STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Annie Clayton, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Leonard Price.

Mrs. John Boulden has been visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Master Arthur Allston, of Wilmington, has spent his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Norris and has returned to his home to resume his work in the office of A. L. Dupont Company.

Mrs. Lavina Harper and children, Baynard, Florence and Howard, are spending several days at Pen Mar.

Our town was greatly shocked on Wednesday evening to hear of the sad death of Mrs. Bertha Anthony who has been ill the past four weeks with typhoid fever. There were three of the family down with this terrible disease at one time, the others are reported better. We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Edward Crowding is spending sometime at Atlantic City. Madame Rumor has it he is on his wedding trip. Good for Edward.

Mr. Carl Norris is spending sometime with friends in Washington.

Little Miss Minnie Jones is visiting in Chestertown.

Swan Harding, of Laurel, Md., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley.

Rumor has it we are going to have a wedding soon.

Our pastor will speak Sunday morning on "Price of Power" and Mrs. Wm. Medders will lead the Epworth League service at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The Sinner Made Right and Made New." Mrs. Medders never fails to have a very interesting and helpful meeting. A welcome awaits you.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price, of Still Pond, entertained a house party at their home Wednesday evening the 5th. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. White, Mrs. J. M. Archibald, son and daughter, Mr. J. T. Hurlock, of New York; Mrs. T. H. Wilson and daughter, Elizabeth, of Smyrna: John C. Price, Jr., of Philadelphia. Delightful entertainment was provided to which was contributed the musical talent of the guests. Mr. Hurlock has been staying with his sister, the hostess, over three weeks, while Mrs. Wilson and daughter and Mr. Price, cousins of the host, continued their stay until Monday last. The last named guests were entertained Thursday and Saturday evening by excursions to the popular bay resort at Betterton where they participated enthusiastically ni the amusements the resort provides. By arrangement they dined Thursday evening at six with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Price of the "Price Cottage," after which a launching party was arranged up the Sassafras river.

PINEY NECK WAVES.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Philips, who have spent the greater part of this summer with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, returned to Baltimore Wednesday.

Miss Reba Ashley has returned home from a very pleasant visit to her aunt Mrs. Rebecca Crolley in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Fred Startt and children, Frances, John and Helen, after visiting relatives here for two weeks returned to their home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Wm. Ashley and daughter are visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. William Brown, of Baltimore, is the guest of his cousins Messrs. John and Christropher Grant.

The first and second nines of P. N. base ball teams played an exciting game on Saturday last. The score marked four to twelve in favor of the second nine. The umpire was Captain Lum Ashley who had interest in neither.

It will be their last game for this year as every one is busily preparing for oystering. Hurrah! And a hand shake with the second team and they should be classed as the first nine in 1909.

Mr. John Glenn has quite a housefull of boarders from Baltimore. He would make a capital hotel keeper as he does everything for one's pleasure.

The flag pole that was broken off by the cyclonic storm in the first part of the summer is being transplanted by a new one. This is being strongly and neatly done by Mr. Robert Creighton and son.

Miss Rilla Wood entertained a large circle of her friends to a watermelon feast on Saturday evening last in honor of her friend's, Miss Anna Fitzpatrick, eighteenth birthday. The table was laden with fruit of all kinds and very artistically arranged. The center was graced with a large cake surmounted with 18 candles. Games and dancing were the features of the evening. Everyone announces it to be a very memorable evening.

ROBBINS circus will be in Chestertown, Monday, August 31.

MEDDERS & Co., as usual, will exhibit at Tolchester Fair next week. Look them up and talk to their hustling manager.

The Kennedyville Third Team and the Bohemian men of Crumpton played a game of ball last Saturday. Score 6 to 5 in favor of Crumpton.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

From the text, "Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ," Parson Richardson preached a most excellent and timely sermon on Sunday morning before a large audience. The reverend gentleman forcibly demonstrated that putting on the Lord Jesus Christ did not stop with profession, bible reading and church attendance, but implied also the taking of His merit, His spirit and temper of mind. It was to put on humility, love, truth, obedience. For the present day disposition to put off so much of the Lord Jesus Christ no better sermon could have been preached. No service at the M. P. Church for the day, a goodly number of that membership were present and enjoyed Mr. Richardson's discourse.

Mrs. McCormick and daughter, Rose, are guests of relatives here.

Miss Edna Downey is spending a brief period with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fogwell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Davis over Sunday.

Misses Marcia and Elsie Legg are being entertained by the Misses Ryan this week. They were accompanied by their friend, Mr. Robert Kirby.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Coleman are visiting among their relatives in this section. Wesley shows the effects of a siege of la grippe.

