Local Religious Notes.

Rev. W. L. White returned from conference on Tuesday and will fill his pulpit tomorrow. He returns for the fifth year.

Rev. Leonard White, the new appointee for Fairlee, is a nephew of the popular Chestertown pastor and is said to be a very fine preacher.

The Rock Hall people are very sorry to lose the pastor who has served them so faithfully for five years but they have secured an able man in Rev. Mr. Richardson.

Rev. Dr. F. T. Little will leave for his conference at Snow Hill next Tuesday afternoon. The Dr. has just closed his first year at Christ Church and he will be returned without doubt as his work here is most acceptable and successful. Revs. Compher and Morris, at Wesley Chapel and St. James, are also expected to be returned, but Rev. Mr. Hooker, at Kennedyville, it is said, may ask for a change.

Mrs. W. C. Sutton had charge of the song service at Christ Church last Sunday evening.

The anniversary of Christ Church Sunday School will be held to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

A very large audience enjoyed the splendid intellectual treat in Christ M. P. Church last Wednesday evening in the lecture of the distinguished President of Western Maryland College, Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., LL. D. His subject was "In Tent and Saddle in Northern Palestine." There was no charge for admission but the silver offerings at the door amounted to $34.55. Dr. Lewis was introduced to the audience in a very appropriate reference to his distinguished character and abilities by Dr. Cain, president of Washington College. The lecturer held his audience for a full hour and a half with unabated interest.

A Profitable Meeting.—The Rich Neck Farmers Club held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, March 19th, at the home of Mr. Charles E. McKee on Round Top, near Chestertown. After the regular business of the club was disposed of the subject of corn was taken up and discussed by all the members present. It was the opinion of all that great care should be taken in the selection of seed corn.

The discussion of corn occupied the whole of the afternoon session after which supper was served. The evening was devoted to the spraying of trees. The discussion of both subjects brought out some excellent points and were ably handled by the President of the club, Mr. W. I. Walker, who has made a careful study of them and done some experimenting in both lines. As a whole the meeting was very instructive and entertaining and the time profitably spent. Those present were:

THE SAD REAPER.

Capt. J. H. Thompson Neared The Century Mark—Other Deaths.

CAPT. JAMES H. THOMPSON.

After a long illness this venerable and well beloved citizen of Chestertown died at the residence of his son, Capt. James T. Thompson, on Saturday last, aged 94 years and 3 months. The deceased was for many years engaged in the freighting business and successfully managed a packet line between Chestertown and Baltimore. He was a man of great industry and unflinching integrity and had the esteem and respect of our entire community. He was a devoted member of the M. E. Church. He is survived by four sons: Wm. C. A. and James T., of Chestertown; J. Henry, of Edesville, and Capt. Jos. W. Thompson, of Philadelphia. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, of Christ M. P. Church, his pastor, Dr. White, being absent at conference. Amicable Lodge I. O. O. F. of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body and conducted services at the grave. During the funeral services "Asleep in Jesus" and "The Haven of Rest," were effectively sung by Mrs. J. Harry Anthony and Misses Hallie Toulson and Edith Dunbracco. The pall bearers were: John F. Howard, James W. Chapman, Frank M. Miller, J. Cordry Lond, Charles J. Reiche and Frank D. Leary. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of arrangements. A beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased is published in another column from the pen of his son, Capt. Joseph W. Thompson, who is now a prominent business man of Philadelphia, Pa.

REV. J. H. S. EWELL.

Rev. John H. S. Ewell, who was a promising minister in the Methodist Protestant Conference, died at Blue Ridge Summit, where he had gone for his health. His death resulted from tuberculosis, with which he had been suffering several years.

Last May, just after the annual conference, he moved his family to the mountains in the hope that his health would improve. He was 42 years old, and came of a family of prominent ministers of the Methodist Church. His father was Rev. John E. T. Ewell, of Accomac county, Virginia, a prominent preacher in his day, as were also two of his brothers.

Young Mr. Ewell's last charge was in Alexandria, Va., where he was stationed for five years. At the conference he was assigned to a fine charge in Harpers Ferry, Va., but his failing health made it impossible for him to accept. Mr. Ewell was a graduate of Western Maryland College and Westminster Seminary. At the latter institution he met his wife who was Miss Beeks, of Kent county. Besides his widow he leaves two boys and one brother, Mr. A. W. Ewell, a prominent merchant of Crisfield. The funeral will take place tomorrow from his home at Blue Ridge Summit. The body will be taken to Crisfield for burial.
