ORDER No. 83.

HEAD QUARTERS ARMY OF THE SOUTH.
Tuskegee, Alabama, 8th Sept. 1836.

The Major General Commanding has the satisfaction to announce to the Army the entire cessation of hostilities, and the movement westward of the principal part of the Creek nation. He congratulates both Officers and Soldiers, on the complete success which has attended their operation throughout the campaign. More than 2,500 hostile Indians, among them upwards of 700 warriors, were captured by the Alabama troops and friendly Indians—all of whom have been removed to Arkansas, or are in the custody of the civil authorities, waiting their trial for offences against the laws of Georgia and Alabama.

Several hundred Indians who escaped from Echo Hadjo's Camp, in this neighbourhood, and attempted to force their way into Florida, were attacked in the most gallant manner by the Georgia Troops, and with few exceptions, were destroyed, captured or driven back to their swamps.

The greater part of the Georgia and Alabama Troops called out for three months, have already been discharged—those that remain in service, with the exception of Major Nelson's Battalion and Capt. Heatz Company of Georgia Volunteers, will be mustered, honorably discharged and paid as soon as arrangements for that purpose can be made.

The services of General Officers of Volunteers being no longer required, Major General Sanford, and the Officers of his Staff, of Georgia, and Major General Patterson and Brigadier-General Moors, with the Officers of their respective Staffs, of Alabama, are hereby honorably discharged. In separating officially from those gentlemen and the officers and troops that compose their commands, the Major General would do injustice to his own feelings; were he to omit the expression of the high sense which he entertains for their good conduct and soldierly deportment.—They have his entire approbation and deserve that of their Country.

The Tennessee Brigade under Brigadier-General Armstrong, deserve the highest commendation for the prompt and effective manner in which they have performed the duties that devolve on them, while they were detained in the Creek County. They are now on their march to Florida, where a determined and active enemy awaits them. The same promptness and attention to duty, which distinguished them here, will ensure them victory there.

The regular Troops, except Major M'Intosh's Company, will proceed to Florida in the course of this month, or early in October.

The order, discipline and good conduct which they have displayed throughout this campaign, and the readiness with which every duty has been performed by Officers and Soldiers do them the highest honor.

The Marines will be necessarily detained some time longer in this country. Both officers and men have acted in the best manner, and have performed every duty which has devolved upon them with a promptness and correctness, creditable to themselves and characteristic of the corps. The gallantly which prompted them to volunteers for service in the field, will be long remembered by the Army, and by none more gratefully than by the Major General Commanding.

By order of Major General Jesup.