Mr. J. Frank Wheatly was among us on Sunday. Frank shows the effect of hard work and hot weather, but as he says he knows a good thing when he sees it, and good place when he strikes it, he will stay in Chestertown and keep at the grindstone.

Misses Marian Wirth, Lydia Karcher, Nellie Karcher, Mabel Myers and Freda Pfisterer, of Baltimore, are spending a portion of their vacation in this town. They are enthusiastic Sunday School young ladies and are pledged to attend Sunday school whenever possible, whether home or abroad, and must give an account of themselves to their Superintendent on their return home.

Mr. Charles Brown and family are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ayres. Charly resides in Philadelphia and is a brakeman on the Penn. R. R.

This section was startled on Sunday with the rumor of a murder committed on the night before, and when the efforts of a number of our citizens proved successful in hauling from the creek bottom the body of the victim on Monday, excitement ran high. The affair is deplorable, but is only what long has been expected. Bad liquor and worse women, seems to have been the cause.

The dredging company has finished the inner harbor, and are now cutting through the Swan Island bar.

The M. E. Sunday School held their annual outing on Thursday. They picniced on the Deep Landing shore and had a joyous time all day.

Lots of building material is going out from Leary's factory this week.

'TWAS CIRCUS DAY.

The Frank Robbins circus visited Olean yesterday, and gave clean, attractive, and entertaining performances, afternoon and evening. The Robbins show is one of the good old fashioned one ring kind, where you can see all that is "doing," and while there are not one hundred and one "turns" as in the big three ring circuses, what there is is good. The tents were well filled both afternoon and evening, and those present seemed satisfied that they had received their money's worth. The show people claim no following of "sharks" and gamblers, and no complaints along that line were made during their visit to Olean. The Robbins shows can be credited with fulfilling all they promise.—Olean Times. Will exhibit in Chestertown, Monday, August 31.

HAND OF DEATH.

The Sad Reaper Has Called A Number To Their Last Resting Place.

MRS. CHARLES ESTES.

Mrs. Elizabeth Estes, wife of Mr. Charles Estes, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. U. Lusby, Chestertown, on Thursday evening last. She had been sick for several months at her old home on Princess street and was removed to her daughter's several weeks ago so as to have her constant care, and no daughter could have given her mother more loving and faithful attention than did Mrs. Lusby. Everything was done for her comfort. She was about 64 years of age and leaves a husband, one daughter, Mrs. Annie Lusby, and three sons, James, Ollie and Fred Estes. The funeral will take place from the home of her daughter in Chestertown on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The bearers will be W. A. Wheatley, Lewin S. Fowler, Frank H. Howard, W. F. Russell, Chas. S. Smith, W. H. Robinson. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

MISS MARTHA E. BRYAN.

Miss Martha Emma Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bryan, died at her home near Lankford, on Sunday morning last of typhoid fever. She was 21 years of age and a most estimable young lady. The funeral took place Tuesday, Rev. Mr. McCoy, of Bond, officiated. Interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were: Rev. B. A. Bryan, Dr. J. F. Bryan, R. M. Bryan, Jr., Thos. H. Bryan, Robert Metcalf, Wm. Davis. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

MRS. JOHN W. DICKINSON.

Mrs. John W. Dickinson, wife of John Dickinson, of Centreville, Queen Anne's county, (former resident of Rock Hall, Kent county,) died Saturday morning at 4 o'clock after a lingering and painful illness with which she had been confined to her bed for the past two months. Mrs. Dickinson was 70 years of age and is survived by her husband, three sons and daughter.

MISS ELLA PARR.

Miss Ella Parr, daughter of Justice Henry Parr, died very suddenly on Tuesday night at her home in Galena. She was about 50 years of age and lived at home with her father. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from her late home.

S. R. HURLOCK.

Mr. S. R. Hurlock, one of the most prominent citizens of Queen Anne's county, died at his residence near Chester bridge about midnight last Friday, of paralysis. Mr. Hurlock had suffered intensely from a fractured arm for the past six months, and was just recovering from this injury when the fatal stroke came while he was in the field superintending the gathering of his tomato crop.

The deceased was born in Kent county, Delaware, December 7th, 1849, his parents being John F. and Henrietta Hurlock. Early in life he adopted agriculture as his chosen avocation and was eminently successful, being possessed at the time of his death of a large and valuable estate. He was a charter member and director of the Queen Anne's National Bank of Centreville, and that institution owes much of its success to his able advice while serving on the board of directors. Always prominent in matters for the advancement of the community, he had by his public-spirited interest in the welfare of others and by his many acts of kindness, greatly endeared himself to all who knew him. His death is a sad blow to the community.

