The New Superior Grain Drill Is O. K.

Read what Mr. Harry P. Skipper Says:

Chestertown, Md., Oct. 15, '07.
Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, Md.
Gentlemen:—The Superior Grain Drill, with the new Fertilizer Finger Feed attachment, which I purchased of you in 1906, and which bunched my wheat so badly that I was not willing to settle for it until it was made right, I am pleased to say that the new "Y" spouts you put on this fall gave perfect satisfaction, and I herewith enclose my check in settlement for the drill. I would also say that the Superior Drill Co., through you, treated me as fair in this transaction as any man could ask.
Yours very truly,
HARRY P. SKIPPER.

We warrant this machine. You sign no note nor pay any money until your wheat comes up.

Perseverance

A steady accumulation of small savings deposited as they are saved in a safe and sound institution like this, where they will draw interest, will in a few years amount to a total of surprising magnitude.

At first the amount may seem small, and determined perseverance may be necessary to overcome discouragement; but after a year or two the accumulations will begin to be a stimulus to further saving, and you will find that with an increasing principal comes an increased interest.

FAIRFIELD'S STOCK FOOD
GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIER. SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR EACH KIND OF ANIMAL. : : : : : :

GENTLEMEN:
You certainly have a wonderful preparation for poultry. I have tried to raise ducks for 14 years without success; they would all die at the feathering age. But this year I was induced to try your Poultry Tonic, and when my ducklings got giddy I fed the tonic and raised all but one duck that hatched out.
CORNELIUS C. BROWN.

We guarantee all goods to be as represented and allow a liberal trial of thirty days—ample time in which to give them a thorough trial. If not satisfied by that time, the goods may be returned and money will be refunded. No charge made for a reasonable amount of tonics used in the trial.

A Cluster of News Notes.

SCHOOLS will open in Kent on Monday, Sept. 14th.

MISS ELSIE EISENHART has been appointed teacher at Locust Grove in place of Miss Dora Powell, resigned.

THE Holiness camp in Klinefelter's woods will close tomorrow, Sunday. The bad weather has seriously interferred with the meetings.

THE mercury registered 56° in Chestertown this week and overcoats were in demand. A man died from exposure in New York and snow fell in Centreville.

THE Chestertown bowling alley under the management of Mr. W. H. Lambert, of Edw., has been doing such an excellent business that an additional alley will be put in at once.

J. WATERS RUSSELL has bought of S. Scott Beck, attorney, the Gamble Farm, near Reese Corner, containing 100 acres. Mr. Russell is negotiating to sell this farm to a Philadelphia buyer.

THE Chester River line will discontinue round trips after today. The Ford will leave Chestertown at 7 a. m., Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, stopping at all wharves including Rock Hall.

ONE of the pleasures of home is a good bed and in order to be sure to have this comfort a certain Chestertown married lady when going away takes her bed along with her. She packs a feather bed in the bottom of her trunk!

EIGHT or ten persons were arrested last Sunday while crabbing in Chester river for violation of the Sunday law. A constable from Jackson's creek made the arrests and all the boats were from Queen Anne's county.

THE carnival of shows on Maple avenue have been in tough luck this week. They have six shows all under one management and it requires considerable money to finance the affair, but the weather has prevented giving exhibitions.

AN alarm of fire was sent in Tuesday afternoon at Chestertown and the Volunteers responded promptly. It proved to be a small blaze in Dr. S. E. Ford's kitchen caused from a coal oil stove, which was soon under control.

ATLANTIC CITY has the "Rainbow" craze. This beautiful Indian love song has captured all music lovers. All the bands play it, every singer warbles it and the newsboys whistle it. Its rival or companion is "Red Roses Bring Memories of You."

Two of the highest hauls of rock fish in recent years were made this week in North East river by Harry Harvey. In the first haul there were 4,700 pounds, and in the second 1,000. These are the biggest hauls made in a tributary of Chesapeake Bay in recent years.

AT a hearing held in Rock Hall Monday before Justice Wilkins Henry Grinnell, Herbert Brookins, Edward Johnson and Alexander Bailey were held for the murder of Frank Harvey, all colored. State's Attorney Beck and officers Lockerman and Scoone have worked this case up well.

THERE was displayed in one of J. H. Sides, the Jeweler's, show windows a few days ago a very large and handsome oak chest of sterling silver of about one hundred pieces, which was purchased by Mrs. Emma Snitcher and presented to her daughter, Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell, of Chestertown.

TUESDAY will witness the opening of the oyster season. The prospect is good the bars being covered with oysters. If the oystermen would only stop stealing from themselves and strictly carry out the cull law there'd be plenty of good oysters and prices would be far better. Try it for once.

THE raising of good stock is occupying the attention of farmers to larger extent than ever before and it is evident this branch of farming pays better than grain. Messrs. Jos. Everett and James Bramble each sold a fine pair of mules last week for $350 a pair. This sum is equivalent to many a tenants' share of wheat on fifty acres!

PARTIES from Wye Mills are negotiating for the purchase of the stables on Cross street owned by Mr. R. J. McWhorter and occupied by Mr. C. H. Davis.

J. V. KILBOURN has a fine business at Edesville which he offers for sale in this issue of the NEWS.

A MAD DOG attacked Mr. Herbert Matthews' team of horses as they were being driven along the public road, near town, Tuesday. One of the horses was bitten in the nose and Dr. Jarman cauterized the wound. The dog was killed. This same dog passed across Mr. T. J. Davis' yard and bit two of his dogs and Mr. Davis shot them.

MR. DAVE SUTTON has purchased all the carriages and harness belonging to Mr. W. R. Clough, rented the stables on Maple avenue and will take charge there Sept. 1st. Mr. Stant will tenant the Walker farm now occupied by Mr. Sutton. Mr. Clough will deal in stock and may inaugurate an automobile line to Tolchester next year.

THE storm this week seriously interferred with Messrs. M. Elwood Baker and Harry Hodgkin who were encamped at Tolchester overlooking the bay. One night was sufficient and early Wednesday morning Mr. Robert McWhorter received word to "come get us." The young men spent nearly the whole night holding down the tent.

THE will of the late S. R. Hurlock was filed in Centreville court last week. The whole estate is left to the widow during her life and at her death to his son, Wilbur, during his life, and after his death it is to go to the children of Wilbur. The real estate left by Mr. Hurlock consists of four fine farms in Queeen Anne's and one excellent farm in Kent, all estimated to be worth around $75,000. Mr. Wilbur Hurlock is made executor under the will of his father.

THE excursion season being over the Pennsylvania railroad will resume their former schedule Tuesday whereby the afternoon train will leave Chestertown at 2.30 p. m. and arrive at 6.05. This will be quite a convenience to business men who make the round trip to town. The afternoon train leaves Philadelphia about 3 p. m. instead of 4 as at present.
