Now Come

And come with a rush if yon want to get some of the good things we are offering in

Suits and Overcoats
Men, Boys and Children of all description.

Our line of Men's Suits and Overcoats are quite varied and complete. But don't wait, as they will soon go at the reduced prices we are offering them.

The assortment of Boys' and Children's not quite so large as our sales have far exceeded any previous season on children's wear, yet there is plenty to find a good selection if you come early.

Uuderwear, Gloves

and all heavy stuffs must get out of the way and in order to hurry it out we have marked it accordingly.

All our goods are marked in plain figures and marked at prices they honestly should be sold for. You know what to infer from this. In other words — the discounts we give you from these marked prices — ARE DISCOUNTS. Draw your own conclusions.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mrs. Benanna Russell, who has been under treatment in Baltimore for several weeks was brought home Saturday evening very much improved, we are happy to state. The trip was made by train and it was the first experience of Mrs. Russell on the train.

Judge J. H. Simpers, is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home on Queen street, Chestertown. He is attended by his son, Dr. Harry G. Simpers, Dr. Beck, of Baltimore, and Drs. W. F. and F. B. Hines. His condition was said to be somewhat improved at the hour of going to press.

Miss Mollie Ringgold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ringgold will leave next week to attend the opening of Messrs. Armstrong & Cator, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lockwood, of Georgetown, have started on a six weeks' sojourn in the South, to De Land and Pine Beach, Florida, and may possibly visit Cuba before they return home.

Rev. S. R. S. Gray and wife, of St. Paul's and I. U. parishes, are entertaining a friend from Minneapolis, who has recently returned from Cuba.

Mrs. A. I. Houston had a very painful fall from the steps at Dr. Simmons' home on Monday. She has been confined to her room under the care of Dr. Simmons.

Rev. and Mrs. S. Reese Murray announce the marriage of their daughter, Ona Waters, to Mr. Daniel Nelson Clark on Monday, February 3, 1908, Washington, D. C. The bride and her parents are well-known in Chestertown where they formerly lived.

Mrs. George B. McWhorter has been quite sick at her home on Washington avenue for the past two weeks, but we are glad to state that she is improving.

Miss Palmer Carroll is the guest of friends in New York city.

Miss Cora Jewell, of Still Pond, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Whaley for a week past.

Mrs. Arthur Bradley arrived at her Chestertown home from the hospital in Baltimore on Monday and is very much improved.

Mr. C. A. Leary, wife of Capt. Columbus A. Leary, is reported as being very dangerously ill at her home in Baltimore.

Mr. J. Cordray Loud returned from Wilmington Wednesday with his son, John, who has been ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Joseph Guest is convalescent after a two weeks' illness.

Mr. L. R. Dukes, a graduate pharmacist formerly of Denton, has accepted a position in the drug store of Mr. M. A. Toulson.

Mr. Edward Lambert, of Easton, visited relatives in town on Monday.

Mr. J. D. Lucas was able to get out yesterday after being housed by sickness for more than a week.

Miss Lillian Matthews entertained the Herring Hill Pleasure Club last Saturday evening, at her home on Cross street. All had a delightful time.

Miss Josephine Wheatley gave a Valentine party to her class mates and teachers at her home on Mill street, last Friday evening 14th.

A social was held at the home of Mrs. Frank M. Miller last evening. Cupids received the guests and presented each a souvenir appropriate to the event. A musical and literary program was a feature. Proceeds from the sale of lunches will be donated to the Bowery Mission and Young Men's Home in New York.

Mr. John E. Pennington has been ill with pneumonia at the home of his father-in-law, Sheriff Andrew Medders. He is much better at this writing.

Mr. Foster Cannon has returned from a pleasant visit to New York and elsewhere.

We are glad to report Mr. A. H. Crew as very much improved.

Mr. S. R. Hurlock, of near Chestertown, was able to ride to town a few days ago. Dr. Whaland, his physician, reports the injury as healing very satisfactorily.

Mr. Charles H. Hurlock, the auctioneer, suffered a relapse last Friday and has been sick in bed another week. He expects to be down stairs today.

Mrs. H. L. Boyd has been quite sick this week.

Miss Mary Rogers, of Chestertown, is the guest of friends at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Milby will remove to Federalsburg where Mr. Milby has a position with the Pennsylvania railroad as station master and operator. They leave Kennedyville with regret.

Mr. S. Mann was in town this week having been housed for sometime with grip.

Mr. Frank D. Leary is convalescent after a week's illness with grip.

The wedding of Edward Y. O'Meara and Miss Lulu Goodman, prominent residents of Quaker Neck, was solemnized at Bond church parsonage Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. McCoy.

For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

CHURCH NOTES.

Mr. Charles N. Satterfield lead the Song service in Christ Church Sunday evening.

Mr. Samuel Burgess has been elected delegate to Conference from Wesley Chapel Church and Mr. T. E. W. Crew as alternate. The Conference will meet this year in Snow Hill.

The Sunday School class taught by H. H. Klinefelter will give a dialogue entertainment entitled "An Evening in Japan," at the home of Mrs. E. E. Ford Washington avenue this Saturday evening February 15.

Chestertown M. E. Church.—The Sacment of the Lord's Supper at 10.30 a. m; Sunday School at 2.15 p. m. Preaching at 7.30 p. m.

