THE BIGGEST FURNITURE HOUSE

ON THE SHORE

JOHN BARTLEY, CHESTERTOWN, MD

Live Local Notes.

A YOUNG NEGRO giving his name as Preston Perkins, of Warwick, Cecil county, walked into Delaware Hoopital, Wilmington, on Monday, and told the superintendent that he had been accidentally shot in the thigh at Warwick and would like to have the ball removed. His request was granted.

THE Smyrna Call says: Mrs. John Price has a goose that practically laid five eggs in two days, and is laying two daily. The goose laid an egg with three yolks, Saturday last, it being its first and since then has been laying a double yolked egg every day.

THE dwelling house of Ex-Senator Woodland P. Finley was burned to the ground on Thursday evening of last week. It is supposed the fire occured from a spark from the chimney igniting the roof. The building was a very beautiful home, and was Senator's own dwelling, on his home farm. The loss is only partially covered by insurance. Quite a good deal of the furniture was saved, although a great many things were damaged by being moved. The insurance on the house is reported to be $2500.

THREE candidates for the honor of contesting in the annual oratorical contest to be held by the Maryland colleges at St. Sohn's College this month, delivered orations before a committee of judges at Washington College last Friday evening. The candidates were Messrs. T. Kemp Bordly, L. Wethered Barroll and W. Raymond Moody. The judges, President James W. Cain, Profs. E. J. Clarke and Seronde, elected Mr. L. Wethered Barroll as principal and Mr. W. Raymond Moody as alternate.

THE following is a complete list of the County Grange officers:

Master—R. G. Nicholson, Chestertown.
Overseer—John R. Bennett, Kennedyville.
Lecturer—Thomas D. Bowers, Chestertown.
Steward—W. D. Pennington, Still Pond.
Asst. Steward—J. Pace Gale, Fairlee.
Gate Keeper—Albert Story, Chestertown.
Chaplain—John P. Nicholson, Fairlee.
Treasurer—Thomas C. Roe, Millington.
Secretary—J. E. Spear, Millington.
Ceres—Mrs. Dr. J. H. Kelly, Still Pond.
Pomona—Mrs. Wilmer Ford, Still Pond.
Flora—Mrs. F. M. Miller, Chestertown.
Lady Asst. Steward—Mrs. John M. Medders, Kennedyville.

Committees on By-Laws and resolutions were also appointed, as was also a county executive. The next county meeting will be held in Still Pond Grange Hall in July, when an appropriate programme will be prepared. Kent County had a flourishing Pomona Grange, organized at "Eureka Grange Hall," Still Pond, May 25, 1875. Among the members living are Mrs. John W. and A. L. Corey, of Fairlee, Robert S. Griffith, of Sassafras, Thomas J. Shallcross, of Betterton, Mrs. Florence Wroth and Mary R. Wilson, of Still Pond, Wm. Hepbron, of Lynch and Dr. W. S. Maxwell, of Still Pond.

Anti-Shyster Bill Passed Assembly.—Lawyers who solicit business fall under the ban of a law just passed by the Legislature of Maryland. Attorneys are forbidden either to solicit business or to secure the services of others in procuring business for them. Neither are they to employ men who aid them in getting business as expert witnesses. In case of conviction the penalty is a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment of three months.

The bill was offered by Senator Biddison of Baltimore county. It was opposed in the House, but went through without any change. Similar bills have been offered in the General Assembly at previous sessions, but always failed to pass.

Miracle Wheat, in Answer to Prayer.—A Mr. K. B. Stoner, a farmer of Virginia, is the man made the prayer and in answer of it found one single stock in his wheat field with 142 heads containing 2000 grains. He preserved this and sowed it and it begat its like with great increase. In 1906 he got 16 bushels and from that harvested in 1907 800 bushels or 56 bushels per acre and used only two pecks per acre for seeding. An ordinary stock of wheat covers about four inches of space but miracle wheat covers about 12 inches. Last year the U. S. Government officials became deeply interested and sent a man to examine this wonderful wheat. His report is that this wheat came from an unknown source, has been grown in the nursery ever since found and last two years under field conditions with excellent results. The yield has been from two to three times the yield of other varieties grown on the farm under same conditions of culture, except the rate of seeding, which was 2 pecks to the acre while other varieties were sown at the rate of 8 to 10 pecks in this section. Milling tests have been made of this wheat and its quality seems to be as good as, if not superior to other varieties of winter wheat.

GALLAUDET, 11: WASHINGTON, 7.

Chestertown, Md., April 4.—Gallaudet defeated Washington College to-day by 11 to 7 in a game in which Washington's errors played a most prominent part. Washington scored three runs in the first inning on a base on balls, a hit and a home run by White; one more was added to this in the fifth and two in the seventh.

In the fourth inning on a hit and four errors Gallaudet scored three runs; four more were added in the fifth on two hits and she made two more in the sixth, one of which was earned, this being the only earned run in the game.

Washington put up the most wretched fielding game ever seen on the field and the only redeeming features were the batting of White and Pruitt and the pitching of Johns.

Batteries—Brick and Bell; Johns and Cross.
