CLOTHES?

The clothes question is very easily solved at this establishment.

In the first place you will find an assortment. Next in order—variety of shapes for big men and little men. Then comes the price and this important feature is lower than you have been paying for such values. Everything is high except the price. The workmanship, material, etc., make a combination of high results that not many can equal.

AS YET

The assortment is fairly good don't wait longer than possible though

IN

FARMING PICKUPS.

Scab In Wheat Amounts To One-Fourth—Harvest Next Week—New Tenants.

Wheat is quoted at 62 cents.

The Rich Neck farmers have decided that better crops can be raised by using a disc on cow peas than by plowing.

Gooseberry harvest is on in Kent but the price is only six cents per pound. It is said the canners have formed a combine.

Ex-Senator Garrett Foxwell states that the scab in wheat will injure the crop about ten per cent.

Mr. Bartus Trew says the damage in his section will be one-third. Dr. W. F. Hines and P. B. Hollis in a drive through lower Kent put the damage at one-third to one-fourth.

Mr. Wilbur Eliason says the Shaghaj wheat is not hurt so badly as other varieties.

Hon. James S. Harris says the damage is great but not as serious as has been noted in other years.

Thus the farmers throughout Kent are talking of the scab in wheat, so that the indications point to a short wheat crop in Kent.

A telegram from Delaware says: "Wheat experts here who made a Sunday visit of inspection report that the tremendous rain on Decoration Day whipped and damaged the flowers. The result is that heads will not fill, at least will not mature fully. The loss, it is said, will amount to one-fourth of a crop, and there is a prevailing opinion that there will be no big yields in Delaware this year."

Wheat harvest will be general about June 20th.

Mr. J. Alfred Bramble is negotiating with Mr. Beachamp Lecompt for the sale of his stock and implements. Mr. Bramble will remove from the Constable farm to Baltimore and Mr. L. will tenant same.

Mr. J. Frank Shinn has rented the Wilkins farm near town.

RICH NECK FARMERS.

A Splendid Meeting Held Thursday At Primrose Manor—New Officers Elected.

'There's no place like home,' was the expression of members of Rich Neck Farmers Club on Thursday evening, when, after a year they returned once more to the beautiful "home" of their birth, "Primrose Manor," owned by H. P. Skipper. This farm, beautifully situated on Chester river opposite Chestertown, is an evidence of what brains, muscle and wealth can do. Once a sandy desert it is now a blooming garden with grains, grasses and fruit that vie with any other.

The Rich Neck Farmers Club, W. Irving Walker, Esq., presiding, opened its business session with the reading of the Presient's annual report. This report covered the work of the year and was indeed interesting. Mr. Walker has rounded out a year's work of remarkable vigor and progress and his successor will find his record hard to excel.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Harry P. Skipper; secretary, J. T. Anthony; treasurer, John C. McRochester; executive committee, W. Irving Walker, C. H. Jefferson and officers.

The question for debate was whether muscle, brain or wealth wielded the most influence. The participants announced were Messrs. Charles H. McKee Charles Baxter and C. L. Jarrell and it was unanimously decided that "muscle" as represented in an address by Mr. Charles H. McKee was the winner. Mr. McKee told of a farm in Rich Neck on which at one time there was raised 40 bushels of frogs to the acre and enough snakes to fence it, but after a little muscle was applied this same farm yielded a like amount of grain! After the debate came a sumptuous and elaborate dinner served in recherche manner.

Mr. Kemp Bordley, violinist and Mr. James Bacchus, pianist furnished fine music during the evening. Among those present were the following:

Mr. and Mrs.—
Charles H. Jefferson,	Frank Baxter,
W. Irving Walker,	Charles Baxter,
S. R. Hurlock,	Josiah Massey,
James T. Anthony,	Bud F. Potts,
James Newnam,	Thomas Skipper,
Albert Story,	Boston, Mass.
Mrs.—
Spear,	Frank M. Miller.
Misses—
Helen Jefferson,	Fannie Anthony,
Mabel Jefferson,	Margurite Skipper,
Jessie Anthony,	Waters.
Messrs—
H. H. Klinefelter,	Clements Jester,
J. C. McRochester,	Edward W. Emory,
Rumsey Anthony,	David B. McMenamin,
Arthur Skipper,	Robert G. Nicholson,
Clifton L. Jarrell,	Fred. G. Usilton,
Dr. G. Allen Jarman,	Charles H. McKee,
Thomas D. Bowers	Ivanhoe Willis.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."
