Baltimore, Maryland

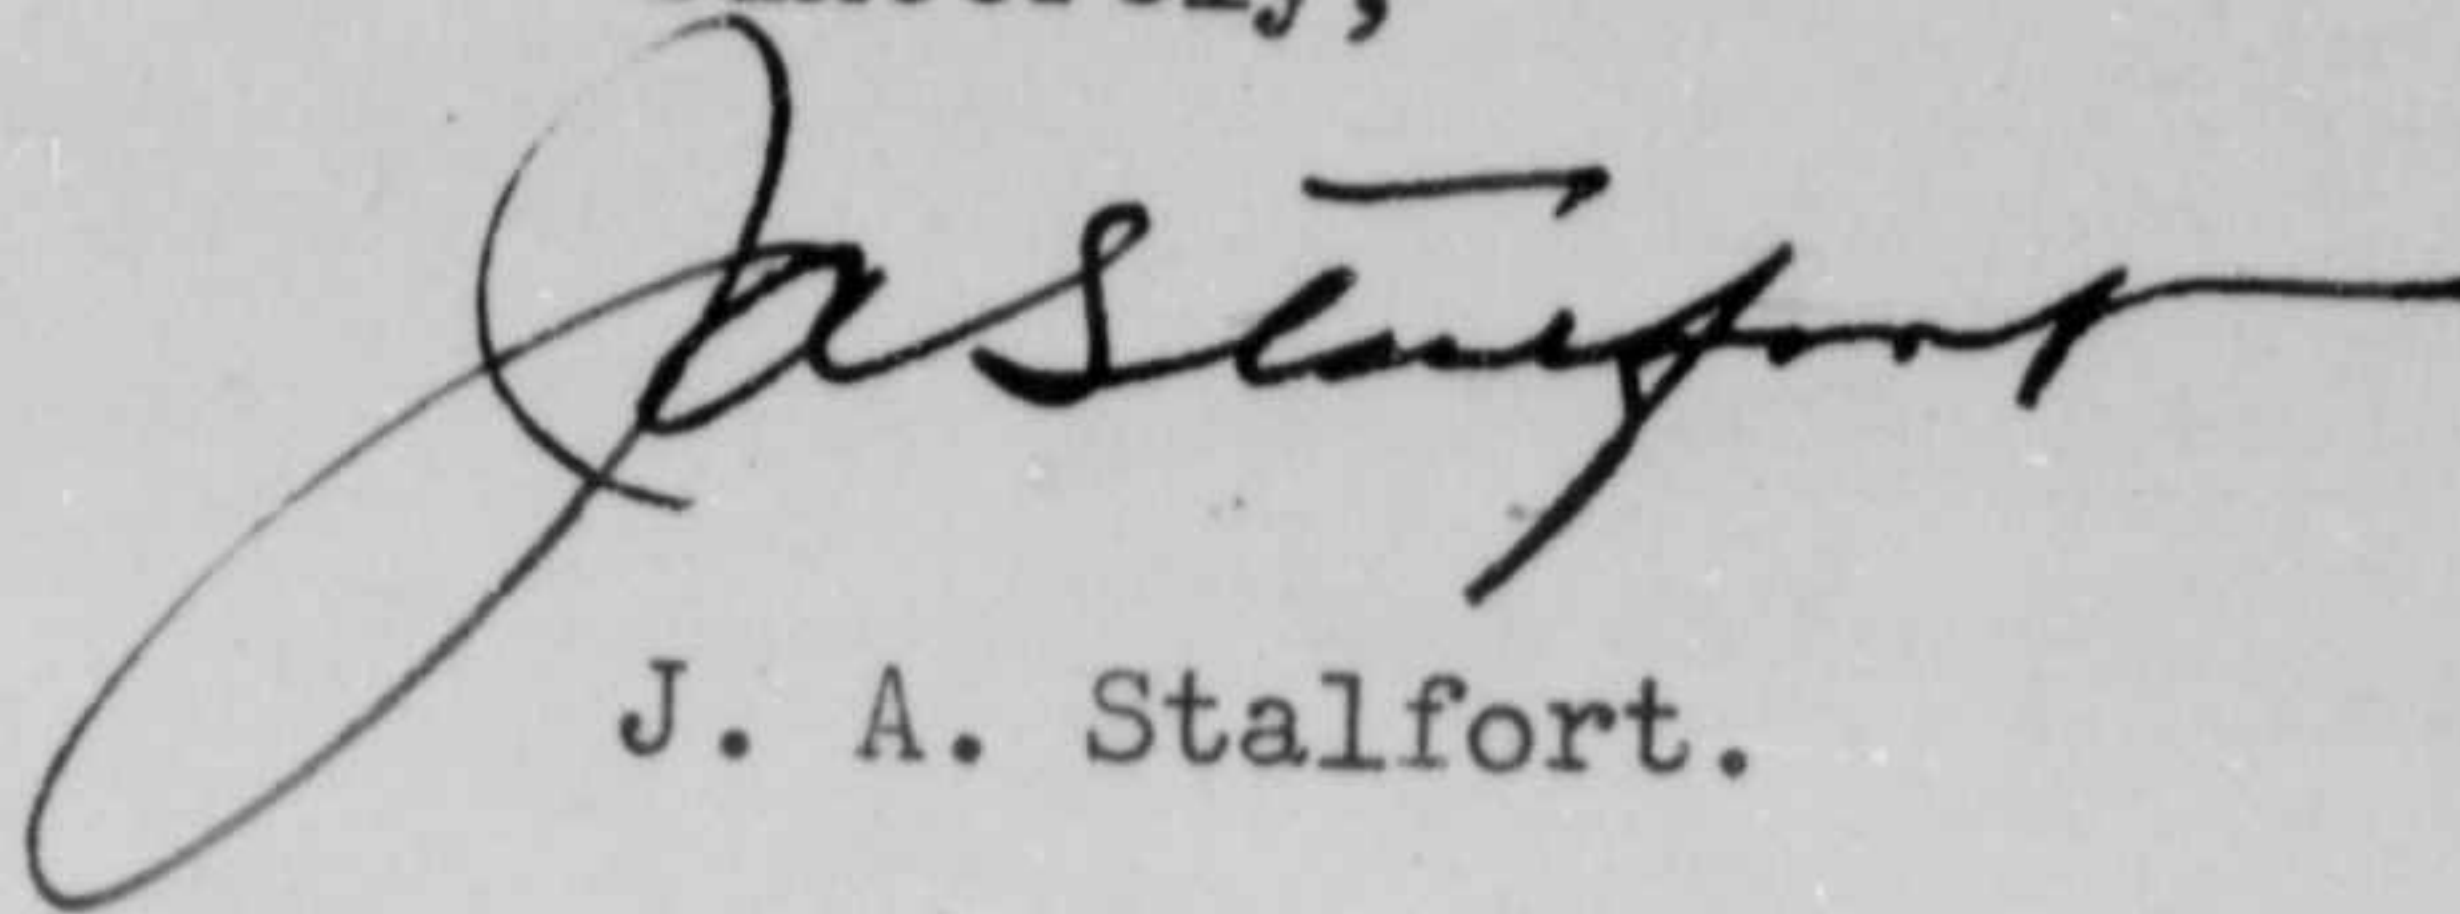

Dear Mr. Fowler:

I stopped by your home the other evening and Mrs. Fowler very courteously let me have the photographs of the Hall of Records at Annapolis, Md. which you had left for me.

As I explained to you over the phone, we wanted these photographs for a new brochure which we are publishing. I am retaining the one which I will use and will arrange to see that it is returned to you just as soon as the publishers are finished with same. In the meantime I am returning the one which I have not used.

Thanking you very kindly for your assistance in this matter, and with warmest regards,

Sincerely,

J. A. Stalfort.
