The Union Tavern,

IN EASTON, MD.

THE subscriber having taken a new lease of this COMMODIOUS ESTABLISH-MENT, including the private dwelling houses lately attached to it by the proprietor, solicits the patronage of Travellers and citizens of Tal-bot and the neighboring counties. His exer-tions to please all persons shall be redoubled and unremitted; and, as it is understood that the respectable and veteran Inn-keeper, Mr. Lowe, will in a very short time decline the business, the subscriber flatters himself that he will be able to hold a fair and equal com-petition with any other individual in his line.

At the private house of the Union Tavern Ladies and Gentlemen can be at all times ac-commodated in separate parties free from all noise and interruption, and shall receive the strictest attention.

☞The patronage of the Judges and Coun-sel, who attend the Courts, sitting in Easton, is solicited and every possible attention to their comfort and convenience is promised.

☞The stables belonging to this establishment will be largely extended and improved imme-diately, and the utmost care of horses will be taken.

☞Terrapin and Oyster suppers promptly prepared.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THIS

NEW ROUTE,

will be obvious to the Citizens of St. Mich-aels and the neighbourhood, the upper part of Talbot, Queen Anns and Delaware, after a short trial. The intercourse between Anna-polis and Baltimore and their respective places of residence, will certainly be rendered more expeditious, safe and convenient than any heretofore offered to them. It is to be hoped therefore, encouragement will be given to the owners of the Boat to continue this route.

ADVANTAGES.

So long as the Steam Boat shall continue the above routes, St. Michaels will get the news, &c. from Baltimore and Annapolis, every Sunday and Wednesday, Centreville every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; Cambridge every Tuesday and Friday; and Easton, every Monday, Tuesday and Friday.
