IMPORTANT DECISION—THREE DAYS' GRACE.

Many banks, both in this state and elsewhere, have immemorially followed the practice, in discounting notes, of charging interest for four days more than time specified on the face of the instrument. This was done by allowing three days' grace, and by counting both the day on which the note was drawn, and that on which it fell due. In the case of McNeely, assignee of the state bank at Trenton, vs. the heirs of Drake this point was raised by the counsel for the defendants, and the Supreme Court decided that the practice was an usurious one, and vitiated all the contracts it entered into. In other words, that it is usury to estimate both the day of the date, and of the maturity, on discounting a note or bill.

Another point raised by the counsel in the same case, says the Trenton Emporium, was that the practice of taking discount out of notes drawn at three months, or one fourth of a year, was also usurious. Although no express opinion was given by the Court on this point, a sufficient intimation fell from two of the justices to put the community on their guard against following this custom.

The Court determined, in the case before them that the usury not having been between the parties in Court, the verdict for the plaintiff must be sustained.—Newark Advertiser.

TOO SUCCESSFUL AN IMITATION.—The Louisville Journal of Wednesday week says: "Col. John Baker, of Mason county, was accidentally killed by young Mr. Ashcraft, on the 20th ult.—The two gentlemen, without seeing each other, were in pursuit of the same flock of wild turkies. Mr. Baker concealed himself behind a blind, and attempted to decoy the flock by imitating the cry of a turkey, when Mr. Ashcraft, supposing the cry to be that of a rival gobbler, cautiously advanced within twenty yards and shot him instantly dead.

Col. Baker is said to have been a high minded and honorable man, to have done great service to his country in the last war with the British and Indians."

MRS. NORTON.

The Liverpool correspondent of the New York Star retails the following piece of scandal:—

"On dit, that the Honorable Mrs Norton, the poetess, has been discarded by her husband. She has quitted his house, "on the turn out." They were married ten years, and have four children, who remain with the father. You will remember that, months ago, I told your readers that Lord Melbourne and the lady were VERY intimate—other reports say 'tis the Duke of Devonshire in this case. Mr. Norton is Lord Grantly's brother. Mrs. N. is grand daughter to the late R. B. Sheridan."

CONNECTICUT SENATOR. The Hon. Perry Smith, of New Milford, was on Thursday elected Senator to Congress, for six years, in the place of the Hon. Gideon Tomlinson.

VERY AGREEABLE.—To sit at church by the side of a tobacco chewer, enjoying the luxury of his breath, feasting yourself upon the spectacle of the great pond of liquid which has flown from his mouth, and to have the pleasure of inhaling the delicious odor that arises therefrom. Don't you think so?—[N. H. Gaz.]

It gratifies us to find the following announcement in a North Carolina paper. We understand that the [illegible] court, at the house of Henry Sims, in Nash, and appointed the Honorable NATHANIEL MACON of this county the elector to be run on the VAN BUREN and JOHNSON ticket in this electoral district. We heartily approve the selection."

From the Baltimore American of Saturday.

GRAIN.—Wheat. We have no sales of Md. Wheats to report, and we know of none at market since Saturday last, when a parcel of prime red was sold at $1,41. A sale of Susquehanna Wheat was made a day or two ago at $1,40 per bushel. A parcel of 1000 bushels Dantzic white Wheat, received via London, was sold at $1,37. The English What, about 25000 bushels, has been put into store.

Corn—On Monday sales of good white were made at 73 cents, and of yellow at 76 cents. On Tuesday the market declined, and sales have since then been made at 70 cents for white and at 73 a 74 cents for yellow.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!
PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editor to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful; the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest date.

It is published at the low price of $2. For which sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus, the publishers, therefore will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes"

The Albany Mercury of March 18th, 1836, says, "The Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week! Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable reading matter than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union.—Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to republish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot APPROVE, a permanent interest and ren- [illegible] preservation. To meet the [illegible] their subscribers ABSOLUTE [illegible] Courier [illegible] quarto form it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

(Re[illegible]

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales and &c. offered in a competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated both at home and abroad.

The approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER is strictly neutral the religious and political matters, and in uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the Twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, Internal Improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same siez as the New York Atlas, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance (including the Maps.)

FOR SALE

I have for sale a mare of fine blood now with foal by Maryland Eclipse. This mare's speed has been tried and she has proved a successful racer. She was raised by Mr. Elisha Wilson of this county, who has raised some of the best blooded horses on this shore—Col. Emory's Betsy Wilson, Quaker, and others.

I have also a mare colt out of this mare by Jesse Richards, three years old this spring, which I will sell at fair price, on 3 and 6 months credit. A good work horse would be taken in part pay. The mare will be sold on the same terms as the colt. Sportsmen if you want good blooded horses attend to this.

GRAND ATTRACTION.

THE citizens of Talbot County are informed, that a splendid exhibition of WILD BEASTS, selected from the Zoological Institute of Baltimore will take place at Easton on SATURDAY 11th of JUNE.

Among the beasts is a noble Elephant, decidedly the finest one ever exhibited in the U. S. 10 feet high and supposed to weigh 10 000 lbs. There is also the interesting little Gazelle, which is said to possess the most beautiful eye of any animal in the world. Eastern poets always compare their mistresses eye to those of this animal.

Among the interesting collection of animals is a TIGER and a LION.

There will also be exhibited free of any extra expense a splendid and most extensive

TH SALMAGUNDI,
AND NEWS OF THE DAY.
EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS

A new periodical, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836—While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal objects will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desire it—(those out of the city will forwards their orders, postage paid)—☞ and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentlemen's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that more than will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humor and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The terms of the Salmagundi will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payably invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to.

☞ Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. ☞ The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in mail.

☞ THE SALMAGUNDI will be publisin no alternate weeks—otherwise it would be hn possible to procure the numerous embellements which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

☞ All orders must come postage paid.

☞ Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.
