The New Superior Grain Drill Is O. K.

Read what Mr. Harry P. Skipper Says:

Chestertown, Md., Oct. 15, '07.
Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, Md.
Gentlemen:—The Superior Grain Drill, with the new Fertilizer Finger Feed attachment, which I purchased of you in 1906, and which bunched my wheat so badly that I was not willing to settle for it until it was made right, I am pleased to say that the new "Y" spouts you put on this fall gave perfect satisfaction, and I herewith enclose my check in settlement for the drill. I would also say that the Superior Drill Co., through you, treated me as fair in this transaction as any man could ask.
Yours very truly,
HARRY P. SKIPPER.

We warrant this machine. You sign no note nor pay any money until your wheat comes up.

Perseverance

A steady accumulation of small savings deposited as they are saved in a safe and sound institution like this, where they will draw interest, will in a few years amount to a total of surprising magnitude.

At first the amount may seem small, and determined perseverance may be necessary to overcome discouragement; but after a year or two the accumulations will begin to be a stimulus to further saving, and you will find that with an increasing principal comes an increased interest.

GENTLEMEN:
You certainly have a wonderful preparation for poultry. I have tried to raise ducks for 14 years without success; they would all die at the feathering age. But this year I was induced to try your Poultry Tonic, and when my ducklings got giddy I fed the tonic and raised all but one duck that hatched out.

We guarantee all goods to be as represented and allow a liberal trial of thirty days—ample time in which to give them a thorough trial. If not satisfied by that time, the goods may be returned and money will be refunded. No charge made for a reasonable amount of tonics used in the trial.

A LITTLE GIRL of Kent county after being confined for several weeks to her bed by fever and becoming convalescent was showered with flowers by friends until the little one remarked "I don't want no flowers, I want some chicken." Another little one who was sick with fever a few mornings ago surprised his mother by asking for buckwheat and sausage!

THE resignation of Mr. Purnell Jump, as school commissioner for Kent county, was quite a surprise to most people. He has made a faithful official. His successor will be named shortly. Among the names suggested by the Republican leaders are Messrs. Bartus Trew, C. C. Brown, John N. Bennett, T. H. M. Bramble, I. R. Leaverton, J. A. Casey, Wm. G. Smith and others.

Mr. Bacchus and family will occupy the property about the middle of November and will make extensive improvements in the same, though the property is not at all out of repair now. Dr. Hines expects to spend much of his time hereafter in Baltimore but has no purpose of changing his residence from Kent. The price paid by Mr. Bacchus has not been divulged but was in cash. A Fine Lecture.—An interesting feature of the program for the Teachers' Institute was the lecture given Monday evening in Stam's Hall by that distinguished orator, Dr. T. H. Lewis. His theme was "Following the Footsteps of St. Paul through Athens and Rome, the Capitals of Power and Culture," illustrated by a hundred splendid views on canvas. The lecture was enjoyed by about 300 persons.