Rev. L. R. Janney is unanimously invited to return to Crumpton for another year.

Millington is in the midst of a sweeping revival with about 25 conversions up to date.

The official board of Bond Church has given the pastor, Rev. J. C. McCoy, an invitation to return to that charge next year. The past year has been very successful both at Bond and Mowbray and Mr. McCoy's return is earnestly desired.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan, president of the Maryland Conference, will preach in Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, next Sunday evening.

Millington at its fourth quarterly conference heartily invited Rev. C. W. Moore to return to that pastorate for another year.

Rev. Ralph T. Coursey, of Milton, was found guilty on a charge of slander, by Henry O. Bennum, Jr., a member of the Legislature, and who averred that the preacher slandered him in a political speech 2 years ago. The minister was assessed 9¼ cents damages and pay costs of prosecution, which amounted to about $75.

A novel seven-cent supper was given by a church near Dover this week. The admission was seven cents each, redeemable inside, but every seventh person entering the hall was admitted free. Supper was served in courses, each course costing seven cents. There was music of various kinds, and some of the young people rendered a short drama. There was lots of fun.

Mr. Robert S. Crew has been elected delegate to conference from Rock Hall M. E. Church.

The last Quarterly Meeting Kent Circuit M. E. Church South for this Conference year will be held at Chesterville, Md., February 22 and 23. The Presiding Elder, Rev. J. A. Anderson, will preach Saturday and Sunday at 11 A. M. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. G. W. Morris, pastor of St. James Church, was given a big surprise by his congregation last Friday evening. His pantry was filled with good things.

At a meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Parish, Centreville, held Monday night last, the plans for a parish house submitted by William Draper Crincle, architect, of Wilmington, were accepted, and a building committee composed of Messrs. Walter T. Wright, Clayton Wright, W. Hopper Gibson and Rev. Walter B. Stehl, ex-officio, was authorized to secure bids and proceed with the erection of the building.

The Westminster paper says Dr. Greenfield is able to be out again. The following item will also be of interest: "Much interest has been manifested in the revival services being conducted at the Methodist Protestant Church, in spite of the exceedingly cold weather. Rev. William M. Mitchell, the evangelist, who is conducting the services, is a little man with a big voice; but the voice is well controlled and pleasing to his hearer's ears. He is a forceful speaker, with much earnestness and pleading and telling illustrations striving to convince the sinner of the enormity of sin and its certain punishment. A men's meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The service will be continued part of next week.

The holiness meetings have been well attended in Chestertown this week. There were three conversions Wednesday evening.

The church social held at the home of Miss Isabelle Lambert last Friday evening was an enjoyable affair. The lunch boxes were sold at auction by Prof. L. J. Smyth and brought from 25 cents to $1.05. Nearly $20 was realized. Deputy Postmaster Lambert was the "judge" of boxes.

THE SAD REAPER.

Miss Dora Culberson, aged 27, died in Delaware Hospital, Wilmington on Saturday, of Typhoid fever. She was well known in Chestertown.

Mr. William Wiggins, probably the oldest man in Queen Anne's county, of which he has been a resident since his birth, died early Monday morning at his home, near Chestertown, aged 94. He is survived by one son, William F. Wiggins, a truck farmer, of Pond Town. Funeral services were held Tuesday conducted by Rev. Frank Robinson and Miss Etta Gibson, of the Holiness church interment in Crumpton Cemetery.

Dinner Followed Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Hubbard Fertilizer Company was held Thursday at its offices, 802-3-4 Keyser Building. Judge James P. Gorter and Howard Hubbard having resigned from the board, George N. Numsen and Morris A. Soper were elected to succeed them. The following directors were elected for the ensuing year: William L. Hubbard, Wilbur W. Hubbard, R. M. Spedden, George N. Numsen, Morris A. Soper, H. C. Conrad and C. W. Holland. William L. Hubbard was again elected president; Wilbur W. Hubbard, vice president; W. H. Elliott, Jr., treasurer, and S. Downing Cox, secretary. After the meeting the usual dinner was held at the Merchants' Club, which included not only the board, but Waldo Newcomer, as their guest.

Eight children have been bitten in Baltimore this week by mad dogs! We trust that Chestertown will not be visited by such animals but it will be well enough to be on the look out for them.

Hon. James S. Harris has introduced a bill in the House of Delegates appropriating $10,000 annually for the extermination of Mosquitoes in the State.

Target Brand

INSECTICIDES AND FUNGICIDES

The celebrated TARGET BRAND SCALE DESTROYER is the only soluable oil guaranteed to kill absolutely the SAN JOSE SCALE and at the same time benefit trees in place of injuring them.

This oil is manufactured by the American Horticultural Distributing Co., and is being used almost exclusively in Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, Jersey, Michigan and other states.

The largest fruit growers in our County will use it exclusively this spring after the great success they had with it last year.

We used to sell sulphur by the car load but up to the present time have not sold a pound and with no prospects. Every grower who knows TARGET BRAND will use it doubly this season as the cost is no more than the inferior oils, and really less than the sulphur wash.

Use TARGET BRAND. Beware of inferior and untried oils.

Write for testimonials, prices and particulars.

We are sole agents for Kent County.
