

The inner sides of the Venetian blinds are painted to match the woodwork of their respective rooms, the outer sides are in every case the same grey buff.

Exclusive of professional fees, the building cost sixty cents a cubic foot. This includes furniture and all equipment except except the apparatus for photographic reproduction.