Live Local Notes.

Kennedyville Alive.—The Democrats of Kennedyville district will organize a Bryan, Kern and Covington Club on Wednesday evening next at Kennedyville. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

At the Fair.—Do not fail to make our place headquarters while at the great Tolchester Fair next week. See the "New Waterloo," wagon on exhibit in main Exhibition Hall, also the New Harness for the coming season. Everybody welcome.—Wm. Medders & Co.

Pretty Home.—Mr. Gus Startt has had erected a pretty residence on Chester river near the Cliffs and moved into his new home this week. Mr. James T. Taylor of Rock Hall, was the builder and designer. Mr. Startt has been making his home in Baltimore for about 12 years and now moves back to old Kent to enjoy country life. The situation of his new home is a beautiful view looking out over the broad waters of the Chester river.

Fine Prospects For Races.—The entries for the Tolchester Fair races have filled well and prospects are for good racing. In the 2.18 there are 19 entries, in 2.22 pace 14, free-for-all 10, 2.17 has 8, 2.22 has 7, 2.15 pace 20 and 2.30 trot 12 entries. Bedworth, Jr., Black Spider and Schley Russell are in fine condition and will give good accounts of themselves.

The Rock Hall and Chestertown Manual Training Departments will have big exhibits at the Fair.

Prices of Personalty Keep Up.—It is remarkable how the prices of personalty keep up. At the Andrew W. Woodall sale on Monday horses brought as high as $176; colts as much as $115, cows up to $45 and hay $8 a ton. Implements also sold well. The M. E. Newsome sale the same day was well attended and stock sold well. The Mary E. Sutton sale on Wednesday was an admirable one. See other sales yet to take place in our advertising columns.

To Inspect Apple Seedling In England.—Mayor Orlando Harrison, of Berlin, sailed from New York Thursday morning at 11 a. m., on the S. S. Bletcher for England. It is a business trip and not for pleasure. He expects to visit the principal nurseries of France, Germany and Holland, and possibly Switzerland and other points, in search of the best seedlings grown, as the firm of J. G. Harrison & Sons import their apple, pear, plum and cherry seedlings, and they desire to know the best growers.

Injured In Runaway.—Mrs. William C. Anderson and daughter, of near Worton, were severely injured on Monday evening in a runaway accident. They were driving a young horse after supper when the animal became frightened and started to run. Both of the ladies tried their best to stop him but could not and finally they were thrown out. The carriage passed over Miss Anderson and injured her greatly. Mrs. Anderson was also hurt internally. Dr. H. G. Simpers rendered medical aid.

Real Estate Sale.—Col. Samuel L. Wright has purchased the Willard Melvin home near Washington College for $4800. Mr. Wright will remove to his new home the first of January 1909.

A. J. Smith, a well-known ice cream dealer of Baltimore, has purchased Edward B. Emory's stock farm, near Rock Hall, for $3,600. Mr. Smith will remove to his new property shortly. Mr. Emory is one of the best known horsemen in this section having for a number of years owned a large stock farm in Queen Anne county.

Contract Awarded.—The Board of County Commissioners of Queen Anne's Tuesday awarded the contract for the building of the new jail and sheriff's residence to Pitchard and Furniss, of Pocomoke, for $16,275. The contract for the steel cells to be placed in the new building was awarded to the Pauly Jail-building Company, of New York, for $2,373. The present jail was erected about 50 years ago, and for a number of years has been in an unsafe condition for the keeping of prisoners. Several have escaped from the institution during the past 12 or 15 years. Messrs. Pitchard and Furniss built the Queen Anne National Bank in this town.

Wills Filed.—The will of the late Mrs. Emily Voshell was filed in the Kent Orphans' Court on Tuesday and it devises $100 to her brother Joseph Kennard, of Wilmington and the residue of her estate to Mrs. Victor Hendrickson, Mrs. Emily J. Steward, Robert T. Ford and Mary H. Wheatley equally. Mr. Robert T. Ford is named as executor.

The will of the late Mrs. Julia A. Hossinger was probated and names Mr. Joseph B. Hossinger executor. To Harry Hepbron was left a gold watch; to her neices Linda and Mina Lusby is left her kitchen furniture; Matilda Lusby is left $50. All the residue of the personal and real estate is devised to J. B. Hossinger.

Outing Parties.—Seventy-five Germans from Pennsylvania are camping on "The Bar," Stoneton, near Betterton, the picturesque shore of Mr. C. H. Price. This company have been camping on this shore for several years and they are a jolly crowd.

Quite a number of the members of the Volunteer Fire Company spent Thursday at Northwest Point.

Dr. Mansfield carried a large company of young folks on a cruise down the Chester river Thursday on his large yacht "Veneza."

Capt. Louis Stam in his trim 23 footer took in the St. Michaels races last week and also made a trip across the Chesapeake in some very rough weather.

Mr. W. W. Hubbard, in his fine yacht "Ettabelle," had Dr. D. L. Greenfield and wife, of Westminster, as his guests on a outing Thursday.

Married.—Miss Elneta M. Russell, only child of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Russell, of Frederica, Del., was quietly married at home Saturday, August 15th, at one o'clock, by Rev. H. B. Kelso, to Dr. J. Bradley Grier, Medical Examiner and Company Surgeon for the Pennsylvania Railroad, who for the past six years has been located at Clayton, Del.

Dr. Grier is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has been continuously in the service of the Pennsylvania railroad for over thirteen years, having been located at Pittsburg, Pa. Immediately after the ceremony Doctor and Mrs. Grier left in an automobile for Felton, where the through north-bound express had been ordered to stop. Miss Russell is well-known here being a relative of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barnett and a frequent visitor at their home in Chestertown.
