What's the matter with the mail to Skinner's Neck? Our subscribers there are bitter in complaints, and justly so, as it takes them about four days to get their papers!

Thompson's Bowling Alley opened up Friday night, free to all. Even some of our young ladies tried their skill in throwing the ball.

Mr. Walter Wirts, of this town, has been very ill but is now improving slowly.

The Bryan, Kern and Covington Club meets every Saturday night in Ashley's Hall.

With this week began a series of tri-weekly cottage meetings by the M. E. Church Society and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Richardson. The purpose of these meetings is to get in touch with those who cannot or will not attend church services. Also to prepare the "fallow ground" for the coming revival effort so that Parson Richardson and his flock will not have to resort to hiring a foreign evangelist to whoop it up for them.

The "Hamshaw" of Thursday night and Friday of last week had the effect of booming the oyster industry. As a consequence oystermen have been infused with new life and vigor and merchants countenances less drawn.

Firm Mulfordiand his partner started for the city out of the river on Thursday evening last week with several day's catch of oysters in their tonging boat and were caught by the heavy blow in the bay. No news concerning them was had until Saturday morning when they were seen going into Baltimore harbor after a most thrilling experience of storm tossing.

The cool weather of Saturday night interferred with the festival and supper on the church lawn. The results were not as anticipated.

Our farmers are husking corn and selling corn and selling it to pork raisers for $3 per barrell.

Cholera is infesting numerous swine herds in these parts.

Several frosts of last week had the effect of hastening Chestnut ripening and Sunday was an ideal day for gathering nuts if one may judge from the squads of young men and boys bound for the wood.

Mrs. Captain George had the misfortune on Saturday of falling and spraining an ankle very severely. Neighbors have been very kind in their attention to her.

Miss Ella Ryan, of Baltimore, spent a few days at the home of her sisters the past week. She returned on Monday to resume her duties as private nurse. Rev. Mr. Richardson is busily engaged in pastorial visiting among his parishioners this week.

Post Master Downey and Dr. Schwatka, report says, are about to make a deal in the exchange of their properties.

And it looks as if butchers Wheatley and Casey are also looking to a deal or combination to control prices as we find them now and then in close confab.

The result of the two days registration was 31 to the voting population of the 5th district with six removals and Coburn says the Democrats have by far the most of these new voters.

Another new lamp has been placed in for the inspection of the town residents Mayor Crew says the town council are trying every style that come along with a view of getting the largest and best for the least money. For power of light the one now in use is hard to beat.

The old Copper property near the store of Mr. S. J. Wickes has at last been sold, Mr. E. E. Leary being the purchaser at $95. The property has been an eyesore and we now look for a splendid improvement in the near future.

The B. K. & C. Club here is steadily enrolling numbers and building a power for the Democratic cause.

The managers of the great Philadelphia Founders' Week show offered a startling inducement for travelers hereabouts to attend. The reduction in railroad fare was just eleven cents round trip!

The course being pursued by the Baltimore Sun in this campaign becomes more and more disgusting as the day of election approaches. Democrats of course are disappointed in the Sun's enmity to Bryan but when a paper with the past record such as it has, stoops to such inconsistencies as have appeared in its columns this week, Democrats, are disgusted and Republicans laugh at the idea of putting forth such weak arguments. For instance the editors hold up their hands in holy horror at Bryan's silver sentiments expressed in 1896 when the public remembers the fact that in 1900 the Sun heartily endorsed Mr. Bryan swallowing silver and every other theory or fact advocated by him.

Thursday's editorial is a labored effort finding fault with Judge Parker for supporting Bryan, and the only reason given why the learned Judge should not do so is an extract from a speech of Mr. Bryan delivered in 1904 finding fault with Parker for his gold tendencies! The Sun is acting like a spoilt child. Angry because one man heaps coals of fire upon another. Why the Sun man must have forgotten the Sunday School lesson he endeavored to teach his readers a few weeks ago. WAKE UP, SUN, and be something.
