IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE IN THE "NEWS"

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor. Your letter will be held in the strictest confidence. From her vast correspondence with sick women during the past thirty years she may have gained the very knowledge that will help your case. Such letters as the following, from grateful women, establish beyond a doubt the power of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

to conquer all female diseases.

Mrs. Norman R. Barndt, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I had suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

THE OLD GRANDFATHER'S CORNER.

The NEWS has received the following interesting item from a valued subscriber from the 5th district who culled it from her scrap-book:

Once upon a time there was a very old man who lived with his son and daughter-in-law. His eyes were dim, his knees tottered under him when he walked and he was very deaf. As he sat at table his hand shook so that he would often spill the soup over the tablecloth or on his clothes, and some times even he could not keep it in his mouth when it got there. His son and daughter were so annoyed to see his conduct at the table that at last they placed a chair for him in a corner behind the screen, quite away from the rest. He would often look sorrowfully at the table with tears in his eyes, but he did not complain.

One day, thinking sadly of the past, the earthenware basin, which he could scarcely hold in his trembling hands, fell to the floor and was broken. The young wife scolded him well for being so careless, but he did not reply, only sighed deeply. Then she bought him a wooden bowl for a penny and gave him his meals in it.

Some days afterwards his son and daughter saw their little boy, who was about four years old, sitting on the ground trying to fasten together some pieces of wood.

"What are you making, my boy?" asked his father.

"I am making a little bowl for papa and mama to eat their food in when I grow up," he replied.

The husband and wife looked at each other without speaking for some minutes. At last they began to shed tears, and went and brought their old father back to the table, and from that day he always took his meals with them and was never again treated unkindly.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

The farmers' institute for Kent county will be held in the Court House in Chestertown on Wednesday and Thursday February 19th and 20th. The program as arranged is as follows:

WEDNESDAY, 10 A. M.
Conductor's Announcement.
Edward Van Alstyne—"Sheep, Care of the Breeding Stock."
John Jeanin, Jr.—"Tomato Growing."

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Question Box.
Edward Van Alstyne—"Fertility—What Constitutes Fertility."
John Jeanin, Jr.—"Strawberry Culture."

THURSDAY.
Conductor's Announcement.
Edward Van Alstyne—"Feeding for Profit, vs. Feeding for Production."
John Jeanin, Jr.—"Influence of Good Seed."

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Question Box.
Edward Van Alstyne—"Care of the Orchard."
John Jeanin, Jr.—"Poultry Keeping for the Farmer."
By Patrons—Resume of the Subjects Treated.

Something About the Speakers.

Mr. Van Alstyne's home farm of about 400 acres, has been in his family since 1680.

His specialties are dairy, fruit, Tunis sheep, Duroc hogs, Rhode Island Reds poultry, and the usual farm crops of his section.

Uses from 250 to 300 tons of silage a year.

Sells from 500 to 800 bushels of rye and the straw annually.

Also about 100 tons of timothy hay.

Has been a conductor of Farmers' Institutes since 1887.

Had charge of the Model Dairy at the Pan-American Exposition.

His oldest son superintends the farm during his father's absence.

Mr. Jeannin makes no boast of the number of acres he tills.

His preference is to work under glass.

Outside the greenhouse he grows for a select market, tomatoes, strawberries, dahlias and other flowers, potatoes, and poultry products.

For a number of years Mr. Jeannin has been testing seed for the seedmen whose place of business is in the neighboring towns.

He has a long list of testimonials on his ability as a judge at fairs, on fruits, flowers, vegetables and farm products.

Corn Contest for Boys.

Because of the great expense incident to conducting the Corn Contest for Boys at each of the Institutes last season, the Director of Farmers' Institutes recommended that the exhibit not be continued at the Institutes, but be held at the Agricultural College—which recommendation was approved by the Trustees, and the offer of last year renewed—i. e., to the farmer's sons of Maryland twenty-three free scholarships to a special course of two weeks at the College, under the rules to govern the Competitive Contest for awarding the scholarships.

Captain Silvester, President of the Maryland Agricultural College, also renews his offer made at the La Plata Institute last year, of $20 in gold, to the boy who has the best ten years of corn in the competitive exhibit at the Agricultural College, March 11.

RULES.

1. Competition shall be limited to sons of Maryland farmers, residents of the county in which exhibit they compete.
2. No one shall compete who has had a course of instruction in an agricultural college.
3. The Competitive Exhibit shall be in charge of W. T. L. Taliaferro, Professor of Agriculture at the Maryland Agricultural College, and shall be on March 11.
4. Each competitor shall exhibit ten (10) ears of corn, white or yellow, selected by himself but not necessarily grown by himself.
5. The Exhibit shall be judged by a competent judge, selected by the President of the Agricultural College and Professor Taliaferro, and judgments shall be made in accordance with the printed scale of points in use at the Maryland Agricultural College, which can be found in the College Quarterly Bulletin of July-September, 1907. Vol. 4, No. 1.
6. Each Exhibit of corn shall be forwarded by EXPRESS, PREPAID, carefully and securely packed in a box, on which the exhibitor's county is plainly marked. Inside the box should be a sealed envelope containing his name and address. Address the box to PROFESSOR W. T. L. TALIAFERRO, COLLEGE, MARYLAND.
7. No one under fifteen, or over twenty-one years of age, will be allowed to enter the contest.

If You Have Waited for Extraordinary Bargains The Time Has Come

It is as easy to change custom as to control trade. With the passing of Christmas, wearing apparel seems to have lost its value. We know not why this should be, for winter weather has hardly begun, and the SUIT or COAT bought now may be worn for months to come, but after Christmas Bargains are expected, and to be equal to expectations we have reduced all

Our Winter Goods, Men's and Boys' Clothing, Ladies and Children's Coats, Ladies Skirts and all Winter Goods, Hats for Men and Boys, Dress Goods, Linens, Shoes for all, Hosiery, Underwear, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Furniture, Carpets and Mattings.

We are sure prices can't be lower for GOODS of same quality.

Remember it is a little more quality for a little less money.

Wishing One and All a Happy New Year.

Thanking you for past patronage and soliciting same in the future, I remain, Respectfully yours,
