their trade. It is time to adjust the question, range our party under the accepted name of Republicans, and rally under that broad banner against the Whig candidate and the Whig bank. Under such auspices, WE ARE CONFIDENT that we shall sweep the Whigs at the next election, and carry a decided majority in the House of Delegates.

For ourselves (we repeat) we have never gone into any contest with a more buoyant spirit, than in the one we are about to enter. We have done with complaints, if ever we made any. We will avoid crimination and recrimination. We will cherish harmony.—We will unite heart and hand with every Democrat, who will assist in saving the Republic. We will forbear all aggravation; all offence; all wrangling and bickering with our political friends. We will not dispute about the causes of the disease. We will unite with all in seeking and applying the remedy. If this spirit be generally cultivated, the victory is ours; and Virginia will again be wrested, at the next spring election, out of the hands of the Whigs.—Richmond Enquirer.

☞ There are in the United States 600,000 children entirely destitute of the means of a Common School education, about 2,000,000 adults and children unable to read.

☞ The annexed quotations make very neat thrusts at the "great financier." How beautiful is consistency.

What a contrast is Biddle's letter now, with the one he wrote to President Adams the 13th of May. "Had the Bank consulted its own strength it would have continued its payments without reserve."

"The U. S Bank ought not to assume the risk of being the only source of supply for bullion to the Government!"

"But the suspension must not be tolerated beyond the necessity which commanded it."

"The Bank of the United States will be the rallying point of the country for the resumption of specie payments."

"It will husband all its resources so as to profit by the first favorable moment to take the lead in the resumption."

"It will co-operate cordially with all the banks and with any other influences which can aid in that object!"

These were Biddle's boasts and pledges in May, 1837. See them redeemed in his letter of April 1838!—Boston Advocate.

The Louisiana Advertiser thinks that, should its whig brethren labor as 'faithfully' at the next general election as they did at the late charter election in New Orleans, the democrats will elect their candidate for Governor. We concur in this opinion. Louisiana must go with the other Southern States. She cannot consent to be ruled by a great northern bank by tariffites, or abolitionists. We are confident "the South" will go, entire, for the democracy of the country.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, all his real estate in Talbot County, Md., consisting of one farm, handsomely situated on Bullingbrook Creek, upon which Risdon Fountain now lives,—Fish, Oysters, and Wild Ducks, and all other luxuries that the salt water affords are to be had—there is one other luxury superior yet, (that of health.) Also the farm upon which Henry Harrison now lives, situate on the main road leading to Dover Bridge, and contiguous to two good Grist Mills, and one Saw Mill, all within one mile of a body of heavy Oak timber. Also the farm in Tuckahoe Neck, upon which John Smith now lives, lying immediately on the Choptank River, and bounded on the west by Turkey Creek with endless beds of first rate shell marl, as well as an inexhaustible body of choice Hickory and Oak Timber, convenient to the river navigation, he deems it unnecessary to say any thing more of the intrinsic value of these farms on account of their location and soils, as persons will doubtless view the property before purchasing. Terms made known upon application to the subscriber, at Easton, who will remain but a few weeks, or to Samuel Muckey, at Easton.

Easton, May 1, 1838.

PEDIGREE.

SASSAFRAS was bred by me; he was got by Ware's Godolphin; his dam, Rosalia, got by the imported horse Express; his grand dam, Betsey Bell by McCarty's Cub; his great grand dam, Temptation, by Heath's Childers; his g. g. grand dam, Maggy Lauder by Doctor Hamilton's imported horse Figure; his g. g. g. grand dam by the imported horse Othello; his g. g. g. g. grand dam by Spark, who was imported by the first Governor Ogle. Godolphin was got by Col. Baylor's Godolphin, out of a Shark. Express was got by Post-Master, out of a Syphon mare, and was imported. Cub was got by Yorick, his dam by Silver Legs, out of the imported mare Moll Brazen. Heath's Childers was got by Baylor's Fearnaught, his dam an imported mare. Figure was imported by Doctor Hamilton. Othello, imported by Governor Sharp, was got by Crab, out of Miss Slamerkin. Spark was imported by the first Governor Ogle.

SASSAFRAS is much approved as a foal getter. His produce have been remarkable for their good form, good disposition, and truth in harness. Godolphin, the sire of Sassafras, had

1 cross of old Diomede, (sire of Sir Archy,)
2 crosses of old Shark, imported,
2 crosses of Old Fearnaught, imported,
1 cross of Kitty Fisher,
1 cross of Jinny Dismal.

T. M. FOREMAN.

RATCLIFFE,

A beautiful bay with black legs, mane and tail; 16 hands high, raised by Henry Hollyday, Esq. will travel the ensuing season through Talbot and Queen-Ann's, commencing at Easton, on TUESDAY, the 20th instant. He will stand each alternate week in the above named counties—at the following places—Easton, St. Michaels and Trappe; at Centreville, Queenstown and Kent Island. He will be let to Mares on the following terms:—5 dollars the spring's chance, 10 dollars to ensure, and 3 dollars the single leap; in each case 25 cents to the groom.

As to bone, figure and action, it is believed this horse is excelled by none in the county, the public however, will judge for themselves upon these points. Ratcliffe was sired by Mr. Randolph's fine horse Rinaldo, his dam by Wm. R. Stewart's Messenger (who obtained the prize at the Easton Cattle Show;) he by the celebrated horse imported Messenger.—Ratcliffe's grand dam was a thorough bred mare raised by John Edmondson, Esq.—Thus it appears that he is descended from the finest blood in this country.
