DIRECTLY OPP. COURT HOUSE

Chestertown, - - Maryland

Married.—Mt. Olivet Methodist Protestant Church at Seaford was the scene of a quiet wedding on Thursday morning at 7 o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Erma Rea Huey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Huey, of that town, and Arthur H. Sloop, of Bellefonte, Pa. Promptly at the appointed hour the bride and groom attended by Dr. Woodside, of Philadelphia, and W. Robert Huey, of Chestertown, Md., entered the church, and while Lohengrin's wedding march, skillfully rendered by Miss Rose James, was being softly played proceeded to the altar rail, where they were met by the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. E. Litsinger, who performed the ceremony, the ring being used. The recessional was from Mendelssohn. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of champagne voile over taffeta while the groom wore the conventional black.

Miss Edna Mae Townsend and Mr. Clarence E. Walbert, both of Quaker Neck, were married on Monday last.

THE Chestertown Christian Endeavor Society gave an enjoyable straw-ride to Betterton Wednesday. Mr. Wm. A. Bell furnished the wagon. Officer Alfred Jester provided a splendid place on the Rigbie green at which to serve supper. The young folks enjoyed every moment of the trip.

THE yellows and scale are playing havoc in the peach orchards of Kent and elsewhere.

SPARK'S show drew a great crowd to Chestertown Tuesday. Robins is announced to be here August 31st.

There will be no preaching service at Wesley Chapel next Sunday on acount of absence of the pastor. Mr. Compher and his wife are visiting his mother for two weeks in Virginia.

Live Local Notes.

Fine Fat Cattle.—Mortimer W. Smith, of Virginia, has sold a drove of 115 fat cattle, with an average weight of 1496 and bringing $85.25 a head. Leyman & Bro., of Baltimore, were the purchasers and they shipped them to England. The cattle were Herefords and Polled Angus, four years old, and were fine ones. Why can't Kent farmers do as much.

To Build Bungalow.—Mr. Frank E. Duyer has contracted with Mr. J. G. Westcott for the erection of a bungalow on Deep Point, an eligible site on the Chester river. The building will consist of five bed rooms, a large living room, dining room, kitchen, bath room and cellar. Mr. Duyer and his large force will commence work at once on this unique home.

Sale of Personalty. — The personalty sales advertised in the NEWS continue to draw large crowds and stock of all kind sells well. Mr. J. G. Westcott's sale drew a good crowd notwithstanding the circus and stock brought fair prices. Mr. James T. Brown had a "cracker-jack" sale, his mules bringing $420 a pair, cows from $33 to $50 and his horses from $100 to $165. Messrs. Thos. Massey and John Hogans each realized fair prices on their stock, Other sales are advertised in the "News Sales Bulletin" today.

The B. F. Merchant sale on Wednesday was a good one, the personalty amounting to $6000. Horses sold as high as $225; cows $31 to $53; sheep from $4.60 to $7.00.

Sales of Property.—Mr. L. P. Vansant has purchased of J. Waters Russell a lot on Kent Circle adjoining Mr. Harry Cannan's lot.

Mr. Clinton W. Wroth has purchased from Mr. Fred G. Usilton the Redue property on Front street for $675. Mr. Wroth proposes to improve the property.

Mrs. Emma R. Baughman, of Betterton, has purchased through real estate broker J. Waters Russell the Perry Rasin place near Worton, of seven acres; price private.

Dr. Morgan to Investigate.—District Superintendent S. M. Morgan left Camden Camp Monday for Seaford, to meet Rev. S. P. Shipman, the minister in charge of Hurlock, Md., church who was so mysteriously beaten and left for dead in a cornfield by Thomas Carew, who alleged he found Shipman in his wife's company at his home at 11 o'clock one night last week. It is not known as yet what will be the result of the district superintendent's investigation.

Boys Escape. — Two youths — Harry Woods, 18 years old, of Chestertown, and Henry Bankert, 19 years old, 1726 Preestman street—escaped from the Maryland School for Boys early Monday morning. The police have been notified, but up to late at night they had not been captured. Superintendent Upham said the boys made their escape about 5 o'clock in the morning, while the officers were getting ready for breakfast. They had gotten a long board, by which they reached the top of the wall.

"Rocks," Fortune.—Mr. Wm. U. Seoone, the faithful driver of the mail between Rock Hall and Chestertown, has been holding a high head for some days recently and the cause was not learned until this week. An uncle died in Louisiana a year ago and in the settlement of the estate "Rock" came in for his share, the check having been cashed at a Chestertown bank. "Rock" refuses to disclose the amount of same to the NEWS man but we learn that it was more than one figure!

Other Changes. — The NEWS columns have heretofore contained many changes of tenants. To this list are to be added the following: The Lamb Bros., sons of Mr. F. D. Lamb, have rented the Horn farm, near Tolchester, tenanted by James Groves; Mr. Groves will tenant the Wilmer farm from which James Coleman removes, the latter going to the Hynson-Cooper farm; James Middleton will tenant the Willis farm and Odie Carroll goes on one of the Woodall farms, near Galena; John Hogans will remove to Rock Hall and Wm. Cooper will tenant his Bell farm; Wm. Dill goes on Cooper farm, near Opossum Hollow; Harvey Morris, son of Commissioner Morris, will tenant Geo W. Hatcherson's farm.

Launch Parties. — The following launches arrived at Chestertown Tuesday with "circus parties": "Come 7," H. L. Kingsland, captain, with Mrs. M. A. Pease, Baltimore, Miss Georgine J. London, Brooklyn; Miss Alice Doliver, Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ricketts, Parcippany, N. J., and Mrs. S. M. Kingsland.

The launch "M. A. Leary," Captain Ned Leary, with Mr. and Mrs. Boyce, Washington, Misses M. A. Leary, Helen Burgess and Vachel Burgess.

Mr. Thomas Kibler gave a jolly launch party on Wednesday to forty guests going as far as Centreville.

The yacht "Josephine" in command of Capt. Curtis E. Crane left town Thursday for a cruise. On board were Mrs. C. E. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beck, Mrs. M. B. Roberts, Miss Isabel Beck, Miss May Perry, and S. Scott Beck, Esq.

Outbreak of Yellows.—The reports coming in from inspectors of the State Horticultural Department show that peach yellows is again becoming abundant in the northern counties of the Eastern shore and that this destructive disease of peach is still alarmingly prevalent in the mountain peach orchards as well as in all northern Maryland where growers have not kept it cut out.

State Pathologists J. E. S. Norton says that only vigorous effort of orchardists to keep the diseased trees cut out as soon as the premature fruit appears, this being the surest sign of the disease, will prevent the loss of a large part of our orchards.

Horse Notes.—Mr. J. A. McClary lost one of his Tolchester riding horses recently in a singular manner. The horse got his leg caught in a pony cart and in trying to extricate himself broke his leg. The horse had to be killed.

Bernard Monday, Jr., a well-known young farmer of Rockville vicinity, noticed Monday that five of his horses, which were grazing in a field on his farm, were behaving in a strange manner, and he at once sent for a veterinary surgeon. An investigation disclosed the fact that the animals were suffering from arsenic poisoning and antidotes were applied at once, with the result that all are now believed to be out of danger. Several months ago Mr. Monday had a number of cattle poisoned under similar circumstances, three fine ones dying. He has a suspicion as to the identity of the perpetrator and an investigation will be made.

Mr. A. L. Sparks has sold his splendid driver to Mr. Loller, of Worton.