Mr. Hurlock married Miss Catherine Evans, of Queen Anne's county, who with one son, Wilbur, survive him. He leaves also three brothers and two sisters —John H., of Snow Hill; J. Edward, of Millington; Walter W., of Centreville; Mrs. Carrie Bullen, of Baltimore, and Mrs. S. A. Wallace, of Kennedyville.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from his late residence; interment in Church Hill cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. D. Thos. Hurlock, W. W. Hurlock, Edward Hurlock, Frank H. Greenwood, W. Irving Walker and C. H. Jefferson. The Directors and Cashier of the Queen Anne's National Bank acted as honory pall bearers.

ELWOOD ROBINSON.

Mr. Elwood Robinson died on Wednesday evening last about 10 o'clock at his home near Sassafras. Mr. Robinson had only been sick for two or three days suffering from that dreaded disease diptheria in the most malignant form, and when it was learned he was dead, it was a severe shock to his many friends. Mr. Robinson was one of Kent's most sterling and reliable farmers, a most genial gentleman, and a kind-hearted christian man. He leaves a devoted wife and five children, two sons Harry and Morgan, one little son and two little daughters. The funeral was private, not even his parents being present. Mr. Robinson was only in his 43rd year. His brother, Frederick Robinson, was with him until he died. He did not seem fearful of the disease and nursed his brother until the end.

MRS. BERTHA ANTHONY.

Mrs. Bertha Anthony died on the Geo. Harper farm, near Turner's Creek, on Wednesday of typhoid fever. She was 24 years of age and leaves a husband, Wm. Anthony, and three children. The funeral took place on Friday morning with interment at Crumpton cemetery. W. H. Krusen undertaker.

HARRY C. JARRELL.

The funeral of Mr. Harry C. Jarrell, an account of whose sad death was published in last week's NEWS, took place from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua L. Jarrell, near Kennedyville, on Sunday last. The bearers were W. T. Hague, R. R. Hill, Thomas Redmile, J. N. Bennett, W. B. Cleaver, Wm. Pote. Rev. Mr. Collins officiated, assisted by Rev. E. S. Fooks. Wm. H. Krusen undertaker. Mr. Oscar L. Jarrell and Mrs. Oscar Jarrell's mother have improved and are out of danger from eating toadstools near Rochester, N. Y.

OUR readers will be pleased to learn that a well-known former resident of Chestertown, Mr. E. H. Eliason, is the general manager of The Fairfield Manufacturing Company, of Philadelphia, who are now advertising their separate preparations for farm animals in this paper. Mr. Eliason was induced to associate himself with this company because of the wonderful results he secured by using the Fairfield preparations on his father's farm. Mr. Eliason is not the only one in Kent that is singing the praises of the Fairfield remedies, as great results have also been secured by Mr. McMenamin, Mrs. M. A. Wilkins, Mr. Cornelius C. Brown and Mrs. Wilbur Eliason. These goods are sold under a written guarantee by Davis & Satterfield, of Chestertown.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Messrs. John F. Ernest and brother-in law, John R. H. Price left on Monday morning for a fortnight visit to Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester left on Friday last for Baltimore, thence for Southern Maryland, seeing the sights of Westminister, Glenarm and other interesting points, and will visit friends in Baltimore county.

Mrs. Caroline Johns and sons are entertaining her daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ford, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Lane, all of Philadelphia, at her delightful home near town.

Mr. J. Capells, of Baltimore county, visited his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris, last week. Misses Linetta, Louise and Myrtle Morris accompanied their grandfather to his home on Saturday. These little misses will remain with their grandparents until school days begin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hender, near town, are entertaining her mother, Mrs. Albina Othoson, of Philadelphia, for the past several weeks.

Mr. Perry Othoson is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Royden Caulk are entertaining her sister, Miss May Toulson, of near New Castle.

Mrs. Louis H. Dreka is vistiing relatives in Baltimore, and will visit points of interest in and near Baltimore city for some days.

Mr. J. Ford Caulk, our well-known auctioneer, realized as he always does, most excellent prices at the two sales he called at Massey last week.

Attacked by a Mad Bull.—Joseph Woodrow, of Cecil is in a critical condition at his home near West Nottingham Presbyterian Church suffering with injuries inflicted by a bull owned by James Williams. He was picking blackberries along the edge of a pasture field when the animal attacked him, knocking him down, but on account of being dehorned was unable to gore him. A negro named Herbert Tibbet saw Mr. Woodrow's dangerous position and drove the animal off after considerable difficulty. It is feared his injuries are internal.
