SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1908.

BRYAN will speak in Baltimore Monday, Sept. 14th.

THE NEWS would suggest that officers attend all picnics and search attendants as it seems that many colored men carry concealed weapons. If it is not a razor or a pistol, it is a bottle of liquor!

THE meeting of the State Democratic Central Committee in Baltimore Wednesday was largely attended and the most enthusiastic held for many years. The party organization in the State placed itself squarely behind Bryan and Kern and from this time will struggle to recover control of the Executive Department of the Federal Government. Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., and Dr. W. F. Hines were present from Kent.

MRS. KERN, wife of the Democratic vice-presidential nominee, says plainly that she is against the Sunday saloon and the army beer canteen. We believe it would be safe to leave the whole liquor question to Mrs. Kern and Mrs. Bryan; don't know how it would be with Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Sherman. But we would have no fear of committing it to the women of the United States in general. There is nothing the liquor traffic fears more than woman's temperance suffrage.

THE sale of liquor in Kent is almost exclusively confined to "walking bars." The frequent arrivals of boats and trains makes it very convenient for any who wish the stuff to procure same. Public sentiment is such that no decent man can deal in the sale of liquor in Kent. It is only the sneak and lazy fellows who handle it and efforts are being made to catch these violators. That it is this vile stuff which causes the recent crimes in Kent no one will deny, and it is the duty of every citizen to help bring the guilty parties to justice. We would suggest that the Queen Anne's law against purchasing from agents be passed at the next session of the Legislature.

"Why William H. Jackson Should Be Defeated."

The above heading attracted our eye in that bitter Republican publication, the Baltimore News, last Saturday. The excellent reasons assigned therein follow and should convince every voter that he should cast his ballot for Harry L. Covington, Esq.

"The News earnestly desires the election of Mr. Taft to the Presidency this fall. It would like to see a Congress elected which would sympathize with him in the programme of legislation which he so ably outlined in his speech of acceptance. But in connection with the Congressional elections it not infrequently happens that the local issues overshadow the national, so far as a particular district is concerned—and one of those districts is the First of Maryland.

More important to the people of the Eastern Shore than any other political issue at this time is the question of the attitude they are to take in connection with the vote-buying evil. The whole district stands disgraced today in the eyes of the people of the State and outside of the State wherever its unholy notoriety in this matter has gone. Bribery at elections has been carried to such a point on the Eastern Shore that the fact itself and the cynical way it is spoken of make decent Marylanders wince.

The candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket in the First district is identified in the public mind with the expenditure of large sums of money in elections. He has been very frank about the matter himself in the past. The only excuse given by himself or friends is that the other party has been as bad or worse than his own. His attitude and that of his managers in the present campaign is unsatisfactory; we are given to understand merely that they will spend no money improperly unless the opposition does so.

On the other hand, the candidate on the Democratic ticket is a young man who has unequivocally announced his intention to buy no votes and to permit no buying of votes in his behalf, and his reputation is that of a man who can be trusted to carry out in letter and spirit this pledge to the people. There is no temporizing or talk of fighting the devil with fire in his utterances.

To elect William H. Jackson to Congress against such an opponent while this issue of vote-buying is uppermost would be to condone that evil. It would publish to the world the fact that the Eastern Shore is corrupt and contented. Man for man, it can be well argued that Mr. Harry L. Covington would make a more creditable representative in Congress than Mr. Jackson, but even if that were not the case the election of Mr. Jackson at this time and the encouragement his election would give politicians of the baser sort would work immeasurably more harm to the Eastern Shore than anything he could possibly do in the House of Representatives would counterbalance.

Heat Causes Queer Phenomenon.—A dispatch to the Philadelphia "Record" reports two strange phenomena caused by the heat in this section. It states that six goose eggs that had been under a hen and were cast into the barnyard as spoiled, by Miss Irene Clayton, of Calvert, were hatched out by the heat of the sun's rays, after lying there nearly a week.

The heat also caused a parrot in the home of Miss Mary Brown, of Port Deposit, to lay its first egg in the 24 years it has been in the family. This is said to be due to the fact that the torrid weather established conditions similar to those in the tropical climate which parrots inhabit and under which only do they lay eggs.

CHESTERTOWN is fortunate in having good water. Time and time again the water from the mains has been tested by experts and found to be O. K.

BRYAN CAN CARRY MARYLAND.

When it is said that Bryan is not strong in Maryland it is an assertion made in direct opposition to facts and figures. It is true the gold bugs in 1896 and 1900 defeated Bryan in Maryland. It was not the Republican vote which did it, but Palmer-Buckner-McKinley goldites. Bryan was a far stronger man than Parker among the true, loyal Democrats of the rank and file. Here are the figures as given in the Sun Almanac of 1905: Bryan in 1900 polled 122,238, Parker 109,446. In Baltimore city Bryan 51,970, Parker 47,901. Another fact Roosevelt in 1904 fell 27,000 votes behind McKinley in 1900. It was not due to the greater popularity of Parker that he got 7 of the 8 electors in 1904 and Bryan lost the State in 1900, but as previously stated Bryan's vote was greater by 12,772 than Parker's, but the changes in the election laws between 1900 and 1904 had cut off about 27,000 Republican votes. Another fact, McKinley never offended Southern sentiment by dining with a negro as Roosevelt did and as Taft tried to do on a Southern railroad dining car. Will not the same reasons which operated against Roosevelt in 1904 operate with the same force against his successor and heir, the embodiment of "My policies," negro equality, etc? Therefore, is it not a very logical, sensible, political conclusion that if Bryan gets as big a vote as he did in 1900 (and he is far stronger today) and Taft only gets the vote that Roosevelt did in 1904, why cannot Bryan carry Maryland by from 13,000 to 15,000 plurality?
