kent this week. Mr. Grey is doing well in the real estate business.

Mr. Frank Willis has rejoined the Salvation Army and is now in Wisconsin. His wife and four children now living on Princess street will join Mr. Willis in a few weeks. Mrs. Willis is an English lady and formerly belonged to the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hughes are visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Etta Rayner has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. J. Vannort, this week.

Challenge Accepted.—The Caroline Sun says: "Rufus Roach and Wilmer Steele, of Rehoboth, claim to be the champion buckwheat cake eaters of the State. They issue a challenge to any one on the peninsula to beat their record of 27 and 20 respectively. The cakes eaten in the contest were as large as dinner plates and two pounds of butter were used on them."

Chestertown has a family of three that can give Mr. Roach or Mr. Steele a start of ten cakes and then beat him.

Further, Kent has a resident who at a meal eats two pounds of beefsteak and a stew of oysters! The steak was sold by a Chestertown butcher.

THE SAD REAPER

MRS. MARY JANE STOUFER.

Mrs. Mary Jane Stoufer, widow of Bunkus P. Stoufer, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Crouch in Piney Neck, on Friday, Jan. 10th, aged 83. She was only sick for three days and died of the infirmatives of old age. She leaves five children, viz.: Wm. T,, Mollie S. Crouch, John A. R., J. A. and Jos. P. Stoufer, of Baltimore. Funeral was held Sunday afternoon from her daughter's home, interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. Mr. Harris officiating; Casey Bros. undertakers. The bearers were: Capt. Wm. Crouch, T. R. Strong, Wm. Coleman, Wm. Burgess, Vachel Burgess and J. A. Robinson.

MRS. NORA B. BLOUNT.

Mrs. Nora B. Blount died in Wilmington, Del., at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning of last week, aged 67 years. Mrs. Blount was a Miss Willson, of Kent county, but spent most of her life after her marriage to the late Charles Blount, in Queen Anne's county. She closed her profession at a school near Rock Hall, Kent county. She then made her home with her only daughter, Mrs. Laura Bowen at whose home she died. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Blount is survived by one son, Mr. Willson Blount. Rev. John J. Dougherty offered the requiem mass for the repose of her soul. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

HENRY F. KENNEY.

Henry F. Kenney, president of the Delaware Railroad Company and for many years superintendent of the old Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, died Friday at his home, in Ridley Park, near Philadelphia. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Kenney came into national prominence as the man who had charge of the special train from Philadelphia to Baltimore which carried Abraham Lincoln on his way to his first inauguration.

MRS. ANN C. GAMBLE.

Mrs. Ann C. Gamble, relict of the late Robert Gamble, died Thursday morning last at the home of Mrs. Irving G. Nichols in Baltimore, after an illness of several months. She was 86 years of age and was a grand old woman. She lived in Kent nearly her whole life. spending about fifteen years in Chestertown. She also lived near Worton and near Swan Creek at both of which places she owned a farm. She leaves one son, Mr. Charles S. Gamble, of Idaho. She was an aunt of Mr. George Beck and Mr. Chas. M. Brown, of Kent. The body will be brought to Rock Hall on Saturday by steamer B S. Ford and interment at St. Paul's cemetery. Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, of Chestertown, will officiate.
